17 And he tooke the cup, & gave thanks, and sayd, Take this, and divide it among you.

18 For I say unto you, I will not drinke of the fruite of the vine, untill the kingdom of God be come.

19 * And he tooke bread, and when hee had given thanks, he brake it, and gave to them, saying, * This is my body, which is given for you: doe this in the remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also after Supper he tooke the cup, saying, This cup is the new * Testament in my blood which is shed for you.

21 * Percebehold, the hand of him that betrayed me, is with me at the table.

22 And truly the Soune of man goeth as it is appointed: but woe be to that man, by whom he is betrayed.

23 Then they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it should be, that should doe that.

24 ¶ And there arose also a strife among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest.

25 But hee said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles reigne over them, and they that beare rule over them, are called * Gracious lords.

26 But ye shall not be so: but let the greatest among you be as the * least: and the chiefest as he that serveth.

27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or he that serveth? is not hee that sitteth at table? And I am among you as hee that serveth.

28 And ye are they which have continued with me in my tentations.

29 Therefore I * appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed to mee,

30 * That ye may * eat and drinke at my table in my kingdom, and sit on seats, and iudge the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And hee said also, Simon, Simon, behold, * Satan hath desired you, to * winnow you as wheate.

32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith * faile not: therefore when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 * And hee said unto him, Lord, I am ready to goe with thee into prison, and to death.

34 But hee said, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shall not crowe this day, before thou hast thrise denied that thou knowest me.

35 ¶ And hee said unto them, * When I sent you without bag, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they sayd, Nothing.

36 Then hee said to them, But now hee that hath a bag, let him take it, and likewise a scrip: and hee that hath none, let him sell his coat, and * buy a sword.

37 For I say unto you, that yet the same which is written must be performed in mee, * Cursed be the wicked man hee numbered: for doubleth hee those things which are written of me, haue an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are * two swords. And hee said unto them, It is enough.

39 * And hee came out, and went (as hee was wont) to the mount of Olives: and his disciples also followed him.

40 * And when hee came to the place, hee said to them, Pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

41 And hee gate himselfe from them about a stone cast, and knelted downe and prayed,

42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this * cup from mee: neuertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an Angel unto him from heauen, comforting him.

44 But being in an * agonie, hee prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was like dropes of blood, trickling downe to the ground.

48 And Iesus sayd unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Sonne of man with a kisse?

49 Now when they which were about him, saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we fight with sword?

58 And after a little while, another man saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. But Peter said, Man, I am not.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Iesus is brought before Pilate and Herod, 18 Of Barabbas, 26 Of Simon the Cyrenian, 27 The women make lamentation, 33 Christ crucified, 34 He prayeth for his enemies, 40 He commeth to the thurst and many others at his death, 53 and is buried.

¶ Then the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accule him, saying, We haue found this man peruerter the people, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cesar, saying, that he is Christ a king.

3 ¶ And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Iewes? And he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the high Priests, and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, We moueth the people, teaching throughout all Iudaea, beginning at Galilee, euen to this place.

6 Now when Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he knew that he was of Herods iurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, which was also at Jerusalem in those dayes.

8 And when Herod saw Iesus, hee was exceedingly glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because hee had heard many things of him, and trusted to haue scene some thing done by him.

9 Then questioned hee with him of many things: but he answered him nothing.

10 The high Priests also & Scribes stood forth, and accused him vehemently.

11 And Herod with his men of warre despised him, and mocked him, and arrayed him in: white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the high Priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 ¶ And said unto them, Ye haue brought this man unto me, as one that peruerter the people: and behold, I haue examined him before you, and haue found no fault in this man, of those things whereof ye accuse him.

15 And, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him: and loe, nothing worthy of death is done I will.

16 I thinke therefore chastise him, and let him loose.

19 Which for a certaine insurrection made in the cite, and murder, was cast in prison.

20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus loose.

22 And he said unto them the third time, But what euill hath he done? I finde no cause of death in him: I will therefore challenge him, and let him loose.

23 But they were instant with loud voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them, & of the big Pilates preuailed.

24 So Pilate gaue sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he let loose unto them him that for insurrection and murder was cast into prison, whom they desired, and deliuered Iesus to doe with him what they would.

26 ¶ And as they led him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, coming out of the field, and on him they laid the crosse, to beare it after Iesus.

27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, which women bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Iesus turned backe unto them, and said, Daughters of Ierusalem, weepe not for me, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.

29 For behold, the daies will come, when men shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombes that neuer bare, & the paps which neuer gaue sucke.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountaynes, Fall on vs: and to the hills, Couer vs.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called Caluerie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

34 Then said Iesus, Father, forgive them: for they knowe not what they doe. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood and beholde: and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saued others: let him saue himselfe, if hee be the Christ, the Chosen of God.

36 The soldiers also mocked him, and came and offered him vinegar, 37 And said, If thou be the King of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.

38 And a superscription also was written ouer him in Greeke letters, and in Latine, and in Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

39 And one of the euill doers, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thy selfe and vs.

40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, Fearest thou not God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 I seee are in deed righteously here: for we receiue things worthy of that we haue done: but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And hee said unto Iesus, Lord remember mee when thou comest into thy kingdome.

43 Then Iesus sayd unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in Paradis.

44 ¶ And it was about the 6th houre: and there was a darknesse ouer all the land, vntill the ninth houre.

45 And the Sunne was darkened, and the vail of the Temple rent through the middes.

46 And Iesus cryed with a lowde voyce, and sayd, Father, into thine hands I commend my spirit. And when he had thus said, he gaue vp the ghost.

47 ¶ Now when the Centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Of a surer this man was iust.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, inot their hearts and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance stood afare off, and the women that followed him from Galile, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And behold, there was a man named Ioseph, which was a Counsellor, a good man and a iust.

51 He did not consent to the counsell and deed of them, which was of Arimathe, a city of the Iewes: who also himselfe waited for the kingdome of God.

52 Hee went vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus,

53 And tooke it downe, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, and laide it in a tombe between out of a rocke, wherein was neuer man yet layde.

54 And that day was the Preparation, and the Sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also that followed after, which came with him from Galile, beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was layd.

56 And they returned, and prepared odours and oymments, and rested the Sabbath day, according to the commandement.

8 And they remembred his words,
9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things vnto the churche, and to all the remnant.

10 Now it was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their words seemed vnto them, as a fained thing, neither beleued they them.

12 Then arose Peter, and came vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and sawe the linnen clothes layd by themselves, and departed mounching in himselfe, at that which was come to passe.

13 ¶ And behold, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem aboute threescore furlonges, called Emmaus.

14 And they talked together of all these things that were done.

15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus himselfe was nere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, that they could not know him:

17 And he said vnto them, What manner of communications are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered, and said vnto him, Art thou onely a stranger in Ierusalem, & hast not knowen the things which are come to passe therein, in these dayes?

19 And hee sayd vnto them, What things? And they said vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazareth, which was a Prophet mightie in deed and in word before God, and all the people.

20 And how the high Priest and our rulers deliuered him to bee condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had bene hee that should haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day that they were done.

22 Yea, and certaine women among vs made vs astonished, which came early vnto the sepulchre.

23 And when they found not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also seene a vision of Angels, which said, that hee was alieue.

24 Therefore certaine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and found it euen so as the woman had said, but him they saw not.

25 Then he said vnto them, O fooles, and slow of heart to beleue all that the Prophets haue spoken,

26 Vnto that Christ should haue suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And he began at Moses, and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

28 And they drew nere vnto the towne which they went to, but he made as though he would haue gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is toward night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to eate with them.

30 And it came to passe as hee sat at table with them, he took the bread, and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, and they knew him: but hee was taken out of their sight.

32 And they said betwene themselves, did not our hearts burne within vs, while hee talked with vs by the way, and when hee opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Which said, The Lord is risen in deed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they told what things were done in the way, and how he was knowne of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they spake these things, Iesus himselfe stood in the mids of them, and said vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abashed and afraid, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

38 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye troubled, and wherefore doe doubts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold mine hands and my feet: for it is I myselfe: handle mee, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me haue.

40 And when hee had thus spoken, hee shewed them his hands and feet.

41 And while they yet beleued not for toy, and wonder, he said vnto them, I haue ye here any meat?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a baked fish, and of an hony combe.

43 And hee tooke it, and did eate before them.

44 And he said vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, that all must bee fulfilled which are written of mee in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand the Scriptures, 46 And said vnto them, Thus it is written, & thus it behooued Christ to suffer, and to rise againe from the dead the third day,

The holy Gospel of Iesus Christ, according to Iohn.

CHAP. I.

1. 14. 17 The diuinitie, humauitie, and office of Iesus Christ. 15 The testimony of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and that Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by it, and without it was made nothing that was made.

4 In it was life, and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in the darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man sent from God whose name was Iohn.

7 The same came for a witnesse, to beare witnesse of the light, that all men through him might beleeue.

8 He was not that light, but was sent to beare witnesse of the light.

9 That was true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, & the world was made by him: & the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his owne, and his owne receiued him not.

12 But as many as receiued him, to them he gaue power to be the sonnes of God, euen to them that beleeue in his name,

13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 ¶ And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among vs, (and we) saw the glory thereof, as the glory of the only begotten Sonne of the Father) full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ Iohn bare witnesse of him, and cryed, saying, This was he of whom I said, He that cometh after mee, is preferred before mee: for he was before me.

16 And of his fulnesse haue all we receiued, and grace for grace.

17 For the Law was giuen by Moyses, but grace and truth came by Iesus Christ.

18 ¶ So man hath seen God at any time: the only begotten Son, which is in the bosome of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ Then this is the record of Iohn, when the Iewes sent Belshes and Leuites from Ierusalem, to aske him, What art thou?

20 And he confessed and denied not, and said plainly, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? and he said, I am not, Art thou the Prophet? and he answered, No.

22 Then sayd they vnto him, What art thou, that we may giue an answer to them that sent vs? what sayest thou of thy selfe?

23 He said, I am the voyce of him that cryeth in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the Prophet Esaias.

24 Now they which were sent, of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said vnto him, Why baptizest thou euen, if thou beest not the Christ, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?

26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whom ye know not.

27 ¶ It is that cometh after me, which is preferred before me, whose shoole latchet I am not worthy to vnioloe.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Iordan, where Iohn did baptize.

29 ¶ The next day Iohn seeth Iesus coming vnto him, and sayeth, Behold the Lambe of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but because he should be declared to Israel, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.

32 So Iohn bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a dove, and it abode vpon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, hee sayd vnto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit come downe, and tarry still on him, that is he which baptizeth with the holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record, that this is the Sonne of God.

35 ¶ The next day, Iohn stood againe, and two of his disciples:

36 And he beheard Iesus walking by, and sayd, Behold the Lambe of God.

37 And the two disciples heard him speake, and followed Iesus.

38 Then Iesus turned about, and saw them follow, and sayd vnto them, What seek ye?

And they sayd vnto him, Rabbi, (which is to say by interpretation, Master,) where dwellest thou?

39 Hee sayd vnto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

40 ¶ Andrew, Simon Peters brother, was one of the two which had heard of Iohn, and that followed him.

unto him, Follow me.

city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip found Nathanael, and says unto him, We have found him, of whom

Ioseph.

46 Then Nathanael saith unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth?
Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Iesus saw Nathanael coming to him, & saith of him, Behold indeed an Israelite, in whom is no guile.

48 Nathanael says unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Iesus answered, and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the figge tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered, and says unto thou art the King of Israel.

CHAP. II.

8 Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 He drineth the buyers and sellers out of the Temple. 19
He forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 He conuertheth many, and discomfitteth many.

And the third day was there a marriage in Cana a towne of Galilee, and the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his Disciples to the marriage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus sayd unto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus said unto her, Woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His Mother sayd unto the seruants, Whatsoever he sayth vnto you, doe it.

6 And there were there six water-pots of stone after the manner of the purifying of the Iewes, containing two or three || firkins apiece.

7 And Iesus sayd vnto them, Fill the water-pots with water. Then they filled them vp to the brim.

8 Then hee sayd vnto them, Draw out now, and beare vnto the gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Now when the gouernour of the feast had called the water that was made wine, (for he knew not whence it was, but the ser-uants which drew the water, knew) the gouernour of the feast called the butlegrome,

10 And said vnto him, All men at the beginning set forth good wine, and when my bawls well drunk, then that which is worst:
but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntil now.

11 This beginning of || miracles did Jesus in Cana a towne of Galilee, and shewed forth his glory: and his disciples beleeued on him.

12 After that hee went downe into Capernaum, hee and his mother, and his || bre-
not many dayes there.

13 For the Iewes Passouer was at hand.
Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

14 And he found in the Temple chanes that sold oxen & sheepe, and doves, and changers of money, sitting there.

15 Then hee made a scourge of small cords, and drave them all out of the Temple with the sheepe & oxen, and pointed out the changers money, and ouerthrew the Tables,

16 And sayd vnto them that sold doves,
Take these things hence: make not my fathers house a house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered, that it was written, The zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and sayd vnto him, Rabbi, thou art the synagoge thou sayst, that thou dost these things?

19 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Destroy this Temple, and in three dayes I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Forty and six yeres was this Temple a building, and wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

21 But hee spake of the Temple of his body.

22 Afoore therefore as hee was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that hee thus sayd vnto them: and they beleeued the Scripture, and the word which Iesus had sayd.

23 Now when hee was at Ierusalem at the Passouer in the feast, many beleeued in his name, when they saw his miracles which hee did.

24 But Iesus || did not commit himselfe vnto them, because hee knew them all,

25 And had no neede that any should testifie of man: for hee knew what was in man.

4 Nicodemus said vnto him, How can a man be borne which is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily I say vnto thee, except a man be borne of water and of the Spirit, hee cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: and that that is borne of the Spirit, is Spirit.

7 Wherefore thou sayest that I sayd to thee, Thou must be borne againe.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: So is every man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and said vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered, and said vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, wee speake that we know, and testifie that wee haue seene: but ye receive not our witness.

12 I witness I tell you earthly things, ye beleeue not, how should ye beleeue if I shall tell you of heavenly things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in heauen.

14 And as Moyses lift vp the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Sonne of man be lift vp.

15 That whosoever beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternall life.

16 For God so loued the world, that he hath giuen his onely begotten Sonne, that whosoever beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue euermlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Sonne into the world, that he should condemne the world, but that the world through him might be saued.

18 He that beleeueth in him, shall not be condemned: but hee that beleeueth not, is condemned already, because he beleeueth not in the name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather then light, because their deeds were euill.

20 For every man that euill doeth, hateth the light, neither cometh to light, least his deeds should be reprobated.

21 But he that doeth truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds might be made manifest, that they are wrought by God.

22 Not onely does he, but whosoeuer should be-lieue in him.

23 After these things came Jesus & his disciples into the land of Iudea, and there tarried with them, and baptizyd.

24 And John also baptizyd in Enon, besides Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptizyd.

25 For John was not yett call into pris-son.

26 Then there arose a question betwene
Johns disciples and the Jewes, about purifying.

27 And they came vnto John, and said vnto him, Rabbi, here that was with thee beyond Iordan, to whom thou bearest witnes, he holdeth, he baptizyd, and all men come to him.

28 John answered, and sayd, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giuen him from heauen.

29 Ye say, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

30 Hee that hath the bride, is the bridegroome: but the friend of the bridegroome, which standeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly, because of the bridegroomes voyce.
This my joy therefore is fulfilled.

31 Hee must increase, but I must decrease.

32 Hee that is come from on high, is above all: he that is of the earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: hee that is come from heauen, is above all.

33 And what hee hath seene and heard, that he testifieth: but no man receiveth his testimony.

34 He that hath receiued his testimony, hath sealed that God is true.

35 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God: for God giueth him not the Spirit by measure.

36 The Father loneth the Sonne, and hath giuen all things into his hand.

37 He that beleeueth in the Sonne, hath euermlasting life, and hee that obeyeth not the Sonne, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

9 Then said the woman of Samaria vnto him, How is it, that thou being a Jew askest drinke of mee, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jewes meddle not with the Samaritanes.

10 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me drinke, thou wouldest haue asked of him, and hee would haue giuen thee life.

11 The woman said vnto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deeper from whence then hast thou that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then our Father Iacob, which gaue vs the well, and he himselfe dranke thereof, and his children, and his cattell?

13 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst againe.

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be thirstie: but the water that I shall giue him, shall be in him a well of water, springing vp into everlasting life.

15 The woman said vnto him, Sir, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to draw.

16 Iesus said vnto her, Go, call thine husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and said, I haue no husband. Iesus said to her, Thou hast well said, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had five husband, and he whom thou now hast, is not thine husband: that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman said vnto him, Sir, I see that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and yet sayest thou, Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, beleeue me, the houre cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor at Jerusalem worship the Father.

22 Ye worship that which ye know not: we worship that which we know: for salvation is of the Jewes.

23 But the houre cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth: for the Father requireth such to worship him.

24 God is a Spirit: and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and truth.

25 The woman said vnto him, I know well that Hellas shall come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell vs all things.

26 Iesus said vnto her, I am hee that speake vnto thee.

27 And vpon that came his disciples, and marvelled that hee talked with a woman: yet no man said vnto him, What askest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the city, and said to the men.

29 Come, see a man which hath told me all things that euer I did: Is not hee the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the cite, and came vnto him.

31 ¶ In the meane while the disciples prayed him, saying, Master, stay.

32 But he said vnto them, I haue meate to eat, that ye know not of.

33 Then say the disciples between themselves, Hath any man brought him meat?

34 Iesus said vnto them, My meat is, that I may do the will of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

35 Say not ye, There are yet foure moneths, and then cometh harvest: Behold, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: for they are white already vnto harvest.

36 And he that reapeth, receiveth wages and gathereth fruit vnto life eternall, that both hee that soweth, and hee that reapeth, might be reioyce together.

37 For hereby is the saying true, that one soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap, that ye say, whereunto ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 Now many of the Samaritanes of that city beleeued in him, for the saying of the woman which testified, he had told me all things that euer I did.

40 Then when the Samaritanes were come vnto him, they besought him that hee would tarry with them: and hee abode there two dayes.

41 And many more beleeued because of his true word.

42 And they said vnto the woman, Now we beleeue, not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selues, and know that this is indeed the Christ the Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ So two dayes after, hee departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Iesus himselfe had testified that a Prophet hath none honour in his owne country.

45 Then when hee was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, which had scene all the things that hee did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they went also vnto the feast.

46 And Iesus came againe into Cana a towne of Galilee, where he had made of water wine. And there was a certaine ruler whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Iesus was come out of Iudaea into Galilee, he went vnto him, and besought him that he would go downe, and heale his sonne: for his sonne was now ready to die.

48 Then said Iesus vnto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye will not beleeue.

49 The ruler said vnto him, Sir, goe downe before my sonne die.

50 Iesus said vnto him, See thy way, thy sonne liueth: and the man beleeued the word that Iesus had spoken vnto him, and went his way.

CHAP. V.

8 Hee healeth the man that was sick eight and thirty yeeres. 10 The Jewes accuse him. 19 Christ answereth for himselfe, and reprooveth them. 32 Shewing by the testimony of his Father. 33 Of Iohn. 36 Of his works. 39 And of the Scriptures, who be he.

After that there was a feast of the Jewes, Iesus went by to Ierusalem. 2 And there is at Ierusalem by the place of the sheepe, a poole called in Hebrew Bethesda, having five porches:

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sick people, of blind, halt, and withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an Angel went down at a certaine season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certaine man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirty yeeres.

6 When Iesus saw him lie, and knew that he now long time had bene diseased, hee said unto him, Willst thou be made whole?

7 The sick man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put mee into the pool: but while I am comming, another steppeth downe before mee.

8 Iesus saide unto him, Rise: take up thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and tooke up his bed, and walked: and the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Jewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: it is not lawfull for thee to carrie thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made mee whole, hee said unto mee, Take up thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walke?

13 And hee that was healed, knowing not who it was: for Iesus had conveyed himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus found him in the Temple, and said unto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: a sinne no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and tolde the Jewes that it was Iesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Jewes did persecute Iesus, and sought to slay him; because hee had done these things in the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Jewes sought to kille him: not onely because hee had broken the Sabbath, but also said that God was his Father, and made himselfe equall with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, and saide unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, The Sonne can doe nothing of himselfe, save that hee seeth the Father doe: for whatsoever things hee doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the Father loveth the Sonne, and whosoever hee will, whatsoever hee himselfe doeth, and he will shew him greater works then these, that yet should marvell.

21 For likewise as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom hee will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all iudgement unto the Sonne,

23 Because that all men should honour the Sonne as they honour the Father: hee that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and beleaveth in him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily I say unto you, The houre shall come, and now is, when the dead shall heare the voyce of the Sonne of God: and they that heare it, shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himselfe, so likewise hath hee given to the Sonne to have life in himselfe.

27 And hath given him power also to execute iudgement, in that he is the Sonne of man.

28 Marvill not at this: for the houre shall come, in the which all that are in the graves, shall heare his voyce.

29 And they shall come forth, that have done good unto the resurrection of life, but they that have done euill, unto the resurrection of condemnation.

30 I can doe nothing of mine owne selfe as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine owne will, but the will of the Father who hath sent mee.

31 If I should beare witness of my selfe, my witness were not true. 32 There is another that beareth witness of mee, and I know that the witness which he beareth of me, is true.

33 He sent unto Iohn, and hee bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receiue not the record of man: neuertheless, these things I say, that ye might be saued.

35 He was a burning, and a shining candle: and ye would for a season haue releeved in his light.

you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God is he which com-

the world.

34 When they sayd vnto him, Lord, encrea-

35 And Iesus sayde vnto them, I am the bread of life: he that commeth to mee, shall not hunger, and he that beleueth in mee, shall neuer thirst.

36 But I sayd vnto you, that ye also haue sene me, and beleue not.

37 All that the Father giueth me, shall come to me: and him that commeth to mee,
I will not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to doe mine owne will, but his will which hath sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath giuen me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every man which seeth the Sonne, and beleueth in him, should haue eternall life: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because hee sayde, I am the bread, which is come downe from heauen.

42 And they sayd, Is not this Iesus the sonne of Joseph, whose Father and Mother we know? how then said he, I came downe from heauen?

43 Iesus then answered, and sayd vnto them, Murmure not among your selues.

44 No man can come to mee, except the Father which hath sent me, he will raise him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in the Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, commeth vnto me.

46 Not that any man hath sene the Father saue he which is of God, hee hath sene the Father.

47 Clerely, verely I say vnto you, he that beleueth in me, hath eternall life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 Your Fathers did eat Manna in the wildernes, and are dead.

50 This is the bread, which commeth downe from heauen, that he which eateth of it should not die.

51 I am the living bread which came downe from heauen: if any man eate of this bread, hee shall liue for euer: and the bread that I will giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

52 When the Iewes troue among themselues, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eate?

53 When Iesus said vnto them, Clerely, verely I say vnto you, Except ye eate the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue no life in you.

54 Whoso euer eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternall life, and I will raise him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drinke indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father, hath sent me, so liue I by the Father, and hee that eateth me, euen he shall liue by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe from heauen: not as your fathers haue eaten Manna, and are dead. He that eateth of this bread, shall liue for euer.

59 These things spake hee in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his Disciples (when they heard this) said, This is an hard saying:
who can heare it?

61 But Iesus knowing in himselfe, that his Disciples murmured at this, sayde vnto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What then if ye should see the Sonne of man ascend vp? were hee before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh profiteth nothing: the wordes that I spake vnto you, are Spirit and life.

64 But there are some of you that beleue not: for Iesus knowe from the beginning which they were that beleue not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except he be giuen vnto him of my Father.

66 From that time, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Iesus to the twelue, Will ye also goe away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master, to whom shall we goe? thou hast the wordes of eternall life.

69 And we beleue, and knowe that thou art the Christ the sonne of the liuing God.

70 Iesus answered them, haue not I chosen you twelue, and one of you is a diuill?

71 Now he spake it of Iudas Iscariot the sonne of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, though he was one of the twelue.

5 For as yet his brethren beleueed not in him.

6 Then Iesus said vnto them, My time is not yet come : but your time is alway readye.

b Why the world hateth Christ.

c Christ doeth not venterly deny that he would go to the feast, but signifieth that as yet he was not fully determined.

7 He would cannot hate you : but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that he works thereof are euill.

8 Soe ye vp vnto this feast, I will : not goe vp yet vnto this feast : for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 ¶ These things he said vnto them, and abode still in Galilee.

10 But althoone as his brethren were gone vp, they went he also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were privately.

11 Then the Jewes sought him at the feast, and said, Where is hee?

12 And much murmuring was there of him among the people. Some saide, He is a good man: other said, Nay, but he deceiveth the people.

d These were the heads of the people, who did enuie Christ.
¶ Or, Iesus,

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the Jewes.

14 Now when halfe the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple and taught.

15 And the Jewes murmured, saying, how knoweth this man the // Scriptures, seeing, that he neuer learned?

16 Iesus answered them, and sayde, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will doe his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether hee I speake of my selfe.

18 He that speaketh of himselfe, seeketh his owne glory : but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and is no vnglorious.

19 ¶ Did not Moses giue you a Law, and yet none of you keepeth the Law? Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered, and sayde, Thou hast a deuil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Iesus answered, and sayde to them, I haue done one worke and yete all maruail.

22 ¶ Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision (not because it is of Moses, but of the // Fathers) and yete on the Sabbath day circuncise a man.

23 If a man on the Sabbath receiue circumcision, that the Law of Moses should not be broken, be ye angry with them, because I haue made a man euery whit whole one the Sabbath day?

24 ¶ Iudge not according to the appearance, but iudge righteous in secret.

25 ¶ Then said some of them of Ierusalem, Is not this hee, whom they goe about to kill?

26 And beholde, hee speaketh openly, and they say nothing to him: doe the Rulers know in secret, that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit wee know this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no man shall know whence he is.

28 ¶ Then cryed Iesus in the Temple

as hee taught, saying, Pee both know me, & hee speaketh and know whence I am: yete am I not come this, as it were of my selfe, but he that sent me, is true, whom I scornfully, ye knowe not.

29 But I know him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him, but no man laid hands on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Many of the people beleueed in him, and sayd, ¶ When the Christ cometh, will he doe more miracles then this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharisees and high Priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then saide Iesus vnto them, Yete am I a little while with you, and then goe I vnto him that sent me.

34 ¶ He shall seek me, and shall not finde me, and where I // am, can ye not come.

35 Then sayde the Jewes among themselves, Whither will hee goe, that we shall not finde him? Will hee goe vnto them that are dispersed among the // Grecians, and teach the Grecians?

36 ¶ What saying is this that he saide, Yete shall seek me, and shall not finde mee? and where I am, can ye not come?

37 Now in the last and // great day of the feast, Iesus stood and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto mee, and drinke.

38 ¶ Wee that beleueeth in me, // as sayeth the Scripture, out of his belly shall flowe riuers of water // of life.

39 ¶ This spake he of the Spirit which they that beleueed in him, should receiue: for the Holy Ghost was not yete giuen, because that Iesus was not yete glorified.

40 So many of the people, when they heard this saying, sayde, What meaneth this is hee the Prophet.

41 Other said, This is the Christ: some said, But shall Christ come out of Galilee?

42 ¶ Sayeth not the Scripture, that the Christ shall come of the seed of Dauid, and out of the towne of Bethlehem, where Dauid was?

43 So was there dissention among the people for him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man laid hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the high Priests and Pharisees, and they sayde vnto them, Why haue we not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Fewer man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Dooth any of the rulers, or of the Pharisees beleue in him?

49 But this people which knowe not the Law, are curst.

50 ¶ Nicodemus sayde vnto them, ¶ Hee that came to Iesus by night, and was one of them?

51 Dooth our Law iudge a man before it heare him, and know what hee hath done?

¶ They were well minded to heare him: which preparation is here called (although improperly) faith.

¶ He sheweth vnto them that they haue no power ouer him til the time come that his Father hath ordained.

C H A P. VIII.

11 Christ deliuereth her that was taken in adultery. 12 He is the light of the world. 14 He sheweth from whence he is come, wherefore, and whither he goeth. 32 Who are free and who are bound. 34 Of freemen and slaves, and their reward. 46 Hee desirith his enemies. 59 And being persecuted withdraweth himselfe.

And Iesus went vnto the mount of Oliues.

2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, & all the people came vnto him, and he satte downe, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes and the Pharisees brought vnto him a woman, taken in adultery, and set her in the midst.

4 And said vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moyses in the Law commanded vs, that such should be stoned: What sayest thou therfore?

6 And this they said to tempt him, that they might haue wherof to accuse him. But Iesus stooped downe, and with his finger wroote on the ground.

7 And whyle they continued asking him, he lift himselfe .p. and said vnto them, Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe he stooped down, and wroote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Iesus had lift vp himselfe againe, and saw no man, but the woman, hee said vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Iesus said, Neither doe I condemne thee: go and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth mee, shall not walke in darkness, but shall haue the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therfore said vnto him, Thou bearest record of thy selfe: thy record is not true.

14 Iesus answered and said vnto them, Though I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go: but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Hee indidger the flesh: I iudge no man.

16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father, that sent me.

17 And it is also written in your Law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that beare witness of my selfe, and the Father that sent mee, beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they vnto him, What is thy Father? Iesus answered, Hee neither know mee, nor my Father. If ye had known me, ye should haue known my Father also.

20 These words spake Iesus in the streete, as hee taught in the Temple, and no man laid hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then said Iesus againe vnto them, I goe my way, and ye shall seeke me, and shall die in your sinnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22 Then said the Iewes, Will he kill himselfe, because he saith, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, I see are from beneath: I am from above: ye are of this world, I am not of this world.

24 I sayd therfore vnto you, That ye shall die in your sinnes: for except ye beleue, that I am hee, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then said they vnto him, What art thou? And Iesus said vnto them, Euen the same thing that I said vnto you from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, & to iudge of you: but hee that sent mee, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the world.

27 They understood not that hee spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Iesus vnto them, When ye haue lift vp the Sonne of man, then shall ye know that I am hee, and that I doe nothing of my selfe, but as my Father hath taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For hee that sent mee is with mee: the Father hath not left me alone, because I doe alwayes those things that please him.

30 As he spake these things many beleued in him.

31 Then said Iesus to the Iewes which beleued in him, If ye continue in my word, ye are verely my disciples.

32 And shall know the trueth, and the trueth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, Allee bee Abrahams seede, and were neuer bound to any man: why sayest thou then, We shall be made free?

34 Iesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that whosoever committeth sinne, is the seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the houle for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If the Sonne therfore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abrahams seede, but ye seeke to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue seen with my Father: and ye doe that which ye haue seene with your father.

39 They answered any said vnto him, Abrahams our father. Iesus sayd vnto them,

44 Ye are of your father the diuell, and the lusts of your father ye will doe: hee hath bene a murderer: from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When hee speaketh a lie, then speaketh he of his owne: for hee is a lyer, and the father thereof.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye beleeue me not.

46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne, and if I say the truth, why doe ye not beleeue me?

47 Hee that is of God, heareth Gods words: ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, Say we not well, that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a deuill?

49 Iesus answered, I haue not a deuill, but I honour my father, and ye haue dishonoured me.

50 And I seeke not mine owne praise: but there is one that seeketh it, and yudgeth.

51 Verely, verely I say vnto you, If a man keepe my word, he shall neuer see death.

52 Then sayd the Iewes to him, How know we that thou hast the deuill. Abraham is dead, and the Prophets, and thou sayest, If a man keepe my word, he shall neuer taste of death.

53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham which is dead? And the Prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy selfe?

54 Iesus answered, If I honour my selfe, mine honour is nothing worth: it is my fathers that honoureth me, whom ye say, that he is your God.

55 Yet pee haue not known him: but I know him, and if I should say I know him not, I should be a lyer like vnto you: but I know him, and keepe his word.

56 Your father Abraham reioyced to see my day, and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Iewes vnto him, Thou art not yet fifty yeere old, and hast thou seene Abraham?

58 Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59 Then tooke they by stones to cast at him, but Iesus hid himselfe, and went out of the Temple.

CHAP. IX.

1 Of him that was borne blinde. 11 The confession of him that was borne blinde. 39 To what blinde men Christ giveth sight.

AND as Iesus passed by, he saw a man which was borne blind.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man or his parents, that he was borne blind?

3 Iesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents, but that the workes of God should be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the workes of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 As soone as he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anointed the eyes of the blinde with the clay,

7 And said vnto him, Goe wash in the pool of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came againe seeing.

8 Now the neighbours and they that had seene him before, when he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is hee, and others said, He is like him: but hee himselfe said, I am hee.

10 Therefore they said vnto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, and annointed mine eyes, and said vnto me, Goe to the pool of Siloam, and wash. So I went and washed, and received sight.

12 Then they said vnto him, Where is he? He said, I cannot tell.

13 They brought to the Pharisees him that was once blinde.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharisees also asked him, how he had received sight. And he said vnto them, He said clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Then said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because hee keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? and there was a dissention among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What sayest thou of him, because hee hath opened thine eyes? And he said, Hee is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleeue him (that he had bin blinde, & received his sight,) untill they had called the parents of him that had received sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whom pee say was borne blinde? How doe hee now see then?

20 His parents answered them, and sayd, We knowe that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes hee now seeth, wee knowe not: or how hath he opened his eyes? can wee not tell: hee is olde enough: aske him, hee shall answer for himselfe.

22 These wordes spake his parents, because

23 Therefore said his parents, he is old enough to aske him.

24 Then againe called they the man that had bene blinde, and said vnto him, ¶ Glorie glory vnto God: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 Then he answered and said, Whether bee hee a sinner or no, I cannot tell: one thing I know, that I was blinde, and now I see.

26 Then sayd they to him againe, What did hee to thee, how opened he thine eyes?

27 Hee answered them, I haue tolde you already, and yet haue not heard it: wherefore would ye heare it againe? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then checked they him, and said, Wee thou his disciple: we be Moses disciples.

29 We know that God spake with Moses: but this man we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and said vnto them, Doubtes this is a marvellous thing that ye know not whence hee is, and yet hee hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man bee a worshipping of God, and doeth his will, him heareth he.

32 Since the world began, was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde.

33 If this man were not of God, he could haue done nothing.

34 They answered, and said vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinnes, and dost thou teach vs? so they cast him out.

35 Iesus heard that they had cast him out; and when hee had found him, hee said vnto him, Dost thou beleue in the Sonne of God?

36 Hee answered, and said, What is hee, Lord, that I may beleue in him?

37 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Dost thou haue sene him, and hee it is that talketh with thee.

38 Then sayd he, Lord, I beleue, and worshipped him.

39 And Iesus saide, I am come vnto iudgement into this world, that they which see not, might see: and that they which see, might be made blind.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these things, and said vnto him, Are we blinde also?

41 Iesus said vnto them, If ye were blinde, ye should not haue sinned: but now ye say, We see: therefore your sinne remaineth.

2 But he that goeth in by the doore, is the shepheard of the sheepe.

3 So him the porter openeth, and the sheepe heare his voyce, and hee calleth his owne sheepe by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when hee hath first forth his owne sheepe, hee goeth before them, and the sheepe follow him: for they know his voyce.

5 And they will not follow a stranger, but they flee from him: for they know not the voyce of strangers.

6 This parable spake Iesus vnto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake vnto them.

7 Then said Iesus vnto them againe, Verily, verily I say vnto you, I am the doore of the sheepe.

8 All, that euer came before mee, are thieves and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.

9 I am the doore: by me if any man enter in, hee shall bee saued, and shall goe in and goe out, and finde pasture.

10 The thiefe cometh not, but for to steale, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might haue life, and haue it in abundance.

11 I am the good shepheard: the good shepheard giueth his life for his sheepe.

12 But an hireling, and hee which is not the shepheard, neither the sheepe are his owne, seeth the wolfe coming, and hee leaueth the sheepe, and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and scattereth the sheepe.

13 So the hireling fleeth, because hee is an hireling, and careth not for the sheepe.

14 I am the good shepheard, and know mine, and am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, so know I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my sheepe.

16 Other sheepe I haue also, which are not of this fold: them also must I bind, and they shall heare my voyce: and there shall be one shepfold, and one shepheard.

17 Therefore doth my Father loue me, because I lay downe my life, that I might take it againe.

18 No man taketh it from mee, but I lay it downe of my selfe: I haue power to lay it downe, and haue power to take it againe: this commaundement haue I receiued of my Father.

19 Then there was a dissention againe among the Jewes for these sayings.

20 And many of them sayd, Hee hath a deuill, and is mad: why heare ye him?

21 Other said, These are not the words of him that hath a deuill: can the deuill open the eyes of the blinde?

43 Christ raiseth Lazarus from death. 47 The high Priests and Pharisees gather a counsel against him
50 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Christ getteth him out of the way.

As a certain man was sicke, named Lazarus, and hee sister Martha.

2 (And it was that Mary which appointed the Lord with oynement, and wiped his feete with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou louest, is sicke.

4 ¶ When Iesus heard it, hee sayd, This sickness is not vnto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 ¶ Now Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after that hee heard that he was sicke, yet abode he thre dayes, still in the same place where he was.

7 ¶ Then after that, said he to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iudea againe.

8 ¶ The disciples said vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to stone thee, and docst thou goe thither againe?

9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the day: if a man walke in the day, he stumblith not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walke in the night, hee stumblith because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake hee, and after hee sayd vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepe: but I goe to wake him vp.

12 ¶ Then said his disciples, Lord, if hee sleepe, he shall be safe.

13 ¶ Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the naturall sleepe.

14 ¶ Then said Iesus vnto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleue: but let vs go vnto him.

16 ¶ Then said ¶ Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die with him.

17 ¶ Then came Iesus, and found that hee had lien in the graue foure dayes already.

18 (Now Bethania was neere vnto Ierusalem, aboute sixtene furlongs off)

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Mary to comforte them for their brother.

20 ¶ Then Martha, when she heard that Iesus was coming, went to meet him: but Mary saue still in the house.

21 ¶ Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not been dead.

22 But now I knowe also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

23 ¶ Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 ¶ Martha said vnto him, I knowe that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 ¶ Iesus said vnto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.

26 And whosoever liueth and beleueth in me, shall neuer die. Beleuest thou this?

27 ¶ She said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleue that thou art hee Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 ¶ And when she had said so, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when she heard it, she arose quickly and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

32 Then when Marie was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weep, and the Jewes also weep, which came with her, hee groined in the spirit, and was troubled in himselfe.

34 And sayd, Where haue ye layd him? They sayd vnto him, Lord, come and see.

35 And Jesus wept.

36 Then sayd the Jewes, Behold, how he loued him.

37 And some of them said, Could not he, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also that this man should not haue died?

38 Jesus therefore againe groined in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a cause, and a stone was layd vpon it.

39 Jesus sayd, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, said vnto him, Lord, he stinketh already: for he hath bene dead four dayes.

40 Jesus sayde vnto her, Sayd I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleue, thou shouldst see the glory of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place wher the dead was layd. And Jesus lift vp his eyes, and sayd, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I know that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I sayd it, that they may beleue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As hee had spoken these things, hee cryed with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bound hand and foot with bandes, and his face was bound with a napkin. Jesus sayd vnto them, Loose him, and let him goe.

45 Then many of the Jewes which came to Marie, and had seene the things, which Jesus did, beleued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Priestes, and the Pharisees a council, and sayd, What shall we doe? For this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will beleue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.

49 Then one of them named Calaphas, which was the hie Priest: that same yere, said vnto them, We perceive nothing at all.

50 Now yet doe you consider that he is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 This spake he not of himselfe; but being hie Priest that same yere, hee prophellied that Jesus should die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation onely, but that he should gather together in one the children of God, which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they conspired together to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jewes, but went thence into a country neere to the wilderness, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 And the Iewes Pasche was at hand, and many went out of the country vnto Ierusalem before the Pasche, to purrifle themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the Temple, What thinke ye, that he cometh not to the feast?

57 Now both the hie Priestes and the Pharisees had giuen a commandment, that if any man knew wher hee were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

Then Jesus fixe dayes before the Pasche, came to Bethania, where Lazarus was, which was dead, whom hee had rayised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then tooke Marie a pound of oymnt of spikenard very costly, and anoynted Jesus' feet, and wiped his feet with her haire, and the house was filled with the savour of the oymnt.

4 Then said one of his disciples, even Iudas Iscariot Simons sonne, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this oymnt sold for three hundred pence, and giuen to the poore?

6 Now hee sayd this, not that he cared for the poore, but because he was a thiefe, and had the bagge, and bare that which was giuen.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying she kept it.

8 For the poore alwayes ye haue with you, but me ye shall not haue alwayes.

9 Then much people of the Jewes knew that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus sake onely, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom hee had rayised from the dead.

10 The hie Priestes therefore consulted, that they might put Lazarus to death also.

11 Because that for his sake many of the Jewes went away, and believed in Jesus.

12 And on the morrow a great multitude that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus should come to Ierusalem, p Because they thought hereby to make themselves more holy against they should eate the Pasche: but they were not commanded by God to vie this ceremonie.

36 While ye haue light, • beleeue in the light, that ye may bee the children of the light. These things spake Iesus, and departed, and hid himselfe from them.

37 ¶ And though hee had done so many miracles before them, yet beleeued they not on him:

38 That the saying of Elias the Prophet might be fulfilled, that he saith, • Lord, who beleeued our report? and to whom is the • anme of the Lord crucified?

39 Therefore could they not beleeue, because that Elias said againe,

40 • We hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor vnderstand with their heart, and should be conuerred, and I should • heale them.

41 These things sayd Elias when hee saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 Neuer beleeued euen among the chiefe rulers many beleeued in him: but because of the Pharisees, they did not confesse him, lest they should be • cast out of the synagoge.

43 • For they loued the • prayse of men, more then the prayse of God.

44 And Iesus cryed, and sayd, Verily that beleeueth in mee, beleeueth not in mee, but in him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 • I am come a light into the world, that whosoever beleeueth in mee, should not abide in darkenesse.

47 • And if any man heare my wordes, and beleeueth not, I // iudge him not: for I came not to // iudge the world, but to saue
the world.

48 We that refuse him, and receiue him not my wordes, hath one that // iudgeth him: the word that I haue spoken, it shall iudge him in the last day.

49 For I haue not spoken of my selfe:
but the Father, which sent me, hee gaue mee

what I should speake.

that I speake, I speake them so as the Father sayd vnto me.

2 And when supper was done, (and that the devil had now put in the heart of Judas Ischariot, Simons sonne, to betray him.)

come from God, and went to God,

4 He riseth from supper, and layeth aside his upper garments, and tooke a towell, and girded himselfe.

5 After that, he powred water into a ba-sen, and began to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towell wherewith he was girded.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said vnto him, What I doe, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know it hereafter.

8 Peter said vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with me.

9 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, not my feet onely, but also the hands and the head.

10 Jesus said to him, Hee that is washed, needeth not, save to wash his feet, but is cleane eury whit: and ye are cleane, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him:
therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 ¶ So after he had washed their feete, and had raken hye garments, and was set downe againe, he said vnto them, Know ye what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and yet say well: for so am I.

14 If I then pour Lord and Master haue washed your feete, ye also ought to wash one an others feete.

15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye should doe, as I haue done to you.

16 Merely, verily I say vnto you, The servant is not greater then his master, neither the ambassage greater then hee that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, blessed are ye if ye doe them.

18 ¶ I speake not of you all: I knowe whom I haue chosen: but it is that the scripture might be fulfilled, He that rateth head with me, shall lift up his heele against me.

19 From henceforth till I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might believe that I am he.

20 ¶ Merely, verily I say vnto you, If I send any, hee that receiveth him, receiveth me, and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

21 When Jesus had said these things, he was troubled in the spirit, & testified, and said, Merely, verily I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 ¶ Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, whom Iesus loved, whom Iesus laid his head on.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, that he should aske who it was of whom he spake.

25 Her eyes as he leaned on Iesus breast said vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a kisse, when I haue kissed it: and he will be Iesus, and come to Judas Ischariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the kisse, Satan entred into him. Then said Iesus vnto him, That thou doest, doe quickly.

28 But none of them that were at table, knew for what cause he spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thought because Judas had the bagge, that Iesus had said vnto him, Buy those things which we haue need of against the feast: or that hee should give some thing to the poore.

30 Alasone then as hee had received the kisse, hee went immediately out, and it was night.

31 ¶ When he was gone out, Iesus said,
Now is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himselfe, & shall straightway glorifie him.

33 Little children, yet a little while am I with you: ye shall seeke me, but as I said vnto the Jews, Whether I goe, can ye not come: also to you I now,

34 ¶ A new commandment giue I vnto you, that ye loue one another: as I haue loued you, that ye also loue one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another.

36 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, whether gost thou? Jesus answered him, Whether I goe, thou canst not follow me: yet newly giue: but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said vnto him, Lord, wher can I not follow thee now? I will lay downe my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay downe thy life for my sake? Merely, verily I say vnto thee, The cocke shall not crow, till thou haue denied me thrise.

19 For a little while, and the world shall see me no more, but ye shall see me: because I line, ye shall line also.

20 At that day shall ye know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 Hee that hath my commandements, and keepeth them, is he that loueth mee: and he that loueth mee, shall be loued of my Father: and I will loue him, and will shewe mine owne selfe to him.

22 Iudas said vnto him (not Iscariot) Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shew thy selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the world?

23 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, If any man loue mee, hee will keepe my word, and my Father will loue him, and we will come vnto him, and will dwell with him.

24 Hee that loueth mee not, keepeth not my woordes, and the word which ye heare, is not mine, but the Fathers which sent mee.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you being present with you.

6 The sweet consolation, and mutual love between Christ and his members, under the parable of the vine, 18 Of their common afflictions and persecutions, 26 The office of the holy Ghost and the Apostles.

I am the true Vine, and my Father is an husbandman.

2 Every branch that beareth not fruit in mee, hee taketh away: and euery one that beareth fruit, hee purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now are ye cleane through the word, which I haue spoken vnto you.

4 Abide in mee, and I in you: as the branch cannot beare fruit of it selfe, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the Vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in mee, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me can ye doe nothing.

6 If a man abide not in mee, he is cast forth as a branch, and withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in mee, and my woordes abide in you, aske what ye will, and it shall be done for you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare much fruit, and be made my disciples. 9 As the Father hath loued mee, so haue I loued you: continue in my love.

10 If ye shall keepe my commandments, ye shall abide in my love, as I haue kept my Fathers commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that my love might remaine in you, and that your joy might be full.

3 And these things will they doe unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that when the houre shall come, ye might remember that I tolde you them. And these things I sayde I not unto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I goe my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, Whether goest thou?

6 But because I have sayd these things unto you, your hearts are full of sorrow.

7 Yet I tell you the truth, it is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I goe not away, the Comforter will not come unto you: but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sinne, and of righteousness, and of iudgement.

9 Of sinne, because they beleeve not in mee:

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye shall see me no more.

11 Of iudgement, because the prince of this world is iudged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot beare them now.

13 Howbeit, when hee is come, which is the Spirit of truth, he will lead you into all truth: for hee shall not speake of himselfe, but whatsoeuer hee shall heare, shall hee speake, and he will shew you the things that come.

14 He shall glorifie me: for he shall receive of mine, and shew it unto you.

15 All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore sayd I, that he shall take of mine, and shew it unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and againe a little while, and ye shall see me: for I goe to my Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see mee, and againe, A little while, and ye shall see mee, and, For I goe to my Father?

18 They sayde therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we know not what he saith.

19 Nowe Iesus knew that they would aske him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among your selves of that I sayde, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and againe, A little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily I say unto you, if at ye shall weep and lament, and the world shall reioyce: and ye shall sorrow, but your sorrow shall be turned to ioy.

21 A woman when she travaileth, hath sorrow, because her houre is come: but as soon as shee is delivered of the child, her remembrance is no more of the anguish, for ioy that a man is borne into the world.

22 And ye now therefore are in sorrow: but I will see you againe, and your heart shall reioyce, and your ioy shall no man take from you.

23 And in that day shall ye aske me nothing. Verily, verily I say unto you, whatsoeuer ye shall aske the Father in my Name, he will give it you.

24 Whithersoever ye have asked nothing in my Name: aske and ye shall receive, that your ioy may be full.

27 For the Father himselfe loneth you, because yet haue I not me, and haue beleueed that I came out from God.

28 I am come out from the Father, and came into the world: againe, I leaue the world, and goe to the Father.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy word.

7 Now they know that all things whatsoever thou hast giuen me are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the words which thou gauest me, and they haue receiued them, and haue knowne surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleueed that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world: but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in the world, but these are in the world, & I come to thee. Holy Father keepe them in thy Name, whom thou hast giuen me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy Name, chose that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the * child of perdition, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things speake I in the world, that they might haue my word fulfilled in themselves.

14 I haue giuen them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepest them from euill.

16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

17 * Sanctifie them with thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou didst send me into the world, so haue I sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may be sanctified through the truth.

20 I pray not for thee alone, but for them also which shall beleue in me through thy word.

21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in me, and I in thee: euen that they may be also one in vs, that the world may beleue that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory that thou gauest me, I haue giuen them, that they may be one, as wee are one.

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loued them as thou hast loued me.

24 Father, I will that they which thou hast giuen me, be with mee euery where I am, that they may behold my glory, which thou hast giuen me: for thou louedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world also hath not knowne thee, but I haue knowne thee, and these haue knownen that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued me, may be in them, and I in them.

3 * Judas then after he had received a band of men & Officers of the big Priest, and of the Pharisees, came thither with lanterns and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Jesus knowing all things that should come unto him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus said unto them, I am he. Now Judas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 Whome then as he had said unto them I am he, they went backwards, and fell to the ground.

7 Then he asked them againe, Whom seek ye? And they said Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I said unto you, that I am he, therefore if ye seek me, let these goe their way.

9 This was that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, * Of them which thou ganest me, have I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter having a sword, drew it, and smote the big Priests servant, and cut off his right eare. Now the servants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath given me?

12 When the band and the captain, and the Officers of the Jewesooke Jesus, and bound him.

13 And led him away to * Annas first (for he was father in Law to Caiaphas, which was the big Priest the same yere.)

14 * And Caiaphas was he that gave counsel to the Jewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 * Now Simon Peter followed Jesus, and another disciple, and that disciple was knowne of the big Priest: therefore he went in with Jesus into the hall of the big Priest.

16 But Peter stood at the doore without. Then went out the other disciple, which was knowne unto the big Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then said the maide that kept the doore, unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? he said, I am not.

18 And the servants and Officers stood there, which had made a fire of coales: for it was cold, and they warmed themselves, and Peter also stood among them and warmed himselfe.

19 * The big Priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world: I never taught in the Synagogues in the Temple, whither the Jewes resort continually, and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I said unto them: behold they know what I said.

22 When he had spoken these things, one of the Officers which stood by, smote Jesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the big Priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have said spoken, heare witness of the truth: but if I have not spoken, why dost thou smite me?

24 * Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the big Priest.

25 * And Simon Peter stood and warmed himselfe, and they said unto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? he denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the big Priest, his cousin, whose eare Peter smote off, sayd, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediately the cocke crowed.

28 * Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas into the common hall. Now it was morning, and they themselves went not into the common hall, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered, and said unto him, If he were not an evil doer, we would not have delivered him unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him after your owne Law. Then the Jewes said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death.

32 It was that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 * So Pilate entered into the common hall againe, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the king of the Jewes?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou that of thy selfe, or did other tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered him, Am I a Jew? Thine owne nation and the big Priests have delivered thee unto mee. What hast thou done?

36 Jesus answered, My kingdome is not of this world, if my kingdome were of this world, my servants would surely fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jewes: but now is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare witness unto the truth: every one that is of the truth, heareth my voice.

38 Pilate said unto him, What is truth? and when he had said that, he went out againe unto the Jewes, and said unto them, I find in him no fault at all.

39 * But you have a custome, that I should deliver you one looke at the Passover: will ye then that I loose unto you the King of the Jewes?

40 * Then cryed they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murderer.

Then Pilate tooke Iesus and scourged him.

2 And the souldiers platted a Crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

3 And said, Haile king of the Iewes. And they smote him with their rods.

4 Then Pilate went forth againe, and said vnto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know, that I find no fault in him at all.

5 Then came Iesus forth, wearing a Crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate said vnto them, Behold the man.

6 Then when the high Priests and officers saw him they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him, and crucifie him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, We haue a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himselfe the Sonne of God.

8 When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afraid.

9 And went againe into the Common hall and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answer.

10 Then said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were giuen thee from above: therefore hee that deliuered mee vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

12 From thenceforth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Celars friend: for whosoever maketh himselfe a king, speaketh against Celar.

13 When Pilate heard that worde, hee brought Iesus forth, and late downe in the iudgement seate in a place called the Pavement, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the Pasche, and about the fift houre: and hee said vnto the Iewes, Behold your King.

15 But they cryed away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Shall I crucifie your king? The high Priests answered, We haue no king but Celar.

16 Then deliuered hee him vnto them to be crucified. And theyooke Iesus and led him away.

17 And hee bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens skulles, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the midst.

19 And Pilate wrote also a title, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified was nere to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, Greeke, and Latine.

21 Then said the high Priests of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Iewes, but that hee said, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus,ooke his garments, and made foure parts, to euery souldier a part, and his coate, and the coate was without seam, woven from the toppe thereof out.

24 Therefore they said one to another, Let vs not diuide it, but cast lots for it whose it shall be. This was that the Scripture might be fulfilled which saith, They parted my garments among them, and on my coate did cast lots. So the souldiers did these things indeede.

25 Then stood by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister Marie the wife of Cleopas, and Marie Magdalene.

26 And when Iesus saw his mother and the Disciple standing by, whom hee loued, hee said vnto his mother, Woman, behold thy sonne.

27 Then said he to the Disciple, Behold thy mother: and from that houre the Disciple tooke her home vnto him.

28 After, when Iesus knew that all things were performed, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, I thirst.

29 And there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vineger, and put it vpon an hyssope stalk, and put it to his mouth.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vineger hee said, It is finished, and bowed his head and gaue up the ghost.

31 The Iewes then, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an high day, besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the souldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and saw that hee was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the souldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And hee that saw it, bare record, and his record is true: an he knoweth that hee saith true, that ye might believe it.

36 For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled, That a bone of him shall be broken.

38 And after these things Joseph of Arimathea, (who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for the fear of the Jewes) brought Pilate that he might take downe the body of Jesus. And Pilate gave him licence. They came then and took Iesus body.

39 And there came also Nicodemus, (which first came to Jesus by night) and brought of myrrour and aloes mingled together about an hundred pounde.

40 Then took they the body of Iesus, and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jewes is to burye.

41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet layd.

42 There then layd they Iesus, because of the Jewes Preparation day, for the sepulchre was nere.

CHAP. XX.

1 Mary Magdalene cometh to the sepulchre. 3 She doth Peter and Iohn. 12 The two Angels appeare. 17 Christ appeareth to Mary Magdalene. 19 And to all his disciples. 25 The incredulity of Thomas. 28 His confusion.

NOW the first day of the weeke came yet darke, unto the sepulchre, and saw the stone taken away from the tombe.

2 Then he ranne, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Iesus loved, and said unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and wee know not where they have layd him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and the other Disciple, and they came unto the sepulchre.

4 So they ranne both together, but the other Disciple did outpace Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooped downe, and saw the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and saw the linnen clothes lie.

7 And the other Disciple that was upon his head, not lying with the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by himselfe.

8 Then went in also the other Disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw it, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that he must rise againe from the dead.

10 And the Disciple went away againe unto their owne home.

11 ¶ But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she bowed her selfe into the sepulchre.

12 And saw two Angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Iesus had layen.

13 And they said unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She said unto them, They have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have layd him.

14 When she had thus said, she turned her selfe backe, and saw Iesus standing, and knew not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She supposing that he was the gardener, sayd unto him, Sir, if thou hast bene here hence, tell me where thou hast layd him, and I will take him away.

16 Iesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned her selfe, and said unto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus saith unto her, Touch mee not, for I am not yet ascended to my Father, but goe to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the Disciples, that she had seene the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the doores were shut where the Disciples were assembled for feare of the Jewes, came Iesus and stood in the midst, and said to them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands, and his side. Then were the Disciples glad, when they had seene the Lord.

21 Then sayde Iesus to them againe, Peace be unto you: as my Father sent mee, so send I you.

22 And when hee had said that, he breathed on them, and said unto them, Receive the holy Ghost.

23 Whosoever sines ye remit, they are remitted unto them: and whosoever sines ye retaine, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Iesus came.

25 The other Disciples therefore sayd unto him, We have seene the Lord: but he said unto them, Except I see in his hands the print of the nayles, and put my finger into the print of the nayles, and put mine hand into his side, I will not believe it.

26 ¶ And eight dayes after, againe his Disciples were within, and Thomas was with them. Then came Iesus when the doores were shut, and stood in the midst, and sayd, Peace be unto you.

27 After, sayd he to Thomas, But thy finger here, and seeme my hands, and put thine hand, and put it into my side, and see: not faithlesse, but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and sayde unto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iesus said unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene mee, thou believest: blessed are they that have not seene, and have believed.

30 ¶ And many other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his Disciples, which are not written in this booke.

31 But these things are written, that ye might believe that Iesus is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that in believing ye might have life through his name.

1 She departed from home before day, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other Disciple, whom Iesus loved, and said unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and wee know not where they have layd him.

2 Then he ranne, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Iesus loved, and said unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and wee know not where they have layd him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and the other Disciple, and they came unto the sepulchre.

4 So they ranne both together, but the other Disciple did outpace Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooped downe, and saw the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and saw the linnen clothes lie.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his Disciples againe, & sheweth them how they may catch men. 25 Of Christs manifested miracles.

|| Or, lake of Gennesareth.

After these things, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the place of Caper-naum: and thus shewed he himselfe.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sonnes of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter said vnto him, I goe a fishing. They said vnto him, Alas also will goe with thee. They went their way and entered into a ship straightway, and that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stood on the shore: neuertheless the Disciples knew not that it was Iesus.

|| Or, children.

5 Iesus then said vnto him, || Sirs, haue ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 Then he said vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall finde it. So they cast out, and they were not able at all to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

a Albeit they knew him not, yet they followed his counsell, because they had all night taken paines in vaine.

b It was some linnen garment, which fishers vsed to weare, which being trusted vnto him, couered his nether parts, and also letted not his swimming.

7 Therefore said the disciple whome Iesus loued vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, hee giued his boat to him (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came by ship (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits) and they drew the net with fishes.

9 As loone then as they were come to land, they saw there coales, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Iesus said vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred thirty and three: and albeit they were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus said vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the Disciples durst aske him, What art thou, lest they knew that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Ie-sus shewed himselfe vnto his Disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Iesus said to Simon Peter, Simon the sonne of Iona, I loue thee more than these? Hee sayd vnto him, Pea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. Hee sayd vnto him, Feede my lambs.

16 He said to him againe the second time, Simon the sonne of Iona, I loue thee more? Hee sayd vnto him, Pea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. Hee sayd vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

17 He said vnto him the third time, Simon the sonne of Iona I loue thee more? Peter was sayd because he said to him the third time, I loue thee more: and sayd vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus sayd vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

18 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, When thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy selfe and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thine hands, and another shall gird thee and lead thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 And thus spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when hee had said this, he said to him, Follow me.

20 ¶ Then Peter turned about, and saw the Disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which had also leane on his breast at supper, and had said, Lord, which is he that be- trayeth thee?

21 ¶ When Peter therefore saw him, hee says to Iesus, Lord, what shall this man doe?

22 Iesus sayd vnto him, If I will that hee tarry till I come, what is it to thee? I follow thou me.

23 ¶ Then went this word abroad among the brethren, that this Disciple should not die. But Iesus said not to him, He shall not die: but, If I will that hee tarry till I come, what is it to thee?

24 ¶ This is that Disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we know that his testimonie is true.

25 ¶ Now there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written curiously, I suppose the world could not containe the bookes that should be written. Amen.

c The Minister cannot without his Congregation, except the loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in them that feed not the flocke. d Because Peter should be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ ca- steth him by this three times con- fessing, to wipe away the shame of his three times denying. e In stead of a girdle, thou shalt be tied with bands & cords: and whereas now thou art at liberty, thou shalt be drawen to prisonment, when thy fifth shall be broken. ¶ The Actes of the holy Apostles, written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGUMENT.

Christ after his Ascension performed his promise to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby that he was not onely mindfull of his Church, but would bee the head and maintainer thereof for ever. Wherein also his mighty power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the world resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a few simple men of no reputation, replenished all the world with the sound of his Gospel. And here in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, we may plainly perceiue the praise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppress and overthrow the Gospel: the rascall conspiracies, tumults, commo- tions, persecutions, slanders, and all kind of cruelties. Again, we shall here behold the providence of God, who overthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth and encourageth his most valiantly and constantly to follow their Captaine Christ, leaving leaving as it were by this historie a perpetuall memorie to the Church, that the Cross is to be loved with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of our affliction, is but the beginning of another: For notwithstanding God turneth the crookes, persecutions, imprisonings, and tentations of his to a good issue, giving them as it were in sorrow, joy: in bonds, freedom: in prison, deliverance: in trouble, quietness: in death, life. Finally, this booke containeth many excellent Sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercy of God. Of the grace and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitye. An exhortation to the mynisters of Christs flocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall points of our faith, so that this onely historie in a manner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and Religion.

4 And when hee had gathered them together, he commaunded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but to waite for the promise of the Father, which he said he, yett haue heard of me.

7 And he said unto them, it is not for you to know the times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power.

8 But ye shall receive power of the holy Ghost, when hee shall come upon you: and ye shall bee witnesses unto mee both in Jerusalem and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things while they beheld, he was taken: up for a cloud took him up out of their sight.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women, and Marie the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

AD when the day of Pentecost was come, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing and mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they sat.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jewes, men that feared God, of every nation under heaven.

6 Now when this was noised, the multitude came together, and were astonished because that every man heard them speak his owne language.

7 And they wondered all, and marvelled saying among themselves, Beholde, are not all these which speak of Galilee?

8 How then heare we every man our owne language, wherein we were borne?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, and of Judea, and of Cappadocia, of Pontus, and Asia.

10 And of Bithynia, and of Pamphylia, of Egypt, and of the parts of Libya, which is beside Cyrene, and of strangers of Rome, and of Jewes, and of Proselytes.

11 Cretes, and Arabians: were heard them speak in our owne tongues the wonderful workes of God.

12 They were all then amazed, and doubted, saying one to another, What may this bee?

13 And others mocked, and said, They are full of new wine.

14 But Peter standing with the eleven, lift up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that inhabit Jerusalem, bee this knowen unto you, and hearken unto my words.

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, since it is but the third houre of the day.

16 But this is that, which was spoken by the Prophet Joel,

17 And it shall bee in the last dayes, that I will pour out of my spirit upon all flesh, and your sonnes, and your daughters shall prophesie, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dreame dreames.

18 And on mine servants, and on mine handmaidnes I will pour out of my spirit in those dayes, and they shall prophesie.

19 And I will shewe wonders in heaven above, and tokens in the earth beneath, blood and fire, and the vapour of smoke.

20 The Sunne shall be turned into darkenesse, and the Moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 And it shall bee, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, heare these wordes of Jesus of Nazareth, a man appoynted of God among you with great wonders, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as ye see your selves also knowe.

23 Whom I say, have ye taken by the hands of the wicked, being delivered by the decree of men, and sold for knowledge of God, and have crucified and slain him.

24 Whom God hath raised up, and hooded the sorowes of death, because it was impossible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David saith concerning him, I beheld the Lord, & was before mee: for hee is at my right hand, that I should not be shaken.

26 Therefore do mine heart rejoyce, and my tongue was glad, and moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope.

27 Because thou wilt not leave me in mine iniquities, neither wilt thou suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

28 Thou hast set forth mee the wayes of life, and shalt make me full of thy word with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, I may boldly speak unto you of the Patriarche David, that hee was both dead and buried, and his sepulchre remaineth with us unto this day.

30 Therefore seeing he was a Prophet, and knew that God had sware with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loynes he would raise up Christ concerning the death to sit upon his throne.

31 Yet knowing this he foretold, that of the resurrection of Christ, that he should not be left in grave, neither his flesh should see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.

32 Since then that he by the right hand of God hath been exalted, and hath recei-see and hear.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know for a surety, that God hath made him

ye have crucified.

37 Now when they heard it, they were pricked in their hearts, and said unto Peter and the other Apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent your sins, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sinnes: and ye shall receive the gift of the holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is made unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afarre off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words he be-hought, & exhorted them saying, Save your selves from this froward generation.

41 Then they that gladly received his word, were baptized: and the same day there were added to the Church about three thousand soules.

42 And they continued in the Apostles doctrine, and fellowship, and breaking of bread, and prayers.

43 And there came upon every soule and many wonders and signes were done by the Apostles.

44 And all that believed, were in one place, and had things in common.

45 And they sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as eue-ry one had need.

46 And they continued daily with one accord in the Temple, and breaking bread at home, did eat their meat together with gladness and singleness of heart,

47 Praising God, and had favour with all the people: and the Lord added to the Church from day to day, such as should be saved.

CHAP. III.

1 The Lord is referred to his feet. 2 Peter pre-acheth Christ unto the people.

Now Peter and John went by together into the Temple, at the ninth hour of prayer.

Which was their evening sacrifice, at which the Apostles were present to teach that the shadowes of the Law were abolished by that Lamb that took away the sinnes of the world.

2 And a certaine man which was a creple from his mothers wombe was carryed, whom they led daily at the gate of the temple called Beautiful, to alke almes of them that entered into the Temple.

3 And he seeing Peter and John, that they would enter into the Temple, desired to receive an almes.

4 And Peter earnestly beholding him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, trusting to receive some thing of them.

6 Then said Peter, Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have, that I shew thee in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walke.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lift him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

8 And he leaped up, stood, and walked, and entered with them into the Temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walke, and praising God.

10 And they knew him, that it was he which sat for the almes at the Beautiful gate of the Temple, and they were amazed, and were astonished at that which was come unto him.

11 And as the creeple which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people ran amazed unto them in the porch which is called Salomons.

12 So when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvelle ye at this? or why looke ye so steadfastly on us, as though by our owne power or godliness we had made this man goe?

13 The God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers hath glorified his Sonne Jesus, whom ye betrayed, and denied in the presence of Pi-

14 But ye denied the Holy one and the

which is by him, hath given to him this distill the time that all things bee restored, which God had spoken by the mouth of all his holy Prophets since the world began.

22 For Iohnes said vnto the Fathers, The Lord your God shall raise vp vnto you a Prophet, euen of your brethren like vnto me: ye shall heare him in all things whatsoever he shall say vnto you.

23 For it shall be, that every person which shall not heare that Prophet, shall be destroyed out of the people.

24 Also all the Prophets from Samuel, and thenceforth as many as haue spoken, haue likewise foretold of these dayes.

25 Ye are the children of the Prophets, and of the covenant which God hath made vnto our fathers, saying to Abraham, "Euen in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed."

26 First vnto you hath God raised vp his Sonne Iesus, and him he hath sent to bless you, in turning every one of you from your iniquities.

ther: for among men there is giuen none other name vnder heauen, whereby wee must be saved.

13 Now when they saw the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and vnderstood that they were vnlearned men, and without knowledge, they marvelled, and knew them, that they had bene with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commaunded them to goe aside out of the Councill, and conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, What shall wee doe to these men? For surely a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly known to all them that dwell in Ierusalem, and we cannot denie it.

17 But that it keepe no further among the people, let vs threaten and charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 So they called them, and commaunded them, that in no wise they should speake or teach in the Name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and said, Whether it bee right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, Iudge ye.

20 For wee cannot but speake the things which wee haue seene and heard.

21 So they threatened them, and let them goe, and found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done.

22 For the man was about fouerty yeere old, in whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then as soone as they were let goe, they came to their fellowes, and shewed all that the high Priests and Elders had said vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voices to God with one accord, & said, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea & all things that are in them.

25 Which by the mouth of thy seruant David hast said, "Which did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?"

26 The kings of the earth assembled, and the rulers came together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For Iudas Iscariot, one of the twelve, who was called a betrayer, hath betrayed the Lord, whom thou hast anointed, Iherod, Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel gathered themselves together.

28 O doe whatsoever thinge hand and thy counsel hath determined before to bee done.

29 And now O Lord, behold their threatenings, and grant vnto thy seruants with all boldnesse to speake thy word.

30 So that thou stretch forth thine hand, that healing, and signes and wonders may be done by the Name of thine holy Sonne Iesus.

gumbled together, and they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God boldly.

32 And the multitude of them that believed, were of one heart, and of one soul: neither any of them sayd, that any thing of that which he possessed, was his owne, but they had all things common.

33 And with great power gaue the Apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Iesus: and great grace was vpon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them, that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses, sold them, and brought the price of the things that were sold,

3 The hypocrisy of Ananias and Sapphira is punished. 13 Miracles are done by the Apostles. 17 They are taken, but the Angel of God bringeth them out of prison. 29 Their bold confession before the Council. 34 The counsel of Gamaliel. 40 The Apostles are beat, and reioyce in trouble.

BETWEE a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And kept away part of the price, his wife also being of counsell, and brought a certaine part, and layd it downe at the Apostles feet.

3 Then said Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou shouldst lpe vnto the holy Ghost, and keepe away part of the price of the possession?

4 Whiles it remained, appertained it not vnto thee? and after it was sold, was it not in thine owne power? how is it that thou hast conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied vnto men, but vnto God.

5 Now when Ananias heard these wordes, he fell downe, and gaue vp the ghost. And great feare came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men rose vp, and tooke him vp, and caried him out, and buried him.

7 And it came to passe about the space of three houres after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

8 And Peter said vnto her, Tell mee, soldst thou the land for so much? And shee sayd, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said vnto her, Why haue ye agreed together, to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feete of them which haue buried thine husband, are at the doore, and shall carie thee out.

10 When she fell downe straight way at his feet, & yielded vp the ghost, and the young men came in, and found her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and on as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the hands of the Apostles, were many signes and wonders shewed among the people: and they were all with one accord in Salomons porch.

13 And of the other durst no man loyne himselfe to them: notwithstanding the people magnified them.

14 Also the number of them that believed in the Lord, both of men and women, grew more and more.

15 Insomuch that they brought the sick into the streetes, and laid them on beds, and couches, that at the least way the shadow of Peter, when he came by, might shadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about vnto Ierusalem, bringing sick folkes, and them which were vexed with uncleane spirits, who were all healed.

17 Then the chiefe Priest rose vp, and all they that were with him (which was the sect of the Sadducees) and were full of indignation,

18 And laid hands on the Apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the Angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doores, and brought them forth, and said,

20 See your way and stand in the Temple, and speake to the people all the wordes of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entered into the Temple early in the morning, and taught. And the chiefe Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Councill together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came, & found them not in the prison, they returned and told it.

23 Saying, Certainly we found the prison shut as sure as was possible, & the keepers standing without before the doores: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Then when the chiefe Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the chiefe Priests heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one, and shewed them, saying, Behold, the men that yett put in prison are standing in the Temple, and teach the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence (for they feared the people, lest they should haue been stoned.)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the Councill, and the chiefe Priest asked them,

^g Because of their owne euill consciences, which made them to tremble for they that were not assured of Gods mercies in Christ, were astonished at these his strange iudgements.

ⁱ Which then were the chiefe among them, k They were full of blinde zeale, emulation and enuie, in defence of their superstition.

Gen. 12. 1.

3 And said unto him, Come out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran; and after that his father was dead, God brought him from thence into this land wherein ye now dwell.

5 And hee gave him none inheritance in it, no, nor the breadth of a foot: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 But God spake thus, that his seed should be a sojourner in a strange land, and that they should keepe it in bondage, and entraine it euill-foure hundred yeres.

7 But the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I iudge, saith God: and after that, they shall come forth, and serue me in this place.

8 Hee gaue him also the couenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begate Isaac, and circumcised him the eight day: and Isaac begate Jacob, and Jacob the twelue Patriarkes.

9 And the Patriarkes moued with enuie, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

10 And deliuered him out of all his afflictions, and gaue him fauour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh King of Egypt, who made him gouernour ouer Egypt, and ouer his whole house.

11 Then came there a famine ouer all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, that our fathers found no iustitiance.

12 But when Jacob heard that there was come in Egypt, hee sent our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Joseph was known of his brethren, and Josephs kindred was made known vnto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Joseph and called his father to be brought, and all his kindred, euen three-score and thirtene soules.

15 So Jacob went downe into Egypt, and hee died and our fathers,

16 And were remooued vnto Sychem, and were put in the sepulchre, that Abraham had bought for money of the sonnes of Emor, sonnes of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise was nere, which God had sware to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt.

18 Till another King arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and euill increased our fathers, and made them to sell out their young children, that they should not remaine after.

20 The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished in his fathers house thre moneths.

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaohs daughter tooke him vp, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdomes of the Egyptians, and was mighty in wordes and in deedes.

23 Now when he was full forty yere old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And when he saw one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and aunged his quarrell that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.

25 For hee supposed his brethren would haue understood that God by his hand should giue them deliuerance: but they understood it not.

26 And the next day hee shewed himselfe vnto them as they strowe, and would haue let them at one againe, saying, Where are your brethren, why doe ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kill mee, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at that saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.

30 And when forty yeres were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame of fire, in a bush.

31 And when Moses saw it, hee wondered at the sight: and as hee drew nere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying,

32 I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold it.

33 Then the Lord said to him, But off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I haue sene, I haue sene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groning, & am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they forsooke, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge? the same God sent for a prince, and a deliuerer by the hand of the Angel, which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, doing wonders and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the red Sea, and in the wilderness foure yeres.

37 This is that Moses which said vnto the children of Israel, A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise vp vnto you, euen of your brethren, like vnto mee, him shall ye heare.

38 This is he that was in the Congregation, in the wilderness with the Angel, which spake to him in mount Sina, & with our fathers, who recured the thursy iacules to giue vnto vs.

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but refused, and in their hearts turned backe againe into Egypt.

And Saul consorted to his death, and at that time there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Ierusalem, and they were all scattered abroad through the regions of Iudea, and of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, * carried Steuen among them to bee buried, and made great * lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made haucke of the Church, and entered into curie house, and drew out both men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went to and fro preaching the word.

5 Then came Philip into the citie of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto those things which Philip spake, with one accord, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For vncleane spirits crying with a loude voyce, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palfies, and that baled, were healed.

8 And there was great ioy in that citie.

9 And there was before in the citie a certaine man called Simon, which used witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, That hee himselfe was some great man.

10 To whom they * gaue heede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great * power of God.

11 And they gaue heede vnto him, because that of long time hee had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But as soone as they beleued Philip, which preached the things that concerned the kingdomes of God, and the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himselfe * beleued also and was baptized, and continued with Philip, and wondered, when he saw the signes and great miracles which were done.

14 Now when the Apostles which were at Ierusalem, heard say that Samaria had receiued the word of God, they sent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the * holy Ghost.

16 (For as yet hee was come downe on none of them, but they were baptized * only in the Name of the Lord Iesus)

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the Apostles hands, the holy Ghost was given, he offered them money.

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay the hands, hee may receive the holy Ghost.

20 Then said Peter vnto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou thinkest that the gift of God may be obtained with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor fellowship in this business: for thine heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, that if it bee possible, the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

24 Then answered Simon, & said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come vpon me.

25 So they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem and preached the Gospel to many townes of the Samaritanes.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philip, saying, Arise, and goe toward the South, vnto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem vnto Gaza, which is a waste.

27 And he arose, & went on: and beholde, a certain eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe gouernor, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Jerusalem to worship.

28 And as he returned sitting in his chaire he read Ezechas the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said vnto Philip, Go nere, and opene thy selfe to pondeer chaire.

30 And Philip ranne thither, and brake him read the Prophet Ezechas, and said, What understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except I had a guide? & he desired Philip that hee would come up and sit with him.

32 Now the place of the Scripture which hee read, was this, Hee was led as a sheepe to the slaughter: and like a lambe dumbe before his shearer so opened hee not his mouth.

33 In his humilitie, his iudgement hath herne exalted: but who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 Then the Eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speakest the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, & the Eunuch said, See, here is water: what doest thou to be baptized?

37 And Philip said vnto him, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. Then hee answered, and said, I beleue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then hee commanded the chaire to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip and the Eunuch, and hee baptized him.

39 And as soon as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the Eunuch saw him no more: so he went on his way reioicing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus, and he walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus, that hee might find the Synagogues, that if hee found any that were of that way (either men or women) he might bring them bound vnto Jerusalem.

3 Now as hee journeyed, it came to passe, that as hee was come nere to Damascus, suddenly there shined round about him a light from heauen.

4 And hee fell to the earth, and heard a voyce saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And hee said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kicke against prickes.

6 Hee then both trembling and astonished, said, Lord, what wilt thou that I doe? And the Lord said vnto him, Arise, and goe into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou shalt doe.

12 And he saw in a vision a man named Ananias coming in to him, and putting his hands on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy Saints at Jerusalem.

14 Moreover, here he hath authority of the high Priests, to binde all that fall on thy Name.

15 Then the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto mee to beare my Name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him how many things he must suffer for my Names sake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entered into the house, and put his hands on him, and said, Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent me, (even Jesus that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest) that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had bin scales, and suddenly he received sight, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And received meate, and was strengthened. So was Saul certain dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God.

21 So that all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this hee that destroyed them which called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that hee should bring them bound unto the high Priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jewes which dwelt at Damascus, confirming that this was the Christ.

23 And after that many dayes were fulfilled, the Jewes tooke counsell together to kill him.

24 But their laying await was knownen of Saul: now they watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples tooke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, hee assayed to ioyne himselfe with the Disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that hee was a Disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, & brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how hee had seene the Lord in the way, and that hee had spoken unto him, and how hee had spoken boldly at Damascus in the Name of Jesus.

28 And he was conversant with them at Jerusalem.

29 And spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and spake and disputed with the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knew it, they brought him to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarus.

31 Then had the Churches rest throughout all Iudea and Galilee, & Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, he came also to the Saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there hee found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeeres, and was sicke of the palsey.

34 Then said Peter unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make up thy bed. And hee arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda, and Sharon saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Joppa a certaine woman discipled named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called Doctas) shee was full of good works, and almes doings.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that shee was sicke and died: and when they had washed her, they layd her in an upper chamber.

38 Now so much as Lydda was nere to Joppa, and the Disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring that hee would not delay to come unto them.

39 Then Peter arose & came with them: and when hee was come, they brought him into the upper chamber, where all the widowes stood by him weeping, & shewing the robes and garments which Doctas made, while shee was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the body, and said, Tabitha, arise. And hee opened her eyes, and when shee saw Peter, shee sayd.

41 Then hee gaue her the hand, and lift her up, and called the Saints & widowes, and restored her alive.

42 And it was knownen throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe that hee carried many dayes in Joppa with one Simon a Tanner.

6 He lodged with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: I he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to doe.

7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, hee called two of his seruants, and a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,

8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Ioppe.

9 On the morrow as they went on their journey, and hys were vnto the cite, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the 4th houre.

10 Then waied he an hungred, & would haue eaten: but while they made some thing ready, he fell into a trance.

11 And he saw heauen opened, and a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheet, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were 4 all manner of foure footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is polluted or vncleane.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the second time. The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

16 This was to shew this: and the vessel was drawen vp againe into heauen.

17 ¶ Now while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which hee had seen meant, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had enquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the spirit sayd vnto him, Behold, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and goe with them, and doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 ¶ When Peter went downe to the men which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayd, Behold, I am hee whom ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the capitaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holy Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thee word.

23 ¶ Then called he the three in, and lodged them, and the next day Peter went forth with them, and certaine therewith from Ioppe accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe, as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter tooke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euery man I am a man.

27 And as hee talked with him, hee came in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye know that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Jew, to companye or come vnto one of another nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man polluted, or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, when I was sent for. I like therefore, for what intent haue ye sent for me?

30 ¶ Then Cornelius sayd, Foure dayes agoe, about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and beholde a man stood before me in bright clothing,

31 And sayd, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Ioppe, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter: he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the Sea side: who when hee cometh, shall speake vnto thee.

33 ¶ Then sent I for thee immediately, and thou hast well done to come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive, that God is no acceptor of persons.

35 But in every nation he that feareth him and worketh righteoulesse, is accepted with him.

36 ¶ Ye know the word which God hath sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Iesus Christ, which is Lord of all.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which hee did both in the land of the Iewes, and in Ierusalem, whom they slew, hanging him on a tree.

40 ¶ Him God raised vp the third day, and caused that hee was shewed openly:

41 Not to all the people, but vnto the witnesses chosen before of God, vnto us which did eate and drinke with him, after hee rose from the dead.

42 And hee commanded us to preach vnto the people, and to testify, that it is he that is ordained of God a Iudge of quicke and dead.

2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also (then were the days of unleavened bread.)

4 And when he had caught him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quarters of soldiers to be kept, intending after the Passover to bring him forth to the people.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him out unto the people, the same night slept Peter between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and the keepers before the door, kept the prison.

7 And behold, the Angel of the Lord came upon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and called him up, saying, Arise quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the Angel said unto him, Gird thy self, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. Then he said unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knew not that it was true which was done by the Angel, but thought he had seen a vision.

10 Now when they were past the first and the second watch, they came unto the yron gate that leadeth unto the cite, which opened to them by its owne accord, and they went out, and passed through one street, and by and by the Angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he sayd, Now I know for a truth that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the waiting for of the people of the Jews.

12 And as he considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together and prayed.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entry doore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But when he knew Peters voice, he opened not the entry doore for gladness, but ran in and tolde how Peter stood beside the entrie.

15 But they sayde unto her, Thou art madde. Yet she affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then sayd they, It is his Angels.

16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and saw him, they were astonied.

17 And he beckoned unto them with the hand to hold their peace, and told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And hee sayd, See how these things came unto James and to the brethren and he departed and went into another place.

18 Now all these as it was day, there was no small trouble among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him and found him not, he examined the keepers and commanded them to be led to be punished. And he was done from Iudaea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herod intended to make war against them of Tyne and Sidon, but they came all with one accord unto him, and persuaded Blastus the kings chamberlain, and they desired peace, because their country was nourished by the kings land.

21 And upon a day appointed, Herod arrayed himself in royall apparell, and late on the iudgment seate, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, The voice of God, and not of man.

23 But immediately the Angel of the Lord smote him, because hee gave not glory unto God, so that hee was eaten of worms, and gaur by the Ghost.

24 And the word of God grew, and multiplied.

25 So Barnabas and Saul returned from Ierusalem, when they had fulfilled their office, and tooke with them John whose surname was Marke.

2 Paul and Barnabas are called to preach among the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus and Elymas the sorcerer. 13 The departure of Marke. 14 Pauls preaching at Antiochia. 42 The faith of the Gentiles. 46 The Jews resisted. 48 They that are ordained to life, blessing. 52 The fruits of faith.

There were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certaine prophets and teachers, as Barnabas, and Symon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, (which had bene brought up with Herod the Tetrarch) and Saul.

2 Now as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the worke whereunto I have called them.

3 Then fasted they, and prayed, and laid their hands on them, and let them goe.

4 And they, after they were sent forth of the holy Ghost, came downe unto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the worde of God in the Synagogues of the Jewes: and they had also John to their minister.

6 So when they had gone throughout the yle unto Paphos, they found a certaine sorcerer, a false prophet, being a Jew, named Barjesus.

7 Which was with the Deputy Sergius Paulus a prudent man. He called unto him Barnabas and Saul, and desired to heare the word of God.

name by interpretation) withstood them, and sought to turn away the Deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him.

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, the child of the devill, and enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the straight wayes of the Lord?

11 Now therefore behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt bee blinde, and not see the sunne for a season. And immediately there fell on him a miste and a darkness, and he went about, seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputy when he saw what was done, befelied, and was astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and they that were with him, were departed by ship from Paphos, they came to Perga, a citie of Pamphylia: then John departed from them, and returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antiochia, a citie of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat downe.

15 And after the lecture of the Law and of the Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent unto them, saying, Pee men and brethren, if yee have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckened with the hand, and said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the lande of Egypt, and with an high arme brought them out thereof.

18 And about the time of fourty yeres, suffered hee their manners in the wilderness.

19 And he destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, and divided their lande to them by lot.

20 Then afterward hee gave unto them Judges: about foure hundred and fiftie yeres, unto the time of Samuel the Prophet.

21 So after that they desired a King, and God gave unto them Saul the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of fourety yeres.

22 And after he had taken him away, hee raised up David to be their king, of whom hee witnessed, saying, I have found David the sonne of Jesse, a man after mine owne heart, which will do all things that I will.

23 Of these manns seest thou how God according to his promise raised up to Israel the Saviour Jesus:

24 When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when John had fulfilled his course, he sayd, whom ye thinke that I am, I am not hee: but beholde, there commeth one after mee, whose shoe of his fete I am not worthy to looke.

26 Pee men and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, and whosoever among you heareth God, to you is the word of this saluation sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the wordes of the Prophets, which are read every Sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they tooke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him up from the dead.

31 And hee was seene many dayes of them, which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, which are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And wee declare unto you, that touching the promises made unto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled it unto vs, their children, in that hee raised up Jesus, even as it is written in the second Psalm, Thou art my Sonne: this day have I begotten thee.

34 Now as concerning that hee raised him up from the dead, no man is able to returne to the grave, hee hath sayd thus, I will give you the holy things of David which are sayd thus.

35 Wherefore hee sayeth also in another place, Thou wilt not suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

36 Wherefore, David after hee had served his time by the counsell of God, hee slept, and was layd with his fathers, and saw corruption.

37 But hee whom God raised up, saw no corruption.

38 Bee it knowne unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sinnes.

39 And from all things from which ye could not bee iustified by the Law of Moses, by him every one that beleeueth is justified.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the Prophets,

41 Behold, yee despisers, and wonder, and unwise away: for I worke a worke in your dayes, a worke which ye shall not beleue, if a man would declare it you.

42 And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles followed, that they would preach these words to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the Congregation was dissolved, many of the Iewes, and Doctors that feared God, followed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

c Which are the doctrine of the Apostles, that onely leadeth vs to God.

d This was another Antiochia then that which was in Syria.

e This declareth that the Scripture is given to reach and exhort vs, and that they refused none that had gifts to see forth Gods glory, and to edifie his people.

3 God giueth successe to his word. 6 Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium and are persecuted. 13
At Lystra they would doe sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul, which refuse it, and exhort the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned. 23 They confirm the disciples in faith and patience. 26 Appoint ministers. 26 And passing through many places, make report of their diligence at Antiochia.

And it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together in the Synagogue of the Jewes, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jewes and of the Grecians believed.

2 But the unbelieuing Jewes stirred up, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time, and spake boldly in the Lorde, which gaue testimonie vnto the word of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the people of the cite were diuided: and some were with the Jewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and of the Jewes with their rulers, to doe them violence, and to slay them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region round about.

7 And there were preaching the Gospel.

8 Now there was a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his feete, which was a criple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked:

9 He heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Sayde with a loud voyce, I stand vpon my feete. And he leaped vp, and walked.

11 Then when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted vp their voyces, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Iupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chiefe speaker.

13 Then Iupiters Priest, which was before their cite, brought bulles with gar-lands vnto the gates, and would haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles, Barnabas and Paul heard it, they sent their clothes, and ranne in among the people, crying,

15 And saying, Men, why doe yee these things? Wee are euen men, subject to the like passions that yee be, and preach vnto you, that yee should turne from these vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, which made

Gentiles to walke in their owne wayes.

17 Nevertheless, hee left not himselfe

gaue vs raine from heauen, and fruitfull seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladnesse.

18 And speaking these things, scarce refrained they the people, that they had not sacrificed vnto them.

19 Then there came certaine Jewes from Antiochia and Iconium, which when they had perswaded the people, I stoned Paul, and drew him out of the cite, supposing he had beene dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he arose vp, and came into the ci-tie, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And after they had preached to that cite, and had taught many, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antio-chia.

22 Confirming the disciples hearts, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, affirming, that we must thorow many afflictions enter into the kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordeined them Elders by election in euery Church, & prayed, and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whom they believed.

24 Thus they went throughout Bithynia, and came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they came downe to Atalia.

26 And thence sailed to Antiochia, from whence they had bene commended vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they had fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they recalled all the things that God had done by them, and how he had opened the doore of

Then came downe certaine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 And when there was great dissention and bickering by Paul and Barnabas, against them, they ordained that Paul and Barnabas, and certaine others of them should goe up to Jerusalem unto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they brought great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

b Which were factious, and given to dissention.

5 But sayd they, certaine of the sect of the Pharisees, which did beleue, rose up, saying, that it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keepe the Law of Moses.

6 Then the Apostles and Elders came together to looke to this matter.

7 And when there had bene great dissention, Peter rose up, and sayd unto them, Ye men and brethren, ye knowe that a good while agoe, among vs God chose out mee, that the Gentiles, by my mouth should heare the word of the Gospel, and beleue.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, in giving unto them the holy Ghost, men as he did unto vs.

c As touching adoption and eternall life. d By faith God purifieth the heart, 1. Cor. 1. 2. chap. 10. 43.

9 And hee put no difference betwene vs, and them, after that by faith hee had purified their hearts.

10 Nowe therefore, why tempt ye God, to lay a yoke on the disciples neckes, which neither our fathers, nor wee were able to beare?

e They purpose to tempt God, which lay greater charges on mens consciences, then they are able to beare, Matt. 23. 4. f And not by the Law: for it is a clog to the conscience, and we cannot be delivered thereby, 2. Pet. 1. 1. admo. 9, 11.

11 But wee beleue, through the grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to bee saved, euen as they doe.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which told what signes and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they had their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren hearken unto mee.

14 Simon hath declared how God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people unto his Name.

15 And to this agree the words of the Prophets, as it is written,

g That is, the Church, whereof the Temple was a figure, 16 After this, I will returne, and will build againe the Tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe, and the ruines thereof will I build againe, and I will set it up.

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles upon whom my Name is called, sayd the Lord which doeth all these things.

18 From the beginning of the world God knoweth all his workers.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that wee trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God.

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstaine themselves from filthinesse of idoles, and fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every citie them that preach him, seeing he is read in the Synagogues every Sabbath day.

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church, to chuse men of their owne companie to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas, to wit, Judas whose surname was Barababas, and Silas, which were chief men among the brethren.

23 And wrote letters by them after this manner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, send greeting.

24 For as much as we have heard, that certaine which departed from vs, have troubled you with words, and cumbr'd your mindes, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keepe the Law: to whom we gave no such commandment.

25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with an accord, to chuse men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul.

26 Men that have given by their lives for the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 These have therefore sent Judas and Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to vs, to lay no more burthen upon you, then these necessary things.

29 That is, that ye abstaine from things offered to idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, and from fornication: for from which if ye keepe your selves, ye shall doe well. Fare ye well.

30 Now when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, after that they had assembled the multitude, they delivered the Epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they rejoyced for the consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas being Prophets, corroborated the brethren with many words and strengthened them.

33 And after they had taried there a space, they were let goe in peace of the brethren unto the Apostles.

34 Forwithstanding, Silas thought good to abide there still.

Should doe unto you, doe not to others. || Or, confirmed. || In using desired leave of the Church, the brethren praised God to prosper their journey. e Who for iust causes, changed his mind. || And only Judas went.

h Which were gathered into one familie with the Jewes, to wit: that they should acknowledge all one God and one Saviour Christ Iesus. i For some thought it was offence by his presence in the idoles temples, and therefore hee saith: which I Paul forbide to drinke the cup of the deities, 1. Cor. 10. 14. k The brethren thought this no vice, but rather a common custom. As touching a strangled thing and blood, they were not vitious of themselves, and therefore were observed but in a time. l And which saith: they should be to themselves, that they should not sit to others. m Therefore in ceremonies commanded by God, could not be able to be abolished, till the battle of the Gospel were better knowne. n Whome the holy Ghost hath moved and directed to ordaine, and write these things, as the authors of the doctrine of Gods ordinance, Rom. 1. 11. ind. 7. 26. hag. 1. 11. o And which saith: they should not think that men

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with many others the word of the Lord.

36 ¶ But after certaine dayes Paul said vnto Barnabas, Let vs returne, and visite our brethren in every cite, where we haue preached the word of the Lord, and see how they doe.

37 And Barnabas † counselled to take with them Iohn called Marke.

38 But Paul thought it not meet to take him vnto their companie, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

39 Then were they so stirred, that they departed asunder one from the other, so that Barnabas tooke Marke, and sailed vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 And he went thorow Syria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

Then came they to Derbe and to Lystra: and behold, a certaine discipule was there, named Timotheus, a womans sonne, which was a Jewesse and beleuech, but his father was a Grecian.

2 Of whom the brethren which were at Lystra and Iconium, reported well.

3 Therefore Paul would that he should goe forth with him, and tooke and circumcised him, because of the Jewes, which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Grecian.

4 And as they went thorow the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to keepe, ordained of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Ierusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and increased in number dayly.

6 ¶ Now when they had gone thorow Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, they were † forbidden of the holy Ghost, to preach the word in Asia.

7 Then came they to Mysia, and sought to goe into Bithinia: but the Spirit † suffered them not.

8 Therefore they passed thorow Mysia, and came downe to Troas.

9 And there a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia, and played him, saying, Come into Macedonia, and helpe vs.

10 And after hee had seene the vision, immediately wee prepared to goe into Macedonia, being assured that the Lord had called vs to preach the Gospel vnto them.

11 Then went we forth from Troas, and with a straight course came to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis.

12 ¶ And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe cite in the parts of Macedonia, and whose inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there, and were were in that cite abiding certaine dayes.

13 And on the Sabbath day, wee went out of the cite, besides a rure where they were wont to pray: and we sat downe, and spake vnto the women, which were come together.

14 And a certaine woman named Lydia: a seller of purple, of the cite of the Tyratians, which worshipped God, heard vs: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended vnto the things which Paul spake.

15 And when shee was baptized and her household, shee besought vs, saying, If ye haue iudged me to be faithfull to the Lord, come into mine house and abide there: and we constrained her.

16 And it came to passe, that as we went to prayer, a certaine mayd hauing a spirit of divination, met vs, which gate her masters much vantage with dining.

17 She followed Paul and vs, and cryed, saying, These men are the seruants of the most high God, which shewe vnto vs the way of saluation.

18 And this did shee many dayes: but Paul being grieved, turned about, and sayd to the spirit, I commaund thee in the name of Iesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

19 Now when her masters saw that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and brayned them into the market place vnto the Magistrates.

20 And brought them to the Gouernours, saying, These men which are Jewes, trouble our cite.

21 And preach ordinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receive, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

22 The people also rose vp together against them, and the Gouernours rent their clothes, and commaunded them to be beaten with rods.

23 And when they had beaten them sore, they cast them into prison commaunding the Iaylor to keepe them surely.

24 And hauing received such commaundement, cast them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 Now at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sung a Psalm vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by and by all the doores opened, and euery mans bands were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison wakened out of his sleepe, and when hee saw the prison doores open, hee drew out his sword, and would haue killed himselfe, supposing the prisoners had bene dead.

28 But Paul cryed with a loud voice, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme: for wee are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas.

30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I doe to be saved?

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul commeth to the Iulianica, 4 where some receive him, and others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 Hee disputeth at Athens, and the fruites of his doctrine.

Nowe as they passed throzow Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, and thre Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures.

3 Openings alleudging that Christ must haue suffered, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whom, sayd he, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleueed, and topped in companie with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God, a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a few.

5 But the Iewes which beleueed not, moued with enuy, tooke vnto them certaine vagabondes and wicked fellows, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the cite, & made assault against the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they drew Jason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of the cite, crying, These are they which haue subuerbed the state of the world, and heere they are.

7 Whom Jason hath receiued, and these all doe against the decrees of Ceesar, saying, that there is an other King, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people and the heads of the cite, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued // sufficient assurance of Jason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither entered into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which received the word with all readinesse, and searched the Scriptures dayly, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleueed, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men nota few.

13 ¶ But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knewe, that the word of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and moued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to goe as it were to the Sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there till.

15 And they that // did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commendement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the cite // subject to idolatrie.

17 Therefore hee disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market, dayly, with whomsoever he met.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of the Epicures, and of the Stoicks, disputed with him, and some said, What wilt this babler say? Others sayd, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods (because hee preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into // Bars street, saying, May we not know, what this new doctrine whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certaine strange things vnto our eares: wee would knowe therefore, what these things mean.

21 For all the Athenians and strangers which dwelt there, // gaue themselves to nothing els, but either to tell of, or to heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stood in the middes of // Bars street, and sayd, Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

A fter these things Paul departed from Athen, and came to Corinthus.
2 And found a certaine Iew named Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italy, and his wife Priscilla (because that Claudius had commanded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.
3 And because hee was of the same craft, he abode with them and wrought (for their craft was to make shennes.)

4 And hee disputed in the Synagogue every Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes and the Grecians.

5 Now when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul went with them, and preached in the Synagogue.

were come from Macedonia, Paul burned in spirit, testifying to the Iewes that Iesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blas-phemed, hee shooke his raiment, and said vnto them, Your blood be vpon your own head:
I am cleane: from henceforth will I goe vnto the Gentiles.

7 So he departed thence, and entered into a certaine mans house, named Titus, a worshipper of God, whose house he lodged hard to the Synagogue.

8 And Crispus the chiefe Ruler of the Synagogue, beleued in the Lord with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleued and were baptized.

9 Then sayd the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, and hold not thy peace.

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall lay hands on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this cite.

11 So he continued there a yere and sixe monethes, and taught the word of God among them.

12 Now when Gallio was deputie of Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accord against Paul, and brought them to the Iudgement seat.

13 Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to the Law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio layd vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an ill deed, I see Iewes, I would according to reason maintaine you.

15 But if it be a question of words, and names, and of your Lawe, looke yee to it your selues: for I will be no Iudge of those things.

16 And hee drave them from the Iudge-ment seat.

17 Then tooke all the Grecians Sop-henes, the chiefe Ruler of the Synagogue, and beat him before the Iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he took leaue of the brethren, and sailed into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that hee had shorne his head in Cenchrea, for hee had a vow.

19 Then he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but hee entered into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes.

20 Who desired him to tary a longer time with them: but hee would not consent.

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needs keepe this Feast that cometh in Ierusalem: but I will returne againe vnto you, if God will. So he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he came downe to Cesarea, he went vnto Ierusalem: and when he had saluted the Church, he went downe vnto Antiochia.

23 Now when hee had taried there a while,
he departed, and went throughout the countrie of Galatia and Phrygia by order, strengthening all the Churches.

29 And the whole cite was full of confusion, and they rushed into the common place with one assent, and caught Gaius, and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, and Pauls companions of his journey.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 Certaine also of the chiefe of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not present himselfe in the common place.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was out of order, and the more part knew not why they were come together.

33 And some of the company, whose fourth Alexander, the Jewes thrusting him forwarde, Alexander then bekened with the hand, and would have excused the matter to the people.

34 But when they knew that hee was a Jew, there arose a shout almost for the space of two houres of all men, crying, Great is Diana of the Ephelians.

35 Then the towne Clerke, when he had stayed the people, said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is it, that knoweth not, how that the cite of the Ephelians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which came downe from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that no man can speake against these things, ye ought to be appeased, and to doe nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which have neither committed sacrilege, neither doe blaspheme your goddess.

38 Wherefore, if Demetrius & the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are Deputies: let them accuse one another.

39 But if ye enquire anything concerning other matters, it may be determined in a lawfull assembly.

40 For we are even in jeopardy to bee accused of this dayes sedition, forasmuch as there is no cause, whereby wee may give a reason of this concourse of people.

41 And when he had thus spoken, hee let the assembly depart.

CHAP. XX.

1 Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia. 2 Hee celebrateth the Lords Supper, and preacheth. 3 At Troas he raiseth up Eutychus. 17 At Ephesus hee calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods house unto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, and departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

Now after the tumult was ceased, Paul called the disciples unto him, and embraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

2 And when hee had gone through those parts, and had exhorted them with many wordes, hee came into Grecia.

3 And having taried there three moneths, because the Jewes bid make for him, as hee was about to saile into Syria, hee purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothyus; and of them of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These went before, and taried at Troas.

6 And we sailed forth from * Ephippi, after the dayes of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five dayes, where we abode seven dayes.

7 And * the first day of the weeke, the disciples being come together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow, and continued the preaching unto midnight.

8 And there were many lightes in an upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain yong man, named Eutychus, fallen into a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was long preaching, hee overcome with sleepe, fell downe from the third loft, and was taken by dead.

10 But Paul went down, and laid him selfe upon him, and embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selfe: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come by againe, and had broken bread, and eaten; hee continued along while till the dawning of the day, and lo he departed.

12 And they thought the boy alive, and they were not a little comforted.

13 Then we went forth to ship, and sailed unto the cite of * Assos, that we might rectifie Paul there: for so had he appointed, and would himselfe goe afoot.

14 Now when hee was come unto Assos, and we had rectified him, we came to Mitylene.

15 And wee sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios, and the next day wee arrived at Samos, and earied at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because hee would not spend the time in Asia: for hee hasted to bee, if he could possibill, at Ierusalem, at the day of * Ascension.

17 Wherefore from Miletum hee sent to Ephesus, and called the Elders of the Church.

18 Also when they were come to him, hee said unto them, Ye knowe from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have bene with you at all seasons,

19 * Serving the Lord with all modestie, and with many teares, and tribulations, which came unto me by the layings awaile of the Jewes.

3 And when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed toward Syria, and arrived at Tyre: for there the ship was laden the burden.

4 And when we had found disciples, we taried there seven daies. And they told Paul through the Spirit, that hee should not goe up to Jerusalem.

5 But when the daies were ended, we departed and went our way, and they all accompanied us with their wives and children, even out of the citie: and we kneeling down on the shoare, prayed.

6 Then when we had embraced one another, we took our ships and they returned home.

7 And when we had ended the course from Tyre we arrived at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day Paul and they that were with him departed, and came unto Ceſarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the Evangelist, which was one of the seven Deacons, and abode with him.

9 Now he had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as we taried there many daies, there came a certaine Prophet from Iudaea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, hee took Pauls girdle, and bound his owne hands and feet, and sayd, Thus saith the holy Ghost, So shall the Jewes at Jerusalem binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we had heard these things, both we & other of the same place, besought him, that he would not goe up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and said, What doe ye weeping and breaking mine heart: For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Jerusalem for the Name of the Lord Jesus.

14 So when he would not be perswaded we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those daies were trussed by our fardels, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certaine of the disciples of Ceſarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus an olde disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the next day Paul went in with us unto James, and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced them, hee told by order all things, that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.

20 So when they heard it, they glorified

a By the revelation of Gods Spirit.

b The holy spirit revealed unto them the persecutions that Paul should have made against him, and he same Spirit also strengthened Paul to fulfill them.

f Who was the chiefe or superintendant of the Church of Jerusalem.

And the Lord, and said unto him, Thou testifiest, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe, and they are all zealous of the law.

21 Now they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moyses, and said, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to live after the customs.

22 What is then to be done? the multitude must needs come together: for they shall hear that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that we say to thee. Take four men, which have made a vow.

24 Then take, and purify thy self with them, and contribute with them, that they may * have their heads: and all shall know, that those things, whereof they have been informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy self also walkest and keepest the Law.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which believe, we have written, and determined * that they observe no such thing, but that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entered into the Temple, * declaring the accomplishment of the days of the purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia (when they saw him in the Temple) moved all the people, and * layd hands on him,

28 Crying, Men of Israel, he!pe: this is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: moreover, he hath brought Grecians into the Temple, and hath * polluted this holy place.

29 For they had seen before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in the cite, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the cite was moved, and the people ranne together: and they tooke Paul, and drew him out of the Temple, and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chiefe Captaine of the band, that all Jerusalem was on an uprore.

32 Who immediately tooke soldiers, and Centurions, and ranne * downe vnto them: and when they saw the chiefe Captaine and the soldiers, they left drawing of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe captaine came nere and tooke him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains, and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cried this, another that, among the people. So when he could not know the certaintie for the tumult, he commanded him to be led vnto the castle.

35 And when he came vnto the officers, it was to that he was borne of thraldome, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul should have bin led into the castle, hee laid vnto the chiefe captaine, May I speake vnto thee? Who said, Canst thou speake Greke?

38 Yet not, thou the * Egyptian who despoile these dayes called a sedition, and led out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 Then Paul said, Doubtlesse I am a man which am a Jew, and citizen of * Tarlus a famous cite in Cilicia, and I beseech thee, suffer me to speake vnto the people.

40 And when hee had given him licence, Paul stood on the grasse, and beckned with the hand vnto the people: and when there was made great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

Y E men, brethren, and fathers, heare my * defence now toward you.

2 (And when they heard that hee spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence, and he said,)

3 I am verely a man which am a Jew, borne in * Tarlus in Cilicia, but brought up in this cite at the * secte of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect manner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 * And I persecuted this * way vnto the death, binding and deliuering into prison both men and women,

5 As also the chiefe Priests doth beare me witness, and all the state of the Elders: of whom also I received letters vnto the brethren, and went to Damascus to bring them which were there, bound vnto Jerusalem, that they might be punished.

6 And so it was, as Iourneyed and was come nere vnto Damascus about noon, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light round about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said to me, I am Iesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 Whereupon, they that were with me, saw indeed a light, and were afraid, but they heard not the voyce of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, and goe into Damascus: and there it shall be told thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 So when I could not see for the glory of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with mee, and came into Damascus.

17 And he came to passe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalem, and playcd in the Temple, I was in a trance.

18 And law him saying vnto mee, Take haste, and get thee quickly out of Ierusalem:
for they will not receiue thy witness con-

23. And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and threw dust in the ayre,

24 The chiefe Captaine commaunded him to be led into the Castle, and bade that hee should bee scourged and examined, that hee might know wherfoze they riled so on him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said vnto the Centurion that stood by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is a Roman, and not condemned?

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went and told the chiefe Captaine, saying, Take heede what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chiefe Captaine came, and said to him, Tell mee, Art thou a Romane?
And he said, Yes.

28 And the chiefe Captaine answered,
With a great summe obtained This burggelskip. Then Paul said, But I was so borne.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should haue examined him: and the chiefe Captaine also was afraid, after he knew that hee was a Roman; and that hee had bound him.

30 On the next day, because hee would have knownen the certaintie wherfoze hee was accused of the Iewes, hee tooke him from his bonds, and commanded the hie Priests and all their Councill to come together: and he brought Paül, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII

3 The answers of Paul being smitten, and the overthrow of his enemies. 14 The Lord encountereth him.

23 And because the Jewes laid waite for him, he is sent to Cesarea.

And Paul beſet earnestly the Council, and ſaid, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conſcience ſerued God vntill this day.

2 Then the High Priest Ananias commanded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul to him, Gods will smite thee thou whited wall: for thou steest to iudge me according to the Law, and commandest thou me to be smitten contrary to the Law?

4 And they that stood by, said, Reuelen thou Gods hid Will?

5 Then said Paul, I knew not, brethren, that he was the high Priest: for it is written,* Thou shalt not speak evil of the Ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were of the Sadducees, and the other of the Pharisees, he cried in the Council, Men and brethren, * I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharisee : I am accused of the hope and resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had said this, there was a dissention between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, so that the multitude was divided.

8 * For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor Spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharisees part rose up, and stroue, saying, Wee finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

IO And when there was a great difficulty, the chief Captaine fearing lest Paul should haue bene pulled in peeces of them, commanded the soldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

II ¶ Now the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of mee in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witness also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Jewes made an assembly, and bound themselves with an oath, saying, that they would neither eat nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fottie, which had made this conspircate.

14. And they came to the chiefe Pistles and Elders, and sayd, Wee haue bound our selues with a solemne oath, that we will eate nothing untill we haueaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye and the Councell, signifie to the chiefe Captaine, that he bring him forth vnto you to morow, as though ye would know some thing more perfectly of him, and we, or euer he come neere, will be ready to kill him.

of their laying about, hee went, and entred into the castle, and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions unto him, and said, Biding this young man unto the chiefe Captaine: for hee hath a certaine thing to shew him.

18 So hee tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe Captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed mee to bring this young man unto thee, which hath some thing to say unto thee.

19 Then the chiefe Captaine tooke him by the hand, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And hee said, The Jewes have conspired to kille thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morrow into the Councill, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not persuade thee: for there lie in wait for him of them more then fourtie men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drinke, till they have killed him: and now are they ready, and wait for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the young man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had shewed him these things.

23 And hee called unto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may goe to Caesarea, and housemen thereof and tenne, and two hundred with darts, at the right houre of the night.

24 And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being let out, may be brought safe unto Felix the Governour.

25 And he wrote an Epistle in this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most noble Governour Felix sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of the Jewes, and should have bene killed of them, I came upon them with the garrison, & rescued him, perceiving that he was a Roman.

28 And when I would have knownen the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into the Councill.

29 There I perceived that hee was accused of questions of their Law, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed mee, how that the Jewes said wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commanded him to speake before thee the things that they had against him. As it will.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day they left the housemen to goe with him, and returned unto the castle.

33 Now when they came to Caesarea, they delivered the Epistle to the Governour, and presented Paul also unto him.

34 So when the Governour had read it, hee asked of what Province hee was: and when hee understood that he was of Cilicia,

35 I will heare thee, said hee, when thou accusest also: and hee commanded him to be kept in Herods judgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

10 Paul being accused, answers for his life and doeth against his accusers. 35 Felix greiveth him, thinking to have a bribe, 28 and affect leaveth him in prison.

Now after such dayes, Ananias the high Priest came downe with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certaine Orator, which appeared before the Governour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee have obtained great quietnesse through thee, and that many worthy things are done unto this nation through thy providence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most noble Felix with all chiefties.

4 But that I be not tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest heare us of thy clemencie a few wordes.

5 Certainly we have found this man a very seditious fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jewes throughout the world, and a chiefe maintainer of the sect of the Nazarenes.

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we tooke him, and would have judged him according to our Law:

7 But the chiefe captaine Lysias came upon us, and with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayest (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jewes likewise affirmed, saying, that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governour had beckned unto him that he should speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answer for my selfe, inasmuch as I know that thou hast bene of many yeres a Judge unto this nation.

11 Seeing that thou mayest know, that there are but twelue dayes since I came by to worship in Jerusalem.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither making brybe among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the city.

13 Whether can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me?

14 But this I confesse unto thee, that after the way (which they call heresie) I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the Law and the Prophets.

15 And have hope towards God, that hee will restore me to life, because I have done nothing against him.

16 And herein I endeavour my selfe to have he deferred them, and said, When I shall cerne this way, by the coming of Lysias

ter.

24 Then he commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that he should haue ease, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 And after certaine dayes came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jew-esse, and he called forth Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ.

26 And as he disputed of Righteousnes, and Temperance, and of the Iudgement to come, Felix trembled, and answered, See thy way for this time, and when I haue convenient time, I will call for thee.

27 He hoped also that money should haue bene ginen him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore hee sent for him the oftner, and communed with him.

28 When two yeres were expired, Por-cius Festus came into Felix roume: and Fel-
Paul bound.

CHAP. XXV.

a The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus, 8 Hee argueth for himselfe, 11 and appealeth vnto the Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa, 23 and he is brought forth.

VVhen Festus was then come into the prouince, after thre dayes hee went by from Cesarea vnto Jerusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chiefe of the Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And desired fauour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem: and they laid wait to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that hee himselfe would shortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore, said hee, whet among you are able, come downe with vs:
and if there be any wickednesse in the man,
let them accuse him.

6 And now when hee had taried among them no more then thre dayes, hee went downe to Cesarea, and the next day sat in the iudgement seat, and commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when hee was come, the Iewes which were come from Jerusalem, stood about him, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prooue.

8 Forasmuch as hee answered: that hee had neither offered any thing against the Law of the Iewes, neither against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

9 Per Festus willing to get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou goe up to Jerusalem, and there be iudged of these things before mee?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's iudgement seat, where I ought to bee iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there bee none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man can driue me to death: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with the Councill, he answered, Wilt thou appele vnto Cesar: vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 And after certaine dayes, King Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesa-rea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there many dayes, Festus proposed Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whom when I came to Jerusalem, the high Priests and Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, that it is not the maner of the Romanes for fauour to de-liuer any man to death, before that he which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following, I sat on the iudgement seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth:

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they propounded no crime of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne superstition, and of one Jesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be aloue.

20 And because I doubted of such maner of question, I asked him, whether hee would goe to Jerusalem, and there bee iudged of these things.

21 But because hee appealed to be referred to the examination of Augustus, I commanded him to bee kept, till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morrow, said hee, thou shalt heare him.

pa was come and Bernice with great

1 The innocencie of Paul is approved by releasing his conversation, 25 his modest answers against the iniurie of Festus.

Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretcht forth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answer this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Jewes:

3 Myselfe, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are among the Jewes: wherefore, I beseech thee to heare me patiently.

4 As touching my life from my childhood, and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, know all the Jewes.

5 Which knew mee heretofore (if they would testifie) that after the most straitest of our religion, I liued a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am accused for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelve tribes instantly serving God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O King Agrippa, I am accused of the Jewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verily thought in my selfe, that I ought to do many contrary things against the Name of Iesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Ierusalem: for many of the saintes, I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the high priests, and when they were put to death, I gave my sentence.

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being more madde against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the high priests,

13 At midday, O King, I saw in the way a light from heauen, passing the brightness of the sunne, shine round about me, and them which went with me.

14 So, when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto mee, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, "Paul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against prickes."

15 Then I sayd, What art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Iesus, whom thou persecutest.

16 But arise and stand by on thy feet: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister, and a witness, both of the things which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I will appeare vnto thee.

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I send thee.

18 To open their eyes, that they may turne from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiveness of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heavenly vision.

20 But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coastes of Iudaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and doe works worthy amendment of life.

21 For this cause the Jewes caught mee in the Temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Wherefore I obtained helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Apostles did say should come.

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that hee should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light vnto the people and to the Gentiles.

24 And as hee thus answered for himselfe, Festus sayd with a loud voyce, Paul, thou art besides thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee madde.

25 But hee sayd, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of truth and sobernesse.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake boldly: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 O King Agrippa, beleuest thou the Prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Almost thou persuadest mee to be a Christian.

29 Then Paul sayde, I would to God, that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when hee had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that late with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betwene themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage, and his company toward Rome, 44 How, and where they arrive.

Now when it was concluded, that wee should saile into Italle, they deliuered both Paul, and certain other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Iulius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And wee entered into a ship of Adramyttium, purposing to saile by the coastes of Asia, and landedd footed, and had Aristarchus of Thessalonica, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arrived at Sidon: and Iulius comendently increased Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched & sailed hard by Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Samophrasia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lyca.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sailing into Italle, and put vs therein.

7 And when wee had sailed slowly many dayes, and scarce were come against Sidon, because the winde suffered vs not, we sailed hard by Candie, nere to Sidon.

8 And with much adoe sailed beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the faire hauens, nere vnto the which was the cite Lasea.

9 So when much time was spent, and sayling was now tedious, because also the fall was now passed, Paul exhorted them,

10 And sayd vnto them, Syrs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Wherefore the Centurion beleued rather the gouernour and the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul,

12 And because the haue was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any means they might attaine to Phenice, there to winter, which is an haue of Candie, and keth toward the South-west and by Celtis, and South-west and by Celtis.

13 And when the southerne wind blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, looked neerer, and sailed by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie wind called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the wind, weele her got, and were carryed away.

16 And wee ranne vnder a little Ile named Claudia, and had much adoe to get the boate, 17 which they tooke vp and vnder all helpe, vndergirding the shippe, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Syres, and they let downe the vessel, and so were carryed.

18 The next day when wee were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lightened the ship.

19 And the third day wee cast out with our owne hands the racking of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne nor sterres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that wee should be saved, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the middes of them, and said, Syrs, ye should haue hearkened to mee, and not haue looked from Candie: so should ye haue gained this hurt and losse.

22 But now I exhort you to bee of good courage: for there shall bee no losse of any mans life among you, save of the shippe onely.

23 For there stood by mee this night the Angel of the Lord, whose I am, and whom I serue.

24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou shalt be brought before Cæsar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto thee all that saile with thee.

25 Wherefore, syrs, be of good courage: for I beleue God, that it shall bee so as it hath bene tolde me.

26 Howbeit, ye must be cast into a certaine Iland.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as wee were carryed to and fro in the Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey approached vnto them,

28 And sounded, and found it twentie fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded againe and found fifteene fathoms.

29 Then fearing least they should haue fallen into some rocks, they cast foure anchors out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

30 Some as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, and had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast anchors out of the fore-shippe,

31 Paul said vnto the Centurion, and the souldiers, Except they abide in the shippe, I cannot be safe, 32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boate, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that ye haue tarried, and continued = fasting, receiuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meate: for this is for your sake: for ye shall not = an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thanks to God, in presence of them all, and brake it and began to eat.

f That is, ye should haue feared the losse by any thing the danger.

c Which was an high hill of Candie, bowing to the seaward.

d This Fall the Jewes obserued about the month of October in the feast of their expiation, Leuit. 23. 37. So that Paul thought it better to winter there, then to saile in the deepe of winter which was at hand.

e That is, the Northeast wind or euryblast wind that is furious and stormy.

f This yle was west and by South is Candie straight toward the gulfes Syres, which were certaine boying lands that swallowed up all that they caught.

36 When were they all of good courage, and they also made meat.

37 Show we were in the shippe in all two hundred to the scope and streene soules.

38 And when they had eaten enough they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the country, but they spied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.

40 So when they had taken up the anchors, they committed the shippe unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bonds, and boyled up the maine saile to the winde, and drew to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place where two seas met, they thrust in the ship, and the forepart stuck fast, and could not be moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the souldiers counsell was to kill the prisoners: least any of them when he had swumme out, should flee away.

43 But the Centurion willing to save Paul, stayed them from this counsell, and commanded that they that could swimme, should cast themselves first into the sea, and goe out to land:

44 And the other some on boards, and some on certaine pieces of the shippe: and so it came to passe, that they came all safe to land.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Paul with his company are gently entreated of the barbarous people. 2 The viper hurteth him not.

3 He beareth Paulus father and others, and being furnished by them of things meet for, he saied toward Rome. 4 Where being recoured of the brethren, he declared his business, 5 And there preached he two yeeres.

And when they were come safe, then they knew that the yle was called Delos.

2 And the Barbarians forsooke vs no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received vs every one, because of the present shewe, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of stickes, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and leapt on his hand.

4 Now when the Barbarians saw the voyne hang on his hand, they said among themselves, This man surely is a murderer, whom, though he had escaped the sea, yet vengeance hath not suffered to live.

5 But hee shook off the voyne into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they waited when he should haue swollen, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no inconvenience come to him, they changed their minds, and said, That he was a God.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefe man of the yle (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same recieued vs, and lodged by three dayes courteously.

8 And so it was that the father of Publius by sick of the fever, and of a bloody flux, to whom Paul entered in, and when hee prayed, hee layd his hands on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the yle, which had distempers, came to him and were healed.

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when wee departed they laden vs with things necessary.

11 From after these monthes we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the yle, whose badger was Castor and Pollux.

12 And when wee arrived at Syracuse we tarried there three dayes.

13 And from thence we fet a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the South wind blew, and we came the second day to Puteoli.

14 Whither we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven daies, and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meet vs at the Market of Appius, and at the thirde Taverna, whom when Paul saw, hee thanked God, and was glad both.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion delivered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himselfe with a souldier that kept him.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, hee sayd unto them, Men, and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Altho when they had examined mee, would have let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrary, I was constrained to appeale unto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you and to speake with you: for the hope of Israel sake, I stand bound with this chaine.

21 Then they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Iudaea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewen us any euill of thee.

22 But wee will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, wee knowe that every where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many unto him into his lodging, to whom hee expounded and testified the kingdom of God, and preached unto them concerning Iesus both out of the Law of Moses, and out of the Prophetes from morning to night.

24 And some were perswaded with the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 The first when they agreed not among them.

e These the Poenims fained to be Jupiters children and gods of the sea.

f These places were distant from Rome a dayes iourney, or thereabout.

g No doubt the captaine understood both by Festus letters, and also by the report of the vndercaptaine, that Paul had committed no fault.

h That is, for Iesus Christs cause whom they had long looked for, as he that should be the Redeemer of the world.

i That this kingdom, which was spoken of by the Prophetes, was offered vnto them by the coming of Christ.

10 Alwayes in my prayer, beseeching star by Ionic means one time or other I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you.
 11 * For I long to see you, that I might bestow among you some spirittuall gift, to strengthen you.
 12 * That is, that I might bee comforted together with you, through our mutual faith both yours and mine.
 13 Now my brethren, I would that yee should not bee ignorant, how that I have oftentimes purposed to come unto you (but have bene * see hitherto) that I might have some * fruit also among you, as I have among the other Gentiles.
 14 I am debarr'd both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise men, and to the unwise.
 15 Therefore as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you also that are at Rome.
 16 For I am not ashamed * of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the * power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth, to the Jew first, and also to the Grekian.
 17 For by it the righteousness of * God is revealed from faith to faith: as it is written,
 * The just shall live by faith.
 18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all * ungodliness, and unrighteousness of men, which withhold the truth * in unrighteousness.
 19 For as much as that, which may be known of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it unto them.
 20 For the invisible things of him, that is, his eternal power and Godhead, are seen by the creation of the world, being considered in his * works, so the things that they should be without excuse.
 21 * Because that when they knew God, they * glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darkness.
 22 * When they professed themselves to be wise, they became fools.
 23 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birds and four footed beasts, and of creeping things.
 24 Therefore also God * gave them up to their heathen lusts, unto uncleanness, to desire their owne bodies betweene themselves:
 25 Which turned the truth of God unto a lie, and worshipped and served the creature, * forsaking the Creator, which is blest-ed for ever, Amen.
 26 For this cause God gave them up to vile affections: for even their women did use as he prescribed, but after their good intentions. x Or delivered them as a full Judge. y Seeing men would not according to the knowledge that God gave them, worship him aright, hee leaving their hearts with blindness that they should not know themselves, but did in vice one to another, and commit such horrible villas. For, as the Creator.

change the natural order that which is against nature.
 27 And likewise also the men left the natural order of the woman, and burned in their
 * lust one toward another, and man with man wrought filthiness, and received in themselves the recompence of their scrow, as was meet.
 28 For as they regarded not to know God, even so God delivered them up into a * reprobate minde, to do those things which are not convenient.
 29 Being full of all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, malice, unchastity, full of envie, of murder, of debate, of deceit, taking all things in the evil part,
 whippers, &c.
 30 Backbiters, haters of God, doers of wrong, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, such as can neither be apprehended, nor mercies.
 31 Which men, though they knew the * Law of God, how that they which commit such things, are worthy of death, yet not only doe the same, but also * favour them that doe them.
 CHAP. II.
 1 He sheweth the hypocrites with Gods judgment,
 2 And comforteth the faithful, 3 To beate down all vaine pretences of ignorance, holiness, and of assistance with God, hee prooveth all men to be sinners, 4 The Gentiles by their consciences, 5 The Jewes by the Law written.
 Therefore thou art excusable, O man, who knowest thou art that * I judge: for in that that thou judgest another, thou con-demnest * thy selfe: for thou that judgest, dost the same things.
 2 But we know that the judgement of God is according to * truth, against them which commit such things.
 3 And thinkest thou this, O thou man, that judgest them which doe such things, and dost the same, that thou shalt escape the judgement of God?
 4 O despisest thou the riches of his bountifullness, and * patience, and long sufferance, not knowing that the bountifullness of God leadeth thee to repentance?
 5 But thou after thine hardness, and heart that cannot repent, * heapest unto thy selfe wrath against the day of * wrath, and of the declaration of the iust judgement of God.
 6 * Who will reward every man according to his * works:
 7 Therefore to them which by continuance in well doing seek glory, and honour, and immortality, eternal life:
 8 But unto them that are contentious, and disobey the truth, and obey unrighteousnes, shall be indignation and wrath.
 be justified by their works: seeing Abraham the father of believers hath nothing to glory of in for God, and therefore all men who shall condemn him, and they only shall be saved, which appeared Iesus Christ by faith to be their only saviour and justification.

o In the inward man and heart.

9 Tribulation and anguish shall be upon the soul of every man that doeth null: of the Jew first, and also of the Grecian.

10 But to every man that doth good, shall be glory, and honour, and peace, to the Jewe first, and also to the Grecian.

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without the Law, shall perished without the Law: and as many as have sinned in the Law, shall be judged by the Law.

13 (* For the hearers of the Law are not righteous before God: but the doers of the Law shall be justified.)

14 For when the Gentiles which have not the Law, do by nature the things contained in the Law, they having not the Law, are a Law unto themselves,

15 Which shew the effect of the Lawe written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts accusing one another, or excusing.)

16 At the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my Gospel.

17 (* Behold, thou art called a Jewe, and rekest in the Law, and * gloriest in God,

18 And knowest his will, and * allowest the things that are excellent, in that thou art instructed by the Law:

19 And perswadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 An instructor of them which lacke direction, a teacher of the unlearned, which hast the * forme of knowledge, and of the truth in the Law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe: thou that preachest, a man should not strale, dost thou steale?

22 Thou that sayest, A man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery: thou that abhorrest idoles, committest thou sacrifice?

23 Thou that gloriest in the Lawe, through breaking the Lawe, dishonourest thou God?

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, * as it is written.

25 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou doe the Law: but if thou be a transgressor of the Law, thy * circumcision is made unprofitable.

26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the Law, shall not his uncircumcision bee counted for circumcision.

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature (if it keepe the Law) * iudge thee, which by the * letter and circumcision are a transgression of the Law?

28 For hee is not a Jew which is one outward: neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jewe which is one within and the * circumcision is of the heart: in the * spirit, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

3 Having granted some prerogatives to the Lawe, because of Gods free and stable promise, 10 he prevaileth by the Scriptures, both Jewes and Gentiles to bee saved, 21. 24. and to be justified by grace through faith, and not by works, 31. and faith. Law is broken, established.

What is then the preferment of the Jewe? or what is the profit of circumcision?

2 Such every manner of way: for chiefly, because unto them were committed the || oracles of God.

3 For what though some did not beleene: shall their * unbelieve make the || faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be * true, and * every man a liar, as it is written, * That thou mightest bee * justified in thy wordes, and overcome when thou art iudged.

5 Now if * our unrighteousnesse commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous which punisheth? (I speake * as a man)

6 God forbid: else how shall God iudge the world?

7 For if the verities of God hath more * abounded through my lie, unto his glory, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And (as we are blamed, and as some ascribe that we say) why doe wee not cull, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? * are wee more excellent? No, in no wise: for we have already prooued that all, both Jewes and Gentiles are * under sinne.

10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none, that understandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

12 They have all gone out of the way: they have bene made altogether unprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 * Their throat is an open sepulchre: they have used their tongues to deceit: * the poison of aspes is under their lips.

14 * All their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.

15 * Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and calamitie are in their wayes.

17 And the * way of peace they have not knownen.

18 * The feare of God is not before their eyes.

19 Now wee know that whatsoever the * Law saith, it is faith to them which are under the Law, that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world bee * culpable before God.

20 * Therefore by the workes of the * Law shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the Law cometh the knowledge of sinne.

21 The Law doeth not make vs guiltie, but doth declare that we are guiltie before God, and deserveth condemnation. Gal. 3. 16. h He meaneth the Law, either written, or voucheth which commandeth or forbiddeth any thing, whose works cannot iustifie, because we cannot performe them.

Chap. 17.

The word signifies them which are left behind in the net and are not able to runne to the mark, that is, to see talking life, which here is called the glory of God.

Or he that is in performing his promise.

The Law of faith is the Gospel, which of itself salvation without condition (if thou believest) which condition also Christ freely gave to vs, in the condition of the Law is (if thou dost all due things) the which only Christ hath fulfilled for vs.

Meaning, that they were all justified by one name, and if they will have any difference, it only standeth in words: for in effect there is none.

The doctrine of faith is the ornament of the Law: for it embraceth Christ, who by his death hath satisfied the Law: so that the Law which could not bring vs to salvation by reason of our owne corruption, is now made effectually to vs by Christ Iesus.

21 But now is the righteousness of God made manifest without the Law, having witness of the Law and of the Prophets.

22 To wit, the righteousness of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, unto all, and upon all that beleieve.

23 For there is no difference: for all have sinned, and are deprived of the glory of God.

24 And are justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus.

25 Whom God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness, by the forgiveness of the sinnes that are passed, through the patience of God.

26 To shew at this time his righteousness, that he might be just, and a justifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.

27 Where is then the glorying? It is excluded. By what Law? of works? Nay: but by the Law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is justified by faith without the works of the Law.

29 God, is he the God of the Iewes only, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, even of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God who shall justify circumcision of faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Doe we then make the Law of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the Law.

17 He declareth that justification is a free gift, given by them themselves of whom the Lawes must be kept, as of Abraham and of David, 15 And also by the office of the Law and faith.

CHAP. IIII.

17 He declareth that justification is a free gift, given by them themselves of whom the Lawes must be kept, as of Abraham and of David, 15 And also by the office of the Law and faith.

What shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath found concerning the flesh?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, hee hath wherein to glory, but not with God.

3 For what saith the Scripture? "Abraham beleaved God, and it was counted to him for righteousness."

4 Now to him that worketh, the wages is not counted by favour, but by debt.

5 Went to him that worketh not, but beleeueth in him that is justified the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David declareth the blessednesse of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, saying,

7 "Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sinnes are covered."

8 Blessed is the man, to whom the Lord imputeth not sinne.

9 Came this blessednesse then upon the circumcision only, as upon the uncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed unto Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or uncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was uncircumcised.

11 After he received the signe of circumcision, as the steale of the righteousness of the faith which he had, when he was uncircumcised, that he should be the father of all them that beleeve, not being circumcised, righteousness might be imputed to them also.

12 And the father of circumcision, not unto them only which are of the circumcision, but unto them also that walke in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was uncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the father of the world, was not given to Abraham, as to his seed through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the Law be blessed, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect.

15 For the Law causeth wrath: for where no Law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might be sure to all the seed, not to that only which is of the Law: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all.

17 (As it is written, "I have made thee a father of many nations") even before God whom hee beleeveth, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not, as though they were.

18 Which Abraham about hope beleaved under hope, that he should be the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken to him, "So shall thy seed be."

19 And he was not weak in the faith, considering not his owne body, which was now dead, being almost an hundred yeeres old, neither the deadnesse of Saras wombe.

20 Neither did he doubt of the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in the faith, and gave glory to God.

21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to doe it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now it is not written for him only, that it was imputed unto him for righteousness.

24 But also for vs, to whom it shall be imputed for righteousness, which beleieve in him that called by Iesus our Lord from the dead.

25 Altho was delivered to death, for our sinnes, and is risen againe for our justification.

15. What then? shall wee sinne, because we are not vnder the Law, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16. Know ye not, that to whomsoever ye giue your selues as seruants to obey, his seruants ye are to whom ye obey, whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of obedience vnto righteousness?

17. But God be thanked, that ye haue bin the seruants of sin: but ye haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, wherunto ye were deliuered.

18. Being then made free from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousness.

19. I speake after the manner of man, because of the infirmities of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to uncleannes and to iniquity, to commit iniquity, so now giue your members seruants vnto righteousness in holinesse.

20. For when ye were the seruants of sin, ye were freed from righteousness.

21. What fruite had ye then in those things, wherof ye are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

22. But now being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, ye haue your fruite in holinesse, and the end euermolting life.

23. For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1. 9. 13. The use of the Law. 6. 24. and how Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmity of the fleshful. 23 The dangerous fight betwene the flesh and the spirit.

Know ye not brethren (for I speake to them that know the Lawe) that the Law hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2. For the woman which is in subjection to a man, is bound by the Law to the man while hee liueth: but if the man be dead, shee is deliuered from the law of the man.

3. So then, if while the man liueth, shee take another man, shee shall be called an adulteresse: but if the man be dead, shee is free from the Law, so that shee is not an adulteresse, though she take another man.

4. So ye, my brethren, are dead also to the Law, by the body of Christ, that ye should be vnto another, euen vnto him that is raised vp from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit vnto God.

5. For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sinnes, which were by the law, had fruit in our members, to bring forth death vnto death.

6. But now we are deliuered from the Lawe, being dead vnto it, wherein wee were holden, that wee should be free in righteousness of spirit, and not in the olde lawe of the letter.

7. What shall wee say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the law: for I had not knowne I lust, except the Law had said, Thou shalt not lust.

8. But sinne tooke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in mee all manner of concupiscence: for without the law sinne is dead.

9. But I once was alive without the law: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued.

10. But I died: and the same commandement which was ordained vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11. For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceiued mee, and thereby slew me.

12. Wherefore the Law is holy, and the Commandement is holy, and iust, and good.

13. Was then that which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might appeare sinne, wrought death in mee by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinfull by the commandement.

14. For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnall, sold vnder sinne.

15. For I allow not that which I do: for what I would, that doe I not: but what I hate, that doe I.

16. If I do then that which I would not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

17. Now then it is no more I, that doe it: but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18. For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with mee: but I finde no means to performe that which is good.

19. For I do not the good thing which I would, but the euill, which I would not, that doe I.

20. Now if I doe that I would not, it is no more I that doe it, but the sin that dwelleth in me.

21. I finde then by the Law, that when I would doe good, euill is present with me.

22. For I delight in the Law of God, concerning the better man.

23. But I see another Law in my members, rebelling against the Law of my minde, and leading mee captive vnto the Law of sinne, which is in my members.

24. O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer mee from the body of this death?

25. I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lord. When I say this in my minde, I see the Law of God: but in my flesh the law of sinne.

a Meaning, to sinne our nix husband.

f There is nothing more enemie to sinne, then the Law: if it be therefore that sinne rage more by reason thereof, then before, why should it be imputed to the Law which discloseth the sleights of sinne her enemy.

g Which is an inward vice not openly knowne.

h Thus saith the Law.

i Sinne being disclosed by the law, is so much more detestable, because it turneth the goodness of the law to our destruction.

eff. & which hee causeth in vs, when hee propoeth vs saluation by the law, with an impossible condition, who also doth seale our saluation in our hearts by Christs free adoption, that we consider not God now as a rigorous Lord, but as a most mercifull Father, Gal. 4. 5, 6. 1 So that we haue two winges, Gods Spirit, and ours, who is certified by the Spirit of God.

NOW then there is no condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not after the flesh, but after the spirit,

2 For the Law of the Spirit of life, which is in Christ Iesus, hath freed mee from the law of sinne and of death.

3 For (that that was impossible to the Law, in as much as it was weak, because of the flesh) God sendeth his owne Sonne, in the similitude of sinfull flesh, and for sinne, condemned linne in the flesh,

4 That he might righteouslie of the Law, might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, labour the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wisdom of the flesh is death: but the wisdom of the Spirit is life and peace.

7 Because the wisdom of the flesh, is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the Law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 Now ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sinne: but the Spirit is life for righteousness sake.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortal bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, we are debtors not to the flesh, to live after the flesh:

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye mortifie the deeds of the body by the Spirit, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not received the Spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye haue receiued the Spirit of adoption, whereby wee cry Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirit beareth witness with our Spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 If we be children, we are also heires, in freely made even the heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ, if so be that we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time, are not || worthy of the glory which shall be shewed vnto vs.

16 For the fervent desire of the creature waited when the sounes of God shall be revealed.

20 Because the creature is subject to banitic, not of it owne will, but by reason of him which hath subdued it vnder hope.

21 Because the creature also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the sonnes of God.

22 For wee know that every creature groweth with vs also, and travaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the first fruites of the Spirit, euen we do sigh in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the redemption of our body.

24 For wee are saued by hope: but hope that is true, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, we doe with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for wee know not what to pray as we ought: but the Spirit it self maketh request for vs with sighes, which cannot be expressed.

27 But he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for he maketh request for the Saints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he knoweth before, hee also predestinated to be made like to the image of his Son, that he might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreover, whom hee predestinated, them also hee called, & whom hee called, them also hee iustificed, and whom hee iustificed, them hee also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gave him for vs all to death, how shall he not with him giue vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? It is God that iustificeth.

34 Who shall condemne? It is Christ which is dead, yea, or rather which is risen againe, who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, For thy sake are we killed

25 As he saith also in Hose, I will call them my people, which were not my people;
and her. Beloued, which was not beloued.

26 And it shall be in the place whereto was said unto them, Ye are not my people, that there they shall be called, The children of the living God.

27 Alas Clalas crier concerning Israel, I thought the number of the children of Israel were as the sand of the sea, yet shall but a remnant be saved.

28 For hee will make his account, and gather it into a short summe with righteou-nesse: for the Lord will make a short count in the earth.

29 And as Clalas said before, Except the Lord of hostes had left vs a seed, wee had been made as Sodom, and had been like to Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not righteousness, haue attained unto righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.

31 But Israel which followed the Law of righteousness, could not attaine unto the Law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the Law: for they have stumbled at the stub-bling stone,

33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling stone, and a rock to make men fall: and every one that believeth in him, shall not be ashamed.

b The end of the Law is to iustifie them which observe it: therefore Christ hauing fulfilled it for vs, is made our iustice, sanctification, &c. Rom. 10. 5. Gal. 3. 12.

c Because wee cannot performe the Law, it maketh vs to doubt who shall go to heauen, and to say, Who shall ge downe to the deepe to deliuer vs thence; but faith teacheth vs, that Christ is ascended vp to take vs with him, & hath descended into the depth of death to destroy death, and deliuer vs, Dem. 33. 13. f Or, the commendation.

1 Jo. 1. 12. 18. f Meaning the Gospel, and the good tidings of saluation, which they preached, g That is, by Gods commandment, of whom they are sent that preach the Gospel. It may be also taken for the very preaching it selfe, h Both the Iewes and Gentiles. Psal. 19. 4. i The Hebrew word signifieth the line or proportion of the heauens, whose most excellen frame, besides the rest of Gods creatures, preacheth vnto the whole world, and setteth forth the worthinesse of the Creator.

2 For I heare them record, that they haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of the righteousnesse of God, and going about to iustifie their owne righteousness, haue not submitted themselves to the righteousnesse of God.

4 For Christ is the ende of the Law for righteousness vnto every one that beleeueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousness which is of the Law, * That the man which doth these things, shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith, sheweth on this wise, * Say not in thine heart, What shall ascend into heauen: (that is to bring Christ from above.)

7 Or, What shall descend into the deepe: (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what sayeth it? * The worde is neere thee, even in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is the word of faith which we preach.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt beleeue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man beleeueth vnto righteousness, and with the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saith, * Whosoever beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betwene the Iew and the Grecian: for hee that is Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all, that call on him.

13 * For whosoever shall call vpon the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

14 But how shall they call on him, in whom they haue not beleeued? and how shall they beleeue in him, of whom they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, * How beautiful are the feet of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Elias saith, * Lord, who hath beleeued our report?

17 Then faith is by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I demand, haue they not heard? * No doubt they found went out through all the earth, and their wordes into the ends of the world.

19 But I demand, Did not Israel know God? First Moses saith, * I will prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 * And Elias is bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, * All the day long haue I stretched forth mine hand vnto all disobedient and gaine saying people.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hath his Church, although he be not seene to many eyes. 5 The grace sheweth to the elect. 7 The judgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, and renewed himselfe to the Gentiles. 18 Whom he warneth to humble themselves. 29 The gifts of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods judgement.

I demand then, hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which hee knew before. Know ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he earnestly request vnto God against Israel, saying,

3 Lord they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seeke my life?

4 But what saith the answer of God to him? * I haue reserved vnto my selfe seven thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Turne to then at this present time is there a remnant through the election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of works: or else grace were no more grace: but if it be of works, it is no more grace: or else were works no more works.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that hee sought: but the election hath obtained it, and the rest haue bene hardened.

8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of slumber: eyes that they should not see, and eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And David saith, * Let their table be made a snare, and a net, and a stumbling block, euen for a recompence vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not: let bow downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demand then, haue they stumbled, that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation cometh vnto the Gentiles, to y prouoke them to fellow ship.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the world; and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles: how much more shall their abundance be?

13 For in that I speak to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office, to heretofore, g The Iewes to follow the Gentiles, h In that the Gentiles haue the knowledge of the Gospel.

1 The obedience to the rulers. 4 Why they have the sword. 8 Charity ought to motivate all our doings. 11 An exhortation to innocency and purity of life.

Let every soule be subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God: and the powers that be, are ordeined of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receiue to themselves iudge-ment.

3 For princes are not to bee feared for good works, but for euill. Albeit thou thou be without feare of the power: doe well: so shalt thou haue praye of the same.

4 For hee is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou dost euill, feare: for hee beareth not the sword for nought: for hee is the minister of God to take vengeance on him that doth euill.

5 Wherefore ye must bee subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause ye pay also tribute:
for they are Gods ministers, applying themselues for the same thing.

7 * Giue to all men therefore their duty: tribute, to whom ye owe tribute: custom, to whom custom: feare, to whom feare: honor, to whom ye owe honour.

8 Due nothing to any man: but to loue one another: for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the Law.

9 For this, * Thou shalt not commit adultery, * Thou shalt not kill, * Thou shalt not steale, * Thou shalt not beare false wit-nesse, * Thou shalt not couet: and if there bee any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, * In this, *
* Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy self.

10 Loue doeth not euill to his neighbour: therefore is loue the fulfilling of the Law.

11 And that considering the season, that is now time that wee should arise from sleep: for now is our saluation: neuer the when we sleepe.

12 The night is past, and the day is at hand: let vs therefore cast away the works of darkness, and let vs put on the armour of light.

13 So that wee walke honestly, as in the day: not in * gluttonie and drunkenness, neither in chambering and wantonnesse, nor in strife and enuy.

14 * But put yee on the Lord IESVS of might, and take no thought for the flesh, to satisfie the lusts of it.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The weak ought not to be despised. 10 No man should offend another's conscience. 15 But as to support another in charity and faith.

Hi that is weak in the faith, receiue vnto you, but not for controuersies of disputations.

2 One beleueth that hee may eate of all things: and another, which is weak, eateth
herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not iudge him that eateth: for God hath re-ceined him.

4 * Altho are thou that condemnest another mans seruant: bee standeth of sal-tery to his owne maker: yea, hee shall bee established: for God is able to make him stand.

5 This man esteemeth one day above another day, and another man counteth every day alike: let euery man be fully perswaded in his minde.

6 * Whoeueth obserueth the day, obserueth
it to the Lord: and hee that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lord. *
* Whoeueth eateth, eateth to the Lord: for hee giueth God thanks: and he that eateth not,
* eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God
thanks.

7 For none of vs sheweth to himselfe, neither doth any die to himselfe.

8 For whether wee liue, wee liue vnto the Lord: or whether wee die, wee die vnto the Lord: whether wee liue therefore, or die, wee are the Lords.

9 For Christ therefore died, and rose again, and crucified, that he might bee Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother? or why dost thou despise thy brother?
* For wee shall all appeare before the iudge-ment seate of Christ.

11 For it is written, * I will, saith the Lord, and euery knee shall bow to mee, and all tongues shall confesse vnto God.

12 Soe albe it in the Law they were not: next, that hee reprooueth the condemning of the act, but of the persons: thirdly, that he meaneth not the stubborn and malicious, whom hee calleth dogs and concubines, but the weak and infirme, to whom God as yet had not revealed the perfect liberty. i Both our life & death ought to 12 So then every one of us shall give ac-

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vske your iudgement rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before his brother.

14 I know, and am perswaded through the Lord Iesus, that there is nothing uncleane of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to bee vncleane, to him it is uncleane.

15 But if thy brother bee grieved for the meate, now walkest thou not charitably:
destroy not him with thy meate, for whom Christ dyed.

16 Cause not your commoditie to be re-uill spoken of.

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat nor drinke, but rightcounles, and peace, and loy in the holy Ghost.

18 For whosoever in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable to God, and is approved of men.

19 Let vs then follow those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: all things indere are pure:
but it is euill for the man which eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eate flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing wherewith thy brother stumbleth or is offended, or made weake.

22 Wast thou faith? haue it with thy selfe before God: blessed is he that condemneth not himselfe in that which he alloweth.

23 For he that doubteth, is condemned if hee eate, because hee eateth not of faith: and whatsoever is not of faith is sinne.

CHAP. XV.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ. 9 and by the only mercia of God, which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 14 Hee sheweth his scale toward them and the Church. 30 And requesteth the same of them.

Which are strong ought to beare
the infirmities of the weak, and not to please our selves.

2 Therefore let every man please his neighbour in that that is good to edification.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, * The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, sell * on me.

14 For whatsaue things are written against him, are written for our learning, that we through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures, might haue hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation give you that yet be like minded one toward another, according to Christ Iesus.

6 That ye wish one mind, and with one mouth may praise God, our Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Therefore, receive pee one another, as Christ also received vs to the glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision, for the true-ty of God: to confirme the promises made vnto
the Fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercy, as it is written, * For this cause I will confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe he sayeth, * Reioyce, ye
Gentiles, with his people.

11 And againe, * Praise the Lord all ye Gentiles, and laud ye him all people together.

12 And againe Elias saith, * There shall be a root of Iesse, and a herbar shall rise to reigne ouer the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all loy, and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Rememberlesse brethren, I haue somewhat boldly after a lost written vnto you,
as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is given mee of God.

16 That I should be the minister of Ie-sus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministering the Gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might bee acceptable, bringing sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore wherof I may re-ioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not speake of any thing which Christ hath not wrought by mee, to make the Gentiles obedient in word and deed,

19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: so that from Ierusalem, and round about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preach

lest I should haue built on another mans foundation,

21 But as it is written, * To whom hee was not spoken of, they shall see him, and they that heard not, shall understand him.

22 Therefore also I haue bene * of set

23 But now seeing I haue no more place

sirous many yeares agone to come vnto

of darkness, and let vs put on the armour of

CHAP. XIII.

1 The weak ought not to be despised. 10 No man should offend anothers conscience. 15 But one so support another in charity and faith.

H In that is weak in the faith, receiue vnto you, but not for controuersies of disputations.

2 One belieueth that hee may eate of all things: and another, which is weak, eateth
herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him
that eateth not: and let not him which eateth
not iudge him that eateth: for God hath re-ceiued him.

4 Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? hee standeth or faile-th to his owne master: yea, hee shall bee established: for God is able to make him
stand.

5 This man esteemeth one day about another day: and another man counteth euery day alike: let euery man be fully persuaded in his mind.

6 Whoeueth obserueth the day, obserueth
it to the Lord: and hee that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lord. Whoe-ueth eateth, eateth to the Lord: for hee giueth God thanks: and he that eateth not,
eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God
thanks.

7 For none of vs liveth to himselfe, neither doth any die to himselfe.

8 For whether wee liue, wee liue vnto the Lord: or whether wee die, wee die vnto the Lord: whether wee liue therefore, or die, wee are to the Lords.

9 For Christ therefore died, and rose again, and reuiued, that he might bee Lord both of the dead and the liuing.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother? or why dost thou despise thy brother?
For we shall all appeare before the iudge-ment seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, I will line, saith the Lord, and euery knee shall bow to mee, and all tongues shall confesse vnto God.

12 So then every one of vs shall giue accounts of himselfe to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vse your iudgement rather in this: that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before his brother.

14 I know, and am perswaded through the Lord Iesus, that there is nothing unclean of it selfe: but unto him that iudgeth any thing to bee uncleane, to him it is uncleane.

15 But if thy brother bee grieved for the meate, now walke thou not charitably:
* bestrow not him with thy meate, for whom Christ dyed.

16 Canst thou not be a commoditie to be euill spoken of.

17 For the kingdom of God is not meate nor drinke, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the holy Ghost.

18 For whosoever is in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable to God, and is approved of men.

19 Let vs then follow those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may ed-
ifie another.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: * all things indeede are pure:
but it is euill for the man which eateth with an offence.

21 It is good neither to eate flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing wherby thy brother stumbleth or is offended, or made weake.

22 Hast thou a faith? haue it with thy selfe before God: blessed is he that condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.

23 For he that doubteth, is condemned if he eate, because hee eateth not of faith: and wharsoeuer is not of faith is sinne.

CHAP. XV.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ. 9 and by the onely mercy of God, which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 14 Hee sheweth his zeale toward them and the Church. 30 And requesteth the same of them.

W^hich are strong ought to beare
the infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selves.

2 Therefore let every man please his neighbour in that that is good to edification.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, * The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, fell ^{on} me.

14 For wharsoeuer things are written against time, are written for our learning, that wee through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures, might haue hope.

5 Now the God of patience and con-

salation giue you that yet be * like minded

Iesus,

6 That ye wish one another, and with one mouth may praise God, turn the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore, receive ye one another, as Christ also received vs to the glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision, for the truth of God: to confirme the promises made unto the Fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercy, as it is written, * of this cause I will confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy Name.

10 And againe he saith, * Reioyce, ye
Gentiles, with his people.

11 And againe, * Praise the Lord all ye Gentiles, and laud ye him all people together.

12 And againe Petrus saith, * There shall be a root of Jesse, and hee shall rise to reigne over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all
loy, and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And if my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodnesse, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Remember these brethren, I haue come

as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen mee of God.

16 That I should be the minister of Ie-sus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministering
the Gospel of God: that the offering up of the Gentiles might bee acceptable: being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore wherof I may re-ioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not ¹ speake of any thing which Christ hath not wrought by mee, to make the Gentiles obedient in word and deed.

19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: so that from Ierusalem, and round about unto Ilyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Pea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should haue built on another mans
foundation.

21 But as it is written, * To whom hee was not spoken of, they shall see him, and they
that heard not, shall understand him.

22 Wherefore also I haue bene * offeet to come unto you.

23 But now seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue * becme desirous many yeeres agone to come unto you,

24 When I shall take my Iourney into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust

The first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that Saint Paul had preached at Corinth a yeere and a halfe, hee was compelled by the wickednes of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glorie, and affected eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions in policies and ceremonies, they fell to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doubt the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian Religion. Against these evils the Apostle proceeded, preparing the Corinthians hearts, and eares with gentle salutations: but soon after he reprooeth their contentions and debates, their arrogance and pride, and exhorteth them to concord and humilitie, setting before their eyes the spiritual vertue, and heavenly wisdome of the Gospel, which cannot be persuaded by worldly wit and eloquent reasons, but is revealed by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this salutation may not be attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue received charge to edifie his Church: wherein Saint Paul behaued himselfe skillfully, building according to the foundation (which is in Christ) and exhorteth others to make the end proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heed that they bee not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the temple of God. And as for those which doubted of his Apostleship, he sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit he hath declared by manifest signes that he neuer sought his owne glory, neither yet now he might liue, but onely the glory of Christ: which thing at his coming he would declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine-glorious braggers, who sought themselves onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreproved and unpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before Infidels, fornication, and such like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, he answereth to certaine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duty of marriage, of discord and dissention among the married, of virginie, and second marriage. And because some thought it nothing to be present at idole seruice, seeing in their heart they worshipped the true God, hee warneth them to haue respect to their weaker brethren, whose faith by that dissembling was hindered, and their consciences wounded, which thing rather then he would doe, he would neuer vie that libertie, which God had given him. But forasmuch as pride, and selfe will was the cause of those great evils, he admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glory in these outward gifts, whose horrible punishment on the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to follow Christ vprightly, without all pollution and assistance of others. Then he correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behaviour of men, and women in their assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the Spiritual gifts, which God hath giuen to maintaine loue, and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all, he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ, and welldoing, tending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

3 He praiseth the great graces of God bestowed to ward them, 10 Exhorting them to concord and humilitie, 19 Hee beateh down all pride, and wisdom which is not grounded on God, 26 Shewing whom God hath befores to confound the wisdom of the world.

into together in one mind, and in one judgement.

11 For it hath bene declared unto mee, my brethren, of you, by them that are of the house of ¹ Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Nowe this I say, that euerie one of you sayeth, I am Pauls, and I am ² Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Christis.

13 Is Christ diuided? was Paul crucified for you? either were ye baptizd into the name of Paul?

14 I thank God, that I baptizd none of you, but ³ Crispus, and ⁴ Gaius.

15 Let any shoud say, that I had baptizd into mine owne name.

16 I baptizd also the household of Stephanas: but ye knowe I not whether I baptizd any other.

17 For Christ leete mee not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not with ⁵ a wisdom of words, ⁶ lest the crosse of Christ should be made of one effect.

18 For the preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but unto vs which are saued, it is the ⁷ power of God.

19 For it is written, ⁸ I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will cast away the understanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the ⁹ scribe? where is the ¹⁰ disputer of this world? hath not God made the wisdom of this world foolishnesse?

21 For seeing the world by wisdom knew not God in the wisdom of God, it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching to saue them that beleeue:

22 Seeing also that the Iewes require a signe, and the Grecians seeke after wisdom.

23 But we preach Christ crucified: unto the Iewes, euen a stumbling block, and unto the Grecians foolishnesse:

24 But unto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grecians, we preach Christ, the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 For the ¹¹ foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weaknesse of God is stronger then men.

26 For brethren, you see your calling, how that not many wise men ¹² after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world, to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weak things of the world, to confound the mighty things.

28 And the things of the world, & things which are despised, hath God chosen, and things which are not, to bring to nought things ¹³ that are.

29 That no flesh should reioyce in his presence.

30 But ye are of him in Christ Jesus, whose body of flesh is made unto vs ¹⁴ wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption.

31 That according as it is written, ¹⁵ We that reioyce in the Lord, to God with thanksgiving.

CHAP. II.

1 He putteth for example his manner of preaching, which was according to the measure of the Gospel, 8 which Gospel was contemptible and hid to the carnall, 10 And against humourable and manifest to the spiritual.

And I, brethren, when I came to you, I came not with ¹⁶ excellencie of words, or of wisdom, shewing unto you the ¹⁷ testimony of God.

2 For I esteemed not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was among you in ¹⁸ weakness, and in ¹⁹ feare, and in much trembling.

4 Neither stood my word, and my preaching in the ²⁰ enticing speech of mans wisdom, but in plaine euident of ²¹ the Spirit and of power.

5 That your faith should not be in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wisdom among them that are ²² perfit: not the wisdom of this world, neither of the ²³ princes of this world, which come to nought.

7 But we speake the wisdom of God in a mystery, euen the ²⁴ hidden wisdom, which God hath determined before the world, unto our glory.

8 Which ²⁵ none of the Princes of this world hath known: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the ²⁶ Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, ²⁷ The things which eye hath not seene, neither eare heard, neither came into mans heart, are, which ²⁸ God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath crucified them unto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit ²⁹ searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the Spirit of a man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, save the Spirit of God.

12 Now we haue ³⁰ receiued not the Spirit of the world, but the Spirit, which is of God, that we might know the ³¹ things that are giuen to vs of God.

vnto carnall, even as vnto babes in Christ.
2 I gave you milke to drinke, and not meate: for ye were not yet able to beare it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you enuying, and strife, and dissensions, are ye not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 I was I Paul then, and who is Apo-los, but the ministers by whom ye believed, and as the Lord gave to every man?

6 I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase.

7 So then, neither is hee that planteth any thing, neither hee that watereth, but God that giueth the increase.

8 And he that planteth, and he that wa-tereth, are one, and every man shall receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For we together are Gods labourers: ye are Gods husbandry, and Gods buildings.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to mee, as a skillfull master builder, I have laide the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let every man take heed how he buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is laid, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if any man build on this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble,

13 Every mans worke shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire: and the fire shall reue every mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that he hath builde vpon abideth, he shall receiue a wage.

15 If any mans worke burne, hee shall lose it, but hee shall bee safe himselfe: neuer-theless hee shall be as though hee had burnt.

16 Know ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue himselfe. If any man among you seeme to be wise in this world, let him bee a foole, that hee may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foo-lishnesse with God: for it is written, Hee catcheth the wise in their owne craftinesse.

20 And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men:
for all things are yours.

22 Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death: whether they bee things present, or things to come, even all are yours,

1 After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him-selves one, 4 Hee appealeth to Gods iudgement, 7 Rebuke down their glory which hindered the message that was to be preached in him. 19 Hee saith, neither was hee that requirer on their part, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

Let a man so thinke of vs, as of the ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, that every man be found faith-full.

3 As touching me, I passe very little to be iudged of you, or of I mains iudgement:
no, I Iudge: not mine owne selfe.

4 For I know nothing by my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustificed: but hee that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore Iudge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkness, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall every man haue praise of God.

6 Now therefore, brethren, I haue figuratively applyed vnto mine owne selfe learne: by vs, that no man presume about that which is written, that one shall not

8 Now yet are full: now ye are made rich: yet cringe as kings without vs, and would to God, yet did cringe, that we also might cringe with you.

9 For I thinke that God hath set forth vs the last Apostles, as men appointed to death: for we are made a gaying stocke to the world, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christs sake, and ye are wile in Christ: we are weak, and ye strong: yet are honourable, and we are despised.

11 Unto this houre we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling place.

12 And labour, working with our owne hands: we are reviled, and yet we bless: we are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 We are as rail (spoken of), and we pray: we are made as the filth of the world, the out-casting of all things unto this tunc.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved children, I admonish you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the Gospel.

16 And therefore, I pray you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, which is my beloved sonne, and faithful in the Lord, which shall put you in remembrance of my wayes in Christ, as I teach every where in every Church.

18 Some are puffed up as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For the Kingdome of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rodde, or in love, and in the spirit of meeknesse?

It is heard certainly, that there is, fornication among you, and such fornication as is not once named among the Gentiles, that one should have his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather sorrowed, that he which hath done this deed, might be put from among you.

3 For I briefly as absent in body, but present in spirit, have determined already, as though I were present, that hee that hath thus done this thing,

8 Therefore let vs keepe the feast, not with old leaven, neither in the leaven of malicioussnesse and wickednesse: but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truerh.

9 I wrote unto you in an Epistle, that ye should not company together with fornicators.

10 And not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the contentious, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must goe out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you, that ye company not together: if any that is called a hypocrite, be a fornicator, or contentious, or an idolater, or a raider, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eat not.

12 For what have I to doe to judge them also, which are without? doe ye not judge them that are within?

CHAP. VIII.

1 He rebuketh them that use their libertie to the shames of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifice, 9 And sheweth how men ought to behave them toward such as be weak.

As touching things sacrificed unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge: knowledge puffeth up, but love edifieth.

2 Now, if any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, the same is known of him.

4 Concerning therefore meate sacrificed unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many lords)

6 Yet unto us there is but one God, which is the Father, of whom are all things, and wee in him: and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and wee by him.

7 But every man hath not knowledge: for some have a conscience of the idols, until this hour, eate as a thing sacrificed unto the idols, and so their conscience being awake, is distressed.

8 But meate made by us not acceptable to God: for neither if wee eate, have wee the shame: neither if wee eate not, have wee the lesse.

9 But take heed lest by any means this power of yours be an occasion of falling to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hath knowledge, sit at table in the idols temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak, be troubled to eate those things which are sacrificed to idols?

11 And though thy knowledge shall be to his weak brother perill, for whom Christ died.

12 Now when ye sinne so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

13 Wherefore if meate offend my brother, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

g Which eateth against his conscience, or in doubt. Rom. 14. 15.

23 Ye are bought with a price: bee not the servants of men.

25 Now concerning ye virgins, I have no commandement of the Lord: but I give mine advice, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose then this to be good for the present: necessitie: I mean, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgin marry, she sinneth not: neither herselfe, such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, hereafter that both they which have wives, bee as though they had none:

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not: and they that rejoyce, as though they rejoyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that use this world as though they used it not: for the fashion of this world goeth away.

32 And I would have you without care. Be unmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also betwene a virgin and a wife: the unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that shee may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, how shee may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your owne commoditie, not to tangle you in a snare, but that ye follow that which is honest, and that ye may cleave fast unto the Lord without separation.

36 But if any man thinketh that it is his commodity for his virginie, if hee passe the flower of her age, and neede so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them be married.

37 Nevertheless, he that standeth firme in his heart, that he hath no need, but hath power over his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that hee will keepe his virginie, he doth well.

38 So then bee that giuest her to marriage, doth well, but he that giuest her not to marriage, doth better.

39 The wife is bound by the Lord, as long as her husband is living: but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to marry whom she will, only in the Lord.

40 But shee is more blessed, if shee so abide, in my judgement: and I thinke that I have also the Spirit of God.

k And more commodious for his children in preferring them from cares. l Of matrimony. Rom. 7. 2. 1. Thes. 4. 3.

1 He rebuketh them that use their libertie to the shames of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifice, 9 And sheweth how men ought to behave them toward such as be weak.

As touching things sacrificed unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge: knowledge puffeth up, but love edifieth.

2 Now, if any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, the same is known of him.

4 Concerning therefore meate sacrificed unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many lords)

6 Yet unto us there is but one God, which is the Father, of whom are all things, and wee in him: and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and wee by him.

7 But every man hath not knowledge: for some have a conscience of the idols, until this hour, eate as a thing sacrificed unto the idols, and so their conscience being awake, is distressed.

8 But meate made by us not acceptable to God: for neither if wee eate, have wee the shame: neither if wee eate not, have wee the lesse.

9 But take heed lest by any means this power of yours be an occasion of falling to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hath knowledge, sit at table in the idols temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak, be troubled to eate those things which are sacrificed to idols?

11 And though thy knowledge shall be to his weak brother perill, for whom Christ died.

12 Now when ye sinne so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

13 Wherefore if meate offend my brother, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

CHAP. IX.

1 He exhorteth them by his example to use their liberty to the edification of others, 2 To runne on forth in the course that they have begunne.

1 AND I not an Apostle? am I not free? have I not sene Jesus Christ our Lord as ye not my worke in the Lord?

2 If I be not an Apostle unto other, yet doubtlesse I am unto you: for ye are the scale of mine Apostleship in the Lord.

3 Op defence to them that examine me, is this,

4 Wane were not power to eat, and to drinke?

5 O have we not power to leade about a wife being a sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 O I only and Barnabas, have not we power? not to worke?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost: who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruite thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Who I these things according to man? saith not the Law the same also?

9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ore that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take care for oxen?

10 Either saith hee it not altogether for our sakes: for our sakes no doubt it is written, that hee which eareth, should eare in hope: and that hee that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 If we have sowne unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reape your carnall things?

12 If others which you bee partakers of this power, are not we rather? needethess, we have not used this power: but I suffer all things that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know, that they which minister about the holy things, eat of the things of the Temple? and they which waite at the altar, are partakers with the altar?

14 So also hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Gospel, should live of the Gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my reproching vain.

16 For though I preach the Gospel, I have nothing to receive of it: yet needethess is layd upon mee, and worke is unto mee, if I preach not the Gospel.

17 For if I doe it willingly, I have a reward: but if I doe it against my will, notwithstanding the dispensation is committed unto me.

18 Et that is my reward: that I may be free from all men when I preach the Gospel. I make the Gospel of Christ free, that I abuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men yet have I made my selfe servant unto all men, that I might winne the more.

20 And unto the Jewes I become as a Jew, that I may winne the Jewes: to them that are under the Lawe, as though I were under the Lawe, that I may winne them that are under the Law:

21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Lawe (when I am not without Lawe as pertaining to God, but am under the Lawe through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Lawe.

22 To the weakke I become as weakke, that I may win the weakke: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I doe for the Gospel sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not, that ye which runne in a race runne all, yet one receiveth the prize? so runne that ye may obtaine.

25 And every man that competeth mastereth himselfe from all things: and they doe it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so runne, not as uncertainly: so fighte I, not as one that beatech the ayre.

27 But I beate downe my body, and bring it into subjection, lest by any means after that I have preached to other, I myselfe should be reprobous.

CHAP. X.

He sheweth them with the examples of the Jewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23 and offences of their neighbours.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed thowgh the sea.

2 And were all baptised unto Moses, in the cloud, and in the sea.

3 And did all eat the same? spiritual meat.

4 And did all drinke the same spiritual drinke (for they dranke of the spiritual Rocke that followed them: and the Rocke was Christ.)

5 But with many of them God was not pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these are examples to us, to the intent that we should not lust after unli things as they also lusted.

7 Either be ye idolaters, as were some of them, as it is written, The people sate downe to eat and drinke, and to use up to play.

8 Either let us commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and fell in one day three and thertie thousand.

9 Neither let vs tempt a Child, as some of them also tempted him, & were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Show all these things vnto them for examples, and for writers to admonish vs, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore let him that thinketh hee standeth, take heed lest hee fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you, but such as appertaineth to man, and God is faithful, which will not suffer you to be tempted above that you be able, but will euen giue the issue with the temptation, that ye may be able to beare it.

14 Wherefore my beloved, flee from lolatrie.

15 I speake as vnto them which haue understanding: I iudge ye what I say.

16 The cuppe of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we breake is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For we that are many are one bread and one body, because we are all partakers of one bread.

18 Behold Israel which is after the flesh are not they which eate of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idole is a thing, is any thing?

20 Nay, but that these things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to deuils, and not vnto God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with the deu-ils.

21 Ye cannot drinke the cup of the Lord and the cup of the deuils. Ye cannot be partakers of the Lords table, and of the table of deuils.

22 Doe wee provoke the Lord to anger?
are we stronger then he?

23 All things are lawful for mee, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawfull for mee, but all things edifie not.

24 Let no man seeke his owne, but euen man anothers wealth.

25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles eate ye, and aske no question for conscience sake.

26 For the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is.

27 If any of them which beleue not call you to a feast, and it ye will go, whatsoever is set before you, eate, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say vnto you, This is

CHAP. XI.

Hee thinketh the abuses which were crept into their Church. 4 As touching prayer, prophesying, 18 And ministry of the Lords Supper, 23 Drugging them against to the first infirmities thereof.

Be ye the followers of me, euen as I am of Christ.

2 Now, brethren, I commend you, that ye remember all my things, and keepe the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I will that ye know that Christ is the head of every man: and the man is the womans head: and God is Christs head.

4 Euen as I praye, as I prophesy, haue nothing on his head, dishonouring his head.

5 But euen as woman that prayeth or propheseth bare her head, dishonouring her head: for it is euen one very thing, as though she were hairen.

6 Therefore if the woman bee not cou-ered, let her also be shorne: and if she haue a woman to bee shorne or shauen, let her be couered.

7 For a man ought not to cover his head forasmuch as hee is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.

10 Therefore ought the woman to haue power on her head, because of the Angels.

11 For as the Church is the body of Christ, out the woman, which the woman without the man in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman: but all things are of God.

13 Iudge in your selves, Is it comely that a woman pray vnto God incouered?

14 Doeth not nature it selfe teach you, that if a man haue long haire, it is a shame
vnto him.

15 But if a woman haue long haire, it is a glory to her, as the Angels glory in Christ.

16 For as the Church is the body of Christ,
out the woman, which the woman without

16 But if any man will be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the Church of God.

17 Know in this that I declare, I praise you not, that ye come together, not with profit, but with hurt.

18 For first of all when ye come together in the Church, I hear that there are dissentions among you: and I believe it to be true in some part.

19 For there must be heresies even among you, that they which are approved among you, might be knownen.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lords Supper.

21 For every man when they should eate, taketh his own supper afore, and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 Have ye not houses to eate and to drinke in? despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that have not? what shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I have received of the Lord that which I also have delivered unto you, so was, that the Lord Jesus in the night that he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body which is broken for you: this doe ye in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood, this doe as oft as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye shall eat this bread, and drinke this cup, ye shew the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoever shall eate this bread, or drinke the cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 Let a man therefore examine himselfe, and so let him eat of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For hee that eateth and drinketh un-worthily, eateth and drinketh his own damnation, because he discerneth not the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weak, and sicke among you, and many sleepe.

31 For if we would judge one another, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are chastised of the Lord, because we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Otherwise my brethren, when ye come together to use, say one for another.

34 And if any man be hungry, let him eat at home, that ye come not together unto condemnation. Of other things will I see in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

The distribution of the gifts of the holy Ghost ought to be used to the edifying of Christs Church: as the members of mans body serve to the use one of another.

Now concerning Spiritual gifts, brethren,
I would not have you ignorant.

2 I know that ye were Gentiles, and were carried away into the storme of words, as ye were.

3 Wherefore I declare unto you, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Jesus creature: also no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diversities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man, to profit withall.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is given faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit:

10 And to another the operations of great works: and to another, prophesie:
and to another, the discerning of spirits:
and to another, diversities of tongues:
and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 And all these things worketh even the selfe same Spirit, distributing to every man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are one one body: even so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit we are all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free, and have bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member,
but many.

15 If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now God hath disposed the members every one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are there many members, yet but one body?

21 And the eye cannot see into the hand,
I have no need of thee: nor the head againe to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Yea, much rather shall members of the body, which seeme to be more feeble, are incorporate into Christs body to be governed by the same spirit. And therefore what need the division is, yet the persons ought to be conjoined and serve to the edification of the Church.

23 And upon those members of the body, which were chosen most unworthy, put more *honour on: and our incomely parts haue more couerlesse on.

24 For our comely parts need it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honour to that part which lacked.

25 Let there be no diuision in the body: but that the members should haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member be had in honour, all the members reioyce with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members ¶ of his part.

28 And God hath ordeined some in the Church: as first Apostles, secondly Prophe- tists, thirdly Teachers, then them that doe miracles: after that, the giftes of healing, helpers, gouernours, diuersitie of tongues:

29 Are all Apostles? are all Prophets? are all Teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the giftes of healing? do all speake with tongues? doe all interpret?

31 But I desire you the best giftes, and I will yet shew you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fountain and rule of aduising the Church, she setteth forth the nature, office and praise thereof.

Though I speake with the tongues of men and of Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I had the gift of prophesie, and knew all secrets, and all knowledge, yea, if I had all faith, to shew I could moue *mountaines, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffereth long: it is humblefull: loue enuiereth not: loue doth not boast it selfe: it is not puffed by.

5 It is not puffed by: it is not provoked to anger: it thinketh not euill.

6 It is not puffed by in iniquitie, but reioy- ceth in the truth.

7 It suffereth all things: it becometh *all things: it hopeeth all things: it endureth all things.

8 Loue doth neuer fall away, though that prophesyng be abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge be banished away.

9 For *ye know in part, and we ¶ pro-

As the Angels had tongues, and I had the vi- therof, and did not bellow there to profit my neighbor, it were nothing but vain babbling. Faith is here taken for the gift of doing mira- cles, which the wicked may haue, as Mat. 7. 22. and also for that faith (called histori- cal) which be- lieueth the mightie power of Christ, but cannot apprehend Gods miracle through him: this devils haue, Iam. 2. 19. and therefore is sepa- rated from charity, but the faith that will first in effect cannot, as 1. John 3. 9. also, 1. 7. 23. Iake 19. 6. c. Not that it sufficeth it selfe to be abused, butudgeth others by all loue and humanity. d Which may be without offence of Gods word, e Knowledge it selfe shall be perfected in the world to come and not abolished: but the man- ner of knowing and teaching shall cease when wee shall be before Gods presence, where we shall need neither schooles nor teachers, f That is, imperfectly. ¶ Or, such phets in part.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in part, shall be abo- lished.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see *things as a glasse dark- ly, but then shall we see face to face. Now I know in part: but then shall I know even as I am ¶ known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope and loue, even these three: but the *chiefest of these is loue.

CHAP. XIII.

Hee aduiseeth in loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spiritual gifts, 5 But chiefly prophesying, 34 Hee commendeth women to keepe silence in the Church, 40 And sheweth what good order ought to be observed in the Church.

¶ Now after loue, and comest spiritual gifts, and rather that ye may *prophesie.

2 For he that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man *heareth him: howbeit the *spirit ye speaketh secret things.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh unto men to edifying and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 He that speaketh strange language, edifieth *himselfe: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would that ye all spake strange lan- guages, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth, then he that speaketh diuers tongues, except hee expound it, that the Church may receive edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking diuers tongues, what shall I profit you, except I speake to you, either by *revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 Wherefore, things without life, which giue a sound, whether it be a ¶ pipe, or an harp, except they make a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 And as if the trumpet giue an uncer- taine sound, who shall prepare himselfe to battell?

9 So likewise you by the tongue, except ye utter words that haue signification, how shall it be understood what is spoken? for ye shall mistake in the *ayre.

10 There are as many kinds of voyces (¶ as it cometh to passe) in the world, and none of them is a dumb.

11 Except I know then the power of the voyce, I shall be unto him that speaketh, *a Barbarian, and he that speaketh, shall be a Barbarian unto me.

12 Even so, so likewise as ye cannot spiritual gifts, letke that ye may excell unto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh a strange tongue, pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirit *prophesie: but mine understanding is without *fruit.

r Which expoud the word of God. s Paul beareth as yet with their weakness, because all these were the gifts of God; but yet he sheweth that they should not pass this measure, that first one, after another, and at the vermost the third should read in a strange language, which was to declare Gods miracle in the gift of tongues; but chiefly hee commandeth that nothing be done without interpretation. t Or, learning, which Gods Spirit moveth them to utter.

15 What is to be done? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, but I will sing with the understanding also.

16 And when thou bledest with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the name of the Lord, say, Amen, at thy giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Per had I rather in the Church to speake a few wordes with mine understanding, that I might also instruct others, then tenn thousand wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding, but as concerning malitiousnesse be children, but in understanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Lawe it is written, "By men of other tongues, as by other languages will I speake unto this people: yet lo shall they not heare me, saith the Lord."

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleve, but to them that beleve not; but prophesying leaveth not for them that beleve not, but for them which beleve.

23 Wherefore when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speak strange tongues, there come in they that are unbelievers, as they which beleve not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wits?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleve not, or one unbeliever, he is rebuked of all men, and is judged of all.

25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so he will fall downe on his face, and worship God, and say plainly, that God is in you indeed.

26 What is to be done then, brethren? when yee come together, according as every one of you hath a Psalm, or hath hymne, or hath a tongue, or hath revelation, or hath interpretation, let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him kepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to himselfe and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake, two or three, and let the otherudge.

30 And if any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For yee may all prophesie one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the Prophets are subject to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 Let your women keepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speake; but they ought to be subject, as also the Lord saith.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask of their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 Came the word of God out from you? either came it unto you onely?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to be a Prophet, or a spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you, are the commandments of the Lord.

that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his auctoritie, yet they were necessary schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And whereas they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inabilitie and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherly affection, he should have been compelled to use rigor and severity. And as touching his sharpe warning in the former Epistle, it came through their fault, as is now evident both in that that he pardoneth the trespasser, seeing he doeth repent: and also in that he was vniuersal in his minde, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to vndermine his auctoritie, he confuteth their arrogant brags, and commendeth his office and the diligent executing of the same: in that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnesse of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect wherof is newnesse of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatry, embracing the true doctrine, and that forrowe which ingendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercie and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the truth, sought onely to fill their bellies, whereas hee contrariwise sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore at his coming he menaceth such as rebell against his auctoritie, that hee will declare by liuely example that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ,

B^E I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in hea-

2 For if I make you sorry, who is hee then that should make mee glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same thing unto you, least when I came, I should take heavenliness of them of whom I ought to reioyce:
this confidence have I in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many teares:
not that ye should be made sorry, but that ye might perceive the love, which I have specially unto you.

5 And if any hath caused sorrow, the same hath not made me sorry, but partly (least I should more charge him) you all.

6 It is sufficient unto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

7 So that now contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest the same should be swallowed up with over-much heaviness.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you would confirm your love towards him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might know the proofe of you, whether ye would be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for verily if I forgive any thing, to whom I forgive it, for your sakes I forgive I in the presence of Christ.

As need we as some other, Epistles of recommendation unto you, or letters of recommendation from you?

2 We are our epistle written in our hearts, which is understood and read of all men.

3 In that ye are manifest to be the Epistle of Christ ministered by vs, and written, not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God, not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God:

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selves to think any thing as of our selves: but our sufficiency is of God,

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the new Testament, not of the letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the 7 If then the ministrations of death was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance (which glory is done away)

8 How shall not the ministrations of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministry of condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministrations of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glory.

of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their minds are hardened: for until this day remaineth the same covering unbroken away in the reading of the old Testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is laid over their hearts.

16 Howbeit, when their heart shall be turned to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all behold as in a mirror: the glory of the Lord with open face, are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

1. He declareth his diligence and roundness in his office. 2. And that which his enemies took for his disadvantage, to wit, the cross and affliction which he endured, he turneth to his great advantage, 11. 17 showing what profit cometh thereby.

Therefore, seeing that we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we were faint not:

2 But have call from us the cloaks of shame, and walke not in craftiness, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the truth we appoour our selves to every mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 As our Gospel be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the Image of God, should not shine unto them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and our selves your servants for Jesus sake.

6 For God that commanded the light to shine out of darkness, is he which hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of that power might be of God, and not of us.

8 We are afflicted on every side, yet we are not in distress: in poverty, but not overcome of poverty.

9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast down, but perish not.

10 Every where we bear about in our body the dying of our Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For we which live, are always delivered unto death for Jesus sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, and life in you.

13 And because we have the same Spirit of faith according as it is written, I believe, and therefore have I spoken, we also believe, and therefore speak.

14 Knowing that he which hath raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise us up also by Jesus, and shall set us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that most plentiful grace by the channel-giving of many, may redound to the praise of God.

16 Therefore we faint not, but though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is renewed daily.

17 For our light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth unto us a farre more excellent and an eternal weight of glory:

18 While we looke not on the things which are seen, but on the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen, are temporal: but the things which are not seen, are eternal.

12 For wee waite not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that yet may haue to answer against them, which reioyce in the ⁴ face, and not in the heart.
13 For whether we be ¹ out of our wit, we are as ² to God: or whether we be in our right wits, we are as ³ to you.
14 For the loue of Christ constraineth vs:
because wee thus iudge, that if one bee dead for all, then were ¹ all dead.
15 And hee died for all, that they ² which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto themselues, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe.
16 Wherefore, henceforth know we no man ¹ after the flesh, yea, though wee had knowne Christ after y^e flesh, yet now henceforth ² I knowe him in no more.
17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him bee ¹ a new creature. ² Old things are passed away: behold, all things are become new.
18 And all things are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto himselfe by Jesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministration of reconciliation.
19 For God was ¹ in Christ, and reconciled the world to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed vnto vs the word of reconciliation.
20 Now then are wee ambassadours for Christ: as though God did by us beseech you through vs, wee pray you in Christs stead, that ye be reconciled to God.
21 For hee hath made him to bee ¹ sinne for vs, which knowe no sinne, that wee should bee ² made the righteousness of God in him.

k Or heart.
The Greeke

meant most great love and tender affections.
l Both in thinking and reporting well of you.

2 * Receive vs: we haue done wrong to no man: wee haue consumed no man: wee haue * defrauded no man.

3 I speake it not to your condemnation: for I haue said before, that yee are in our hearts to die and liue together.

4 I like great boldnesse of speech toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when wee were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but wee were troubled on every side, fightings * without, and cereals within.

6 But God that comforteth the abject, comforted vs at the coming of Titus:

7 And not by his coming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when hee tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent minde to me-ward, so that I reioyced much more.

8 For though I made you ioyful with a letter, I repented not, though I did repent:
for I perceive that the same Epistle made you ioyful, though it were but for a season.

9 I now reioyce, not that yee were ioyful, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye sorowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.

10 * For godly sorrow causeth repentance into saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorrow causeth death.

11 For behold, this thing that yee haue heene * godly sorrow, what great care it hath brought in to you: yea, what * clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what fear: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zeale:
yea, what * punishment: in all things ye haue stewed your selues that yee are pure in this matter.

12 Therefore, though I wrote vnto you,
I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the sight of God might appeare vnto
you.

13 Therefore wee were comforted, because yee were comforted: but rather wee reioyced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed:
but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in truth, even so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his inward affection is more abundantly toward you, when hee remembereth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling ye receiued him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 and Christ, he exhorteth them to auarice in relieuing the poore Sanctes, commanding their good beginning.
25 After hee commendeth Titus, and his followers vnto them.

WE not you also to wit, brethren, of the grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia,

2 Because in great rayall of affliction their ioy abounded, and their most extreme poverty * abounded vnto their rich liberality.

3 For to their power (I heare record) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing,

4 And prayed vs with great instance that wee would receive the * grace and fellowship * of the ministering which is toward the Saints.

5 And this they did, not as we looked for:
but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord,
and after vnto vs by the will of God,

6 That we should exhort Titus, that as he had begun, so hee would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as yee abound in every thing, in faith, and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, even so let that yee abound in this grace also.

8 And this say I not by commandment, but because of the diligence of others: therefore prouoe I the naturalnesse of your loue.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that he being rich, for your sakes became poore, that yee through his powerie might be made rich.

10 And I shew my minde herein: for this is expedient for you which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to * will, a yere agoe.

11 Now therefore performe to doe it also, that as there was a readinesse to will, euen so yee may performe it of that which yee haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither is it that other men should bee
enled and you grieved.

14 But vpon like condition at this time your * abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may bee for your lacke, that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, * hee that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.

16 And thanks bee vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you,

17 Because hee accepted the * exhortation, yea, hee was so carefull, that of his owne accord he went vnto you.

18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is * in the Gospel chorownt all the Churches,

19 And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to bee a fellow in our iourney concerning this grace that is ministered by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt minde.)

20 Any thing this, that no man shoulde blame vs in this abundance that is ministered by vs,

21 * Doubting for * honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.

22 And

a This benefit of God appeared in two things, first, that the Macedonians being in so great afflic-tion were so prompt to helpe others: and next, that being in great poverty, were very liberal towards others.
b So that a man abundant: more of riches flowed out of their po-uerty.
c So hee calleth
their liberality, either because they were the bestowers of Gods graces,
because they re-ceiued them of God freely, and ye they desired
Paul to sort to the distribution thereof.

23 Whether any doe enquire of Titus, he is my fellow and helper to forward; of our brethren, they are the messengers of the Churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew toward them, and before the Churches the proofs of your loue, and of the reioicing that we haue of you.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to them. 6 He exhorteth to good almes charitably. 7 As touching the ministering to the Sauine, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readinesse of minde, wherof I boast my self: of you vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achala was prepared a yere a goe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Now haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioicing our you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that ye (as I haue said) be ready.

4 Let if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you vnprepared; wee (I need not to say, you) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appoynted afore, that it might be ready, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of sparring.

6 This ye remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and hee that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As every man witherth in his heart, so let him giue, not * grudgingly, or of necessity: * For God loueth a cheerefull giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that ye alwayes hauing * all sufficiency in all things, may abound in euery * good worke.

9 * As it is written, * We haue sparred abroad, and had giuen to the poore; this beneuolence remaineth for euer.

10 Also he that sinderberd to the sower, will minister likewise bread for foode, and multiplye your seede, and increase the fruits of your beneuolence.

11 That on all parts ye may be made rich vnto all liberalltie, which causeth through vs to thanksgiving vnto God:

12 For the ministeration of this serice not onely supplyeth the necessities of the Saints, but also is abundant by the thanksgiving of many vnto God:

13 (Which by the experiment of this ministeration payse God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberall distribution to them, and to all men.)

14 And by their prayer for you, desiring after you greatly for the abundant grace of God in you.

15 Thankes therefore be vnto God for his vnspcakable gift.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false apostles and defendeth his authority, exhorting them to obedience. 11 And sheweth what his power is. 13 And how he wisheth.

NOW I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meeknesse, and gentlenesse of Christ, which when I am present among you, am hale, but I am bold toward you being abse. 2 And this I require you, that I neede not to be bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, which esteeme vs as though we were walked according to the flesh.

3 Accurthelesse, though we walke in the flesh, yet we doe not warre after the flesh,

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to cast downe holds.)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie every thought to the obedience of Christ,

6 And hauing readie the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke yet on things after the appearance? If any man trust in himselfe that he is Christ, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christ, even so are we Christ.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as it were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, * saith he, are sore and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as wee are in word by letters when wee are absent, such will we be also indert, when wee are present.

12 For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them which praise themselves: but they understand not that they * measure themselves with themselves, and compare themselves with themselves.

13 But wee will not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, * but according to the * measure of the line, wherof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For wee strait not our selues beyond our measure, as though we had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also haue wee come in preaching the Gospel of Christ.

15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to see magnified by you according to our line abundantly.

a These words his backbiters vsd, thinking thereby to diminish his authoritie, as verse 10. b As though we boasted of our selues by a carnall affection,

c Meaning a certain man among them, which thus spake of Paul. d He that measureth any thing must haue some line or measure to mete by, and not to measure thing by it selfe: to these boasters must measure themselves by their worthy acts: and if they will compare with others, let them shew what counreys, what cities and people they haue wound to the Lord: for who will praise that soldier, which onely at the table can finely talke of the warres, and when he cometh to the brunt, whether valiant or expert? Epai. 4. 7.

e That is, the gifts and vocation, which God had giuen him to winne others by,

F God gave the whole world to the Apostles to preach in, so that Paul here meaneth by the line, his portion of the countreys where he preached. Imo. 9. 34. 1. cor. 1. 31.

16 And to preach the Gospel in those regions which are beyond you: not to rejoyce in another mans line, that is, in the things that are prepared already.

17 But let him that rejoyceth, rejoyce in the Lord.

18 For hee that praiseth himselfe, is not allowed, but he whom the Lord praiseth.

CHAP. XI.

2 Hee declareth his affection toward them. 5 The excellencie of his ministerie. 9 And his diligence in the same. 13 The fetches of the false Apostles. 16 The iudgement of the Corinthians. 22 And his owne praise.

Would to God yee could suffer a little my foolishnesse, and indeede yee suffer mee.

2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godly ielousie: for I have prepared you for one husband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ.

3 But I feare lest as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtiltie, so your minds should bee corrupted from the simplicitie that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth an other Gospel then him whom we haue preached: or if yee receive another spirit then that which ye haue received, either another Gospel, then that ye haue received, ye might well haue suffered him.

5 Verily I suppose that I was not inferior to the very chiefe Apostles.

6 And though I bee so rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifest to the vermost, in all things.

7 Where I committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that yee might be exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you service.

9 And when I was present with you and had neede, I was not shooftull to the hindervance of any man: for that which was lacking unto mee, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied, and in all things I kept and will keepe my selfe, that I should not bee grivous to you.

10 As the trueth of Christ is in mee, that this rejoycing that not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I doe, that will I doe: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion, that they might bee found like unto vs in that wherein they rejoyce.

I labour with his hands for his living, but in his extreme poverty received diligently without burdening any man, or els waxing shooftull to doe his dutie to eouery man. Chap. 11. 3. Act. 20. 34.
13 Let not the trueth of Christ be thought to be in mee, if I suffer my joy to be shut vp, which I haue conceived of Grecia. 1 To slander my ministerie, I should receive wages.

13 For such falses Apostles are deceitfull workers, and transforme themselves into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no manerle: for Satan himselfe is transformed into an Angel of light.

15 Wherefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme themselves, as though they were the ministers of righteousness, whose ende shall be according to their works.

16 I say againe, let no man thinke that I am foolish: or else take me euen as a foole that I also may boast my selfe a little.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

18 Seeing that many rejoyce after the flesh, I will rejoyce also.

19 For ye suffer fooles gladly, because that ye are wise.

20 For yee suffer euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man tralt himselfe, if a man sinne you on the face.

21 I speake as concerning the reproch: as though that wee had bene i weak: but wherein any man is bold, I speake foolishly: I am bold also.

22 They are Hebrewes, so am I: they are Israelites, so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, so am I:

23 They are the ministers of Christ, (I speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundantly: in stripes above measure: in prison more plentifully: in death often.

24 Of the Jewes: five times received I forty stripes save one.

25 I was thistle beaten with rods: I was once stoned: I suffered thistle shipwacke: night and day haue I bene in the deep sea.

26 In journeying I was often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nation, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the cite, in perils in wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren,

27 In wearinesse and painefullnesse, in watching often, in hunger, and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakednesse.

28 Beside the things which are outward, I am cumbered daily, and haue the care of all the Churches.

29 To be is to weake, and I am not weake: who is offended, and I burne not?

30 If I must needs rejoyce, I will rejoyce of mine infirmities.

31 The God, euen the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Damascus the gouernour of the people vnder King Aretas, layed watch in the cite of the Damascens, and would haue caught me.

33 But at a window was I let downe in a basket through the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

his boasting upon the Corinthians. 14 Her strength what good will he beareth them. 20 And promise to come unto them.

It is not expedient for me no doubt, to rejoyce: for I will come to visitations and reuelations of the Lord.

2 I know a man * in Christ above fourty years ago, whether he were in the body, I cannot tell, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken up into the * third heauen.

3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4 How that he was taken up into Paradise, and heard * words which cannot be spoken, which are not possible for man to utter.

5 Of such a man will I reioyce, of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I should not be a fool: for I will say the truth, but I reframe lest any man should thinke of me about that he seeth in me, or that he beareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted out of measure, through the abundance of reuelations, there was giuen unto mee * a picke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord * thistle that it might depart from me.

9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect through weaknes. Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I was a fool to boast my selfe, ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bin commended of you, for in nothing was I inferior vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes and wonders, and great tokens.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior vnto other Churches, * except that I haue not bin flourishfull to your hinderance: forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the * third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be flourishfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestowe, and will be bestowed for your * soules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But bee it that I charged you not:

* yet flourishfull as I was crasse, I took you with guilt.

17 Did I fill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired * Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus fill you of any thing? walked we not in the like same spirit? walked we not in the like steps?

19 Again, thinke ye that we exult our selues vnto you? wee speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearly beloued, for your edifying.

20 For I feare, lest when I come, I shall not find you such as I would: and that I shall bee found vnto you * such as ye would not, and lest there be strife, enuying, wrath, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings and discords.

21 I feare lest when I come againe, my God * abate me among you, and I shall be uialed many of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the uncleanness, and fornication, and wantonnesse, which they haue committed.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Galatians, after they had bin instructed by Saint Paul in the truth of the Gospel, gave place to false apostles, who entering in in his absence, corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, & taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that hee proueth that the granting thereof is the overthrow or mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had bene sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authority, but spake of himselfe, he proueth both that he is an Apostle ordained by God, and also that he is not inferior to the rest of the Apostles. Which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, prouing that we are freely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commodity: but now they are not onely vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the truth and the end thereof is come. Wherefore men ought now to embrace that liberty, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences snared in the gremmes of mens traditions: finally he sheweth wherein this liberty standeth: and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffered themselves to bee seduced by the false apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Law were necessary to saluation, 8 and detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 He sheweth his owne conversation, magnificeth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to bee equall with the chiefe Apostles.

e For what is more contrary to our freewill, sedition by faith, then the iustification by the Law, or our workes? there fore to ioyne these two together, is to ioyne light with darkenesse,

6 I maruelle that ye are so soone remoued away vnto another || Gospel from him that had called you in the ^a grace of Christ.

7 Which is not another Gospel. For that there be some which trouble you, and intend to ^a pervert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But though that wee, or an ^a Angel from heauen preach vnto you otherwile then that which wee haue preached vnto you, let him be || accursed.

9 ^a As wee sayd before, so I say now againe, If any man preach vnto you otherwile then that ye haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For ^a nowe preach I mans doctrine, or Gods: or goe I about to please men: for I should yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after ^a man.

12 For neither receiued I it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the ^a reuelation of Iesus Christ.

13 For ye haue heard of my conversation in time past, in the Iewish religion, how that I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it.

17 Neither came I againe to Ierusalem to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and turned againe unto Damascus.

18 Then after three yeres I came againe to Ierusalem to visite Peter, and abode with him fifteene dayes.

19 And none other of the Apostles saw I save James the Lords brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, I witness before God that I lie not.

21 After that, I went into the coasts of Syria, and Cilicia: for I was unknown by face unto the Churches of Iudaea, which were in Christ.

22 But they had heard onely some say, he which persecuted us in time past, now preacheth the faith which before hee destroyed.

23 And they glorified God for me.

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 He sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 and that he is nothing inferior to other Apostles. 11 Titus, and that he hath reproved Peter the Apostle of the Jewes. 16 After he commeth to the principal scope, which was to prove that justification only cometh of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the works of the Law.

Then fouretee yeres after I went by againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke with me Titus also.

2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated with them of the Gospel which I preached among the Gentiles, but particularly with them that were the chiefe, least by any means I should runne, or had runne in vaine:

3 But neither yet Titus which was with mee, though he were a Grecian, was compelled to be circumcised,

4 For as the false brethren that crept in: who came in piously to speake out our libertie, which wee haue in Christ Iesus: that they might bring vs into bondage.

5 To whom wee gaue not place by subscription for an houre, that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you.

6 And of them which seemed to be great I was not thought: what they were in time past, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no mans person: neuertheless, they that are the chiefe, did communicate nothing with me.

7 But contrariwise when they saw that the Gospel over the uncircumcision was committed unto mee, as the Gospel over the circumcision was unto Peter:

8 (For hee that was mighty by Peter in the Apostleship over the circumcision, was also mightie by mee toward the Gentiles.)

9 And when James, and Cephas, and John knew of the grace that was giuen vnto me, which are counted to be pillars, they gaue to mee and to Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that wee should preach unto the Gentiles, and they vnto the Circumcision.

hands of fellowship, that wee should preach unto the Gentiles, and they vnto the Circumcision.

10 Warning onely that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.

11 And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstood him to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from James, hee ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jewes dissembled likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I saw that they went not the right way to the truth of the Gospel, I sayde vnto Peter before all men, If thou bring a Jew, thou art as the Gentiles, and not like the Jewes, why dost thou constrain the Gentiles to doe like the Jewes?

15 Where which are Jewes by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles.

16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by the works of the Lawe, but by the faith of Iesus Christ, euen now I say, haue declared in Iesus Christ, that wee might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the Lawe, because that by the works of the Law, no flesh shall be iustified.

17 If then while wee seeke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are found sinners. Is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God forbid.

18 For if I build againe the things that I haue destroyed, = I make my selfe a transgressor.

19 For I through the Lawe am dead to the Law, and that I might liue vnto God, I am crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue, yet not I now, but Christ liueth in me: and in that that I now liue in the flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued me, and giuen himselfe for me.

21 I do not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousness be by the Lawe, then Christ died without a cause.

of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

2 Are ye so foolish, that after ye have begun in the Spirit, ye would now be made perfect by the Law?

3 Ye were then under the Law, as many things in vain: if so be it be even in vain.

4 Ye therefore that minister to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doth hee it through the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

5 Ye rather as Abraham beleueed God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness.

6 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

7 For the Scripture foretelling that God would iustifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospel vnto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all the Gentiles be blessed.

8 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithful Abraham.

9 For as many as are of the works of the Law, are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Law, to doe them.

10 And that no man is iustified by the Law in the sight of God, it is euident: for the iust shall live by faith.

11 And the Law is not of faith, but the man that shall doe those things, shall live in them.

12 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Law, when hee was made a curse for vs (for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree.)

13 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

14 Whether it be but a mans covenant, when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or addeth any thing thereto.

15 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. We sayeth not, And to thy seed, as speaking of many, but And to thy seed, as of one, which is Christ.

16 And this I say, that the Law which was four hundred and thirty yeeres after, cannot disanull the covenant that was confirmed afoze of God in respect of Christ, that it should make the promise of none effect.

17 For if the inheritance be of the Law, it is bestowed on the Law, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.

18 Therefore then I say, the Law was added because of the transgressions, till the seed came into the which the promise was made: and it was ordained by Angels in the hand of a Mediator.

19 Now a Mediator is not a Mediator of one: but God is one.

20 Is the Law then against the promise of God? God forbid: for if there had been a Law given which could haue giuen life, surely righteousness should haue bene by the Law.

21 But the Scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ should be giuen to them that beleue.

22 But before faith came, we were kept under the Law, and shut vp vnto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

23 Therefore the Law was our schoolmaster to bring vs to Christ, that we might be made righteous by faith.

24 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

25 For ye are all the sonnes of God by faith in Christ Iesus.

26 For all ye that are baptized into Christ, haue put on Christ.

27 There is neither Jew nor Grecian: there is neither bond nor free: there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Iesus.

3 Euen so, wee when wee were children, were in bondage vnder the rudiments of the world.

4 But when the fullnesse of time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a woman, and made under the Law,

5 That he might redeem them which were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption of the sonnes.

6 And because ye are sonnes, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, which cryeth, Abba Father.

7 Therefore, thou art no more a servant, but a sonne: now if thou be a sonne, thou art also the heire of God through Christ.

you at the first.

ye would haue plucked out your owne eyes,
and haue giuen them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They are felons ouer you: amisse: yea, they would exclude you that ye should altogether loue them.

ly alwayes in a good thing, and not onely
when I am present with you.

19 By little children of whom I transite in birth againe, until Christ be formed in you.

20 And I would I were with you now, that I might change my voyce: for I am in doubt of you.

21 Tell mee, yee that will be vnder the Law, doe ye not heare the Law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, one by a seruant, and one by a free woman.

23 But he which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and hee which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.

24 By the which things another thing is meant: for the mothers are the two Testaments, the one which is Agar of mount Sina, which gendereth vnto bondage,

25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in Arabia, and it answereth to Ierusalem which now is) and shee is in bondage with her children.

26 But Ierusalem, which is above, is free: which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is written, Reioyce thou bar-ren that bearest no children: breake forth, and cry thou that trauallest not: for the desolate hath many moe children then thee which hath an husband.

28 Therefore brethren, we are after the manner of Isaac children of the promise.

29 But as then hee that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the Spirit, euen soe is now.

30 But what saith the Scripture? Put out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruant shall not be heire with the son of the free woman.

31 Then brethren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the free woman.

CHAP. V.

2 He labourer to draw them away from circumcision, 17 And how with them the battell betwixt the Spirit and the flesh, and the fruits of them both.

3 And said therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and bee not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye be Circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testifie againe to every man, which is circumcised, that he is bound to keepe the whole Law.

4 Yee are abolished from Christ, whosoever are iustified by the Law, yee are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness through faith.

6 For in Iesus Christ neither circumcision auailer any thing, neither uncircumcision, but faith which worketh by loue.

7 Yee did runne well: who did let you, that ye did not obey the truth?

8 It is not the perswasion of him that nation, who soeuer he be.

cumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution?
Then is the slander of the crosse, abolished.

12 Would to God they were euen cut off which doe disquiet you.

13 For brethren, yee haue bene called vnto libertie: onely vie not your libertie as an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.

14 For all the Law is fulfilled in one word, which is this, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

15 If yee bite and deuoure one another, take heede lest yee bee consumed out of one-ther.

16 When I say, Walke in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh, and they are in contrariety the one against the other, so that ye cannot do the things which the Spirit desireth, if ye are not kept by the Law of Christ.

18 But if ye are led of the Spirit, ye shall not be in the bondage of the Law. For the Law was our tutor to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

19 But now that faith is come, we are no longer vnder the Law, but are in the Law of Christ.

20 Wherefore ye shall not be in bondage to the Law, but to Christ.

21 For ye are the seed of Abraham, and I haue said, If ye be circumcised, ye shall be separated from Christ.

22 For I testify againe to every man, that if he is circumcised, he shall be bound to
keepe the whole Law.

23 For ye are the seed of Abraham, and I haue said, If ye be circumcised, ye shall be separated from Christ.

that if he is circumcised, he shall be bound to
keepe the whole Law.

1 He exhorteth them to vs gentle, toward the weakes, 2 And to shew their brotherly loue and modestie, 3 Also to prouide for their Ministers, 4 To perseuere, 14 To reioyce in the crosse of Christ 15 To newnesse of life, 16 And last of all wisheth to them with the rest of the faithfull all prosperitie.

Berthen, if a man be fallen by occasion vnto any faile, ye which are spirituall, restore such one with the Spirit of meeknesse, considering thy selfe, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Beare ye one anothers burden, and so fulfill the Law of Christ.

3 For if any man seeme to himselfe, that he is somewhat, when he is nothing, hee deceiuet himselfe in his imagination.

4 But let euery man prouee his owne worke, and then shall he haue reioycing in himselfe onely, and not in another.

5 For euery man shall reape his owne burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, make him that hath taught him partaker of all his goods.

7 Be not deceived: God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall hee also reape.

8 For hee that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reape corruption: but hee that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reape life everlasting.

9 Let vs not therefore be weary of well doing: for in due season wee shall reape, if we faint not.

10 While we haue therefore time, let vs doe good vnto all men, but specially vnto them that are of the household of faith.

11 Seeke how large a letter I haue written vnto you with mine owne hand.

12 As many as desire to make a faire shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be Circumcised, onely because they would not suffer persecution for the crosse of Christ.

13 For they themselves which are Circumcised, keepe not the Law, but desire to haue you Circumcised, that they might reioyce in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should reioyce, but in the Crosse of our Lord Iesus Christ, whereby the world is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the world.

15 For in Christ Iesus neither Circumcision availeth any thing, nor vncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this Rule, peace shall be vpon them, and mercie, and vpon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man put me to businesse: for I beare in my body the marques of the Lord Iesus.

The Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGUMENT.

While Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entered in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which hee had taught them, by reason whereof hee wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, hee assureth them of saluation, because they were therunto predestinate by the free Election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vp to his eternall life by the holy Ghost, given vnto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of the which myserie hee prayeth God to confirme toward them. And to the intent they should not glorie in themselves, hee sheweth them their extreme miserie wherein they were plunged before they knew Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whom

l By the world he meaneth all outward pompe, ceremonies, and things which whom the promises were not made, and yet by the free mercy of God in Christ Iesus they were saved, and he appointed to be their Apostle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desired God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perfect understanding of his Sonne, and exhorteth them likewise to be mindful of his great benefits, neither to be moved with the false Apostles which seek to overthrow their faith and tread vnder foot the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternall counsell of God: who by this means preferreth onely his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministerie, forasmuch as God thereby reigneth among men, and causeth it to bring forth most plentiful fruits, as innocencie, holinesse, with all such offices appertaining to godlinesse. Last of all, he declareth not onely in generally, what ought to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne euery mans vocation.

CHAP. I.

After his saluation, 4 Hee sheweth that the chiefe cause of their saluation standeth in the free election of God through Christ. 16 Hee declareth his good will toward them, giuing thanks and praying God for their faith. 21 The manifest of Christ.

A N I am an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, to the ¹ Saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithfull in Christ Iesus:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 * Blessed bee God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which hath blessed vs with all ¹ spirituall blessing in heauenly things in Christ.

4 * As he hath ¹ chosen vs in him, before the foundation of the world: that we ¹ should bee ¹ holy, and without blame before him in loue:

5 ¹ Who hath predestinate vs, to bee ¹ adopted through Iesus Christ vnto himselfe, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the ¹ praise of the glory of his grace, where with hee hath made vs accepted in his beloued,

7 By whom we haue redemption through his blood, euen the forgiveness of sinnes according to his rich grace:

8 ¹ Whereby he hath bin abundant toward vs in all wisdom and understanding,

9 And hath opened vnto vs the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed ¹ in him,

10 That in the dispensation of the fulnes of the times, hee might gather together in one ¹ all things, both which are in heauen, and which are in earth, euen in Christ:

11 In whom also we are chosen when we were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsell of his owne will,

12 That we which first trusted in Christ should be vnto the praise of his glory:

13 In whom also we haue trusted after that we heard the word of truth euen the Gospel of your saluation, wherein also after that we, beloued, we were sealed with the holy Spirit of promise,

14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, ¹ untill the redemption of the posses-

15 Therefore also, after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the Lord Iesus, and loue toward all the Saints,

16 I ceased not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers.

17 That the God of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of glory, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisdom, and reuelation through the knowledge of ¹ him.

18 That the eyes of your understanding may be lightened, that ye may know what the hopes of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saints.

3 Among whom we also had our conuersion in time past, in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the will of the flesh, and of the minde, and were by ¹ nature the children of wrath, as well as others:

5 There is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme,

6 One God and Father of all, which is above all, and through all, and in you all.

7 But vnto euerie one of vs is giuen grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ,

8 Wherefore he saith, ^a When hee ascended by ouer high, hee led captiuitie captiue, and gaue gifts vnto men.

9 (Now in that he ascended, what is it but that hee had also descended first into the lowly parts of the earth?)

10 Hee that descended, is euen the same that ascended farre aboue all heauens, that he might fill ^a all things.)

11 Wherefore he gaue some to be Apostles, and some ^b Prophets, and some ^c Euangelists, and some ^d Pastors, and teachers,

13 Till we all meete together (in the vnitie of faith, and knowledge of the Sonne of God) vnto a ^b perfect man, and vnto the measure of the age of the fullnesse of Christ,

14 That we henceforth be no more children wauering, and caried about with euerie winde of doctrine, by the deceit of men, and with craftinesse, whereby they lay in wait to deceive.

15 But let vs follow the truth in loue, and in all things grow vp into him, which is the ^a head, that is Christ,

16 By whom all the body being coupled and knit together by euery ioynt, for the furniture thereof (according to the effectuall power, which is in the measure of euery part) receiueth increase of the body, vnto the edifying of it selfe in loue.

¶ The Epistle of Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Paul being warned by the holy Ghost to goe to Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi a city of the same country: but because his charge was to preach the Gospel vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he travelled from place to place: till at length he was taken prisoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with reliefe vnto him: who declaring him the fate of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein he commendeth them that they stood manfully against the false apostles, putting them in minde of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrink: for the Gospel thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to flee ambition, and to imbrace modestie, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who should instruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himselfe would also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crosse then the false apostles, he confuteth their false doctrine, by prouing onely Christ to be the end of all true religion, with whom we haue all things, and without whom we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our iustification. After this follow certaine admonitions both particular and generally, with re- lification of his affection toward them, and thankfull accepting of their beneuolence,

Paul and Timotheus the ser- uants of Iesus Christ, to all the Saints in Christ Iesus, which are at Philippi, with the Bishops, and Deacons.

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 I thanke my God, hauing you in perfect memory.

4 (Alwayes in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnesse.)

5 Because of the fellowship which yee haue in the Gospel, from the first day vntill now.

6 And I am perswaded of this same thing, that hee that hath begunne this good worke in you, will performe it vntill the day of Iesus Christ.

7 As it becommeth mee so to iudge of you all, because I haue you in remembrance, that both in my bands, and in my defence and confirmation of the Gospel, you all were partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart root in Iesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abound, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement.

10 That yee may discern things that differ one from another, that ye may be pure and without offence, vntill the day of Christ.

11 Filled with the fruites of righteousnesse, which are by Iesus Christ vnto the glory and praise of God.

12 ¶ I would yee understood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto mee, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel.

13 So that my bands in Christ are famous throughout all the iudgement hall, and in all other places.

14 In so much that many of the brethren in the Lorde are boldened through my bands, and dare more frankly speake the word.

15 Some preach Christ, euen through enuie and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one part preacheth Christ of contention and not purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bands:

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel.

18 What then? yet Christ is preached all manner waies, whether it bee vnder a presence, or sincerely: and I therein ioy: yea, and will ioy.

19 For I know that this shall turne to my saluation, though your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ.

20 As I heartily looke for, and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, so now Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it bee by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to me both in life, and in death aduantage.

22 And whether to liue in the flesh, were possible for mee, and what to choos, I know not.

23 For I am greatly in doubt on both sides, desiring to be looked, and to be with Christ which is best of all.

24 But whether to abide in the flesh, is more needfull for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shall abide, and with you all continue, for your fur- therance, and top of your faith,

26 That ye may more abundantly reioyce in Christ Iesus for mee, by my coming to you againe.

27 I nicely let your conuersation be, as it becometh the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or else be ab- sent, I may heare of your matters, that yee || continue in one spirit, and in one minde, fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

CHAP. II.

3 He exhorted them above all things to humi- lity, whereby pure desire is chiefly maintained, 19 Promising that hee and Timotheus will speedily come unto them, 27 and excuse the long tarrying of E- paphroditus.

I If there bee therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of loue, if any fel- lowship of the Spirit, if any compassion and mercy,

2 Fulfill my loy, that yee be like minded, hauing the same loue, being of one accord, and of one iudgement,

3 That nothing be done through conten- tion or vaine glorie, but that in meekenesse of mind every man esteeme other better then himselfe.

4 Look not every man on his owne things, but every man also on the things of other men.

5 Let the same mind be in you that was euen in Christ Iesus.

6 Who being in the forme of God, thought it no robbery to be equall w God: 7 But he made himselfe of no reputa- tion, and took on him the forme of a seruant, and was made like vnto men, and was found in shape as a man.

8 Hee humbled himselfe, and became o- bedient vnto the death, euen the death of the crosse.

9 Therefore God hath also highly exal- ted him, and giuen him a name above euer- y name, 10 That at the name of Iesus should every knee bow, both of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things vnder the earth, 11 And that every tongue should confesse that Iesus Christ is the Lord, vnto the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my beloved, as ye haue al- wayes obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but now much more in mine abience, so make an end of your owne saluation with feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deed, euen of his good pleasure.

14 Doe all things without murmuring and reasonings; 15 That ye may be blamelesse, and pure, and the loanes of God without rebuke in the middes of a naughty and crooked nation, among whom ye shine, as lights in the world.

16 Holding forth the word of life, that I may reioyce in the day of Christ, that I have not runne in vaine, neither was labour in vaine.

17 For as though I be offered by you on the sacrifice, and service of your faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also be ye glad, and reioyce with me.

19 And I trust in the Lord Iesus to send Timotheus shortly vnto you: that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man like minded, who will faithfully care for your matters.

21 For all seek their owne, and not that which is Iesus Christs.

22 But yee know the proofe of him, that as a sonne with the father, hee hath serued with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send as soone as I know how it will goe with me.

24 And trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe will come shortly.

25 But I supposed it necessary to send my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my com- panion in labour, and fellow soldier, euen your messenger, and he that ministered vnto me such things as I wanted.

26 For hee longed after all you, and was full of heavinesse, because yee had heard that hee had bene sicke.

27 And no doubt hee was sicke, very neere vnto death: but God had mercy on him, and not on him onely, but on me also, lest I should haue sorrow vpon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more diffi- cultly, that when yee should see him againe, yee might reioyce, and I might be the lesse sorrowfull.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and make much of such: 30 Because that for the work of Christ hee was neere vnto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfill that sentence which was lack- ing on your part toward me.

CHAP. III.

3 Hee warneth them to beware of false teachers, 3 againe whome hee steech Christ, 4 hee saith how saith, 9 and his doctrine, 12 and hee saith that none righteously.

Moreover, my brethren, reioyce in the Lord. It grieveth me not to write the same things to you, and for you it is a sure thing.

2 Beware of dogges: beware of euill workers: beware of the concision.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that hee hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, much more I.

5 Circumcised the right day, of the kin-red of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrewes, by the law a Pharise.

6 Concerning zeale, I persecuted the Church touching the righteousness which is in the law, I was unrebukable.

7 But the things that were vantage vnto me, the same I counted losse for Christes sake.

8 Yea, doubtlesse I thinke all things but losse for the excellent knowledge sake of Christ Iesus my Lord, for whom I haue counted all things losse, and doe indoe them to bee doing, that I might winne Christ.

9 And might bee found in him, that is, not having mine owne righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, euen the righteousness which is of God through faith.

10 That I may know him, and the ver-tie of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his afflictions, and bee made conformed vnto his death.

11 If by any means I might attaine vnto
the resurrection of the dead:

12 Not as though I had already attained it, either were already perfect: but I follow, if that I may comprehend the whole sake also I am comprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my selfe that I have attained to it, but one thing I doe. I forget which is behind, and indoeuie my selfe vnto that which is before.

14 And follow hard toward the marke, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as be perfect, bee thus minded: and if ye be other wise minded, God shall reucale euen the same vnto you.

16 Acquiesce, in that wherunto we are come, let vs proceede by one rule, that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, bee followers of mee, and looke on them, which walke so, as ye haue vs for an example.

18 For many walke, of whom I haue told you often, and now tel you weeping, that they are the enemies of the crosse of Christ,

19 whose end is perdition, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is to their shame, which minde earthly things.

20 But one commendation is in heauen, from whence also we look for the Saviour, euen the Lord Iesus Christ.

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may bee fashioned like vnto his glorious body, according to the working, whereby he is able euen to subdue all things vnto him-

CHAP. IIIII.

8 Hee exhorteth them to be of honest conuersation, 15 and thanketh them, because of the provision that they make for him being in prison, 21 and so concludeth with salutations.

Therefore, my brethren, beloved and longed for, my joy, and my crowne, so continue in the Lord, ye beloved.

2 I pray Euodias, and desired Syntyche, that they be of one accord in the Lord.

3 Pasa, and I desired thee, faithful yoke-fellow, helpe those women, which laboured with mee in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with order my fellow labourers, whose names are in the booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I say, reioyce.

5 Let your patient minde be knowne vnto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Remarking careful, but in all things let your requests bee shewed vnto God in prayer, and supplication, with giuing of thanks.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, shall preserve your hearts and mindes in Christ Iesus.

8 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are iust, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are peaceable, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any vertue, or if there be any praiseworthy thing, thinke on these things.

9 Whether ye haue both learned and recei-ued, and heard, and seen in me; shall things dore, and the God of peace shall bee with you.

10 Now I reioyce also in the Lord greatly, that now at the last ye are reucaled again to care for mee, wherin notwithstanding ye were careful, but yet lacked opportunities.

11 I speake not because of want: for I haue learned in whatsoever state I am, therevnto to be content.

12 And I can be abased, and I can abound: every where in all things I am instructed both to be full, & to be hungry, and to abound, and to haue want.

13 I am able to doe all things through the helpe of Christ, which strengtheneth mee.

14 Notwithstanding ye haue well done, that ye did communicate to my affliction.

The first Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

A Fear that the Thessalonians had bene well instructed in faith, persecution, which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospel, arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as most carefull for them) sent Timothee to strengthen them, who soone after admonishing him of their estate, gave occasion to the Apostle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith, and to suffer whatsoever God calleth them vnto for the testimonie of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the purity of their Religion. And as the Church can neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheat, so there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious questions to ouerthrow their faith, taught falsly, as touching the point of the resurrection from the dead: whereof hee briefly instructeth them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seeke curiously to know the times, willing them rather to watch, lest the sudden coming of Christ come vpon them at vnwares: and so after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, hee endeth.

CHAP. I.

2 He thanketh God for them, that they are so steadfast in faith and good works, 6 and recometh the Gospel with such earnestnesse, 7 That they are an example to all others.

PAUL and Silvanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

2 Wee giue God thanks alwayes for you all, making mention of you in our prayers

3 Without ceasing, remembering your effectuall faith, and diligent loue, and the patience of your hope in our Lord Iesus Christ in the sight of God euen our Father,

4 Knowing, beclouded brethren, that ye are elect of God.

5 For our Gospel was not vnto you in word only, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know after what manner we were among you for your sakes.

6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the word in much affliction, with joy of the holy Ghost,

7 So that ye were as examples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not in Macedonia, and in Achaia only: but your faith also which is toward God (spread abroad in all quarters, that we need not to speake anything.

9 For they themselves shew of you what manner of curing in we had vnto you, and how ye turned to God from idoles, to serue the liuing and true God,

10 And to looke for his Sonne from heauen, whom hee waited from the dead, even Iesus which deliuereth vs from all unrighteousnes.

CHAP. II.

1 To the intent they should not faint under the crosse, 2 hee commendeth his diligence in preaching, 11 And theirs in obeying. 18 Hee exhorteth his absence, that hee could not come and open his heart to them.

FOR ye your selues know brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in vaine.

2 But euen after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully intreated at Philippi (as ye know) we were bold in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospel of God with much striting.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by uncleannesse, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God, that the Gospel should be committed vnto vs, we so speake, not as they that please men, but God which trieth our hearts.

5 And yet ye did we euen by flattering words, as ye know, no colour of comeliness, God is record.

6 And yet sought we praise of men, neither of you, nor of others.

7 When we might haue bin chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but we were gentle among you, euen as a nourse cherissheth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned toward you, our good will was to haue deale vnto you, not the Gospel of God only, but also our owne soules, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for we laboured day and night, because we would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and iustly, and blameably we behaued our selues among you that were beleeue.

11 As ye know how that we exhorted you, and comforted, and brought euey one of you (as a father his children)

12 That ye would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glory.

13 For this cause also thanke we God without ceasing, that when ye receiued of vs the word of the preaching of God, ye refused it not as the word of men, but as it is indeed the word of God, which also worketh in you that beleeue.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Judea are in Christ Iesus, because ye your selues also suffered the same things of your owne

18 Therefore we would have come unto you (I Paul, at least once or twice) but Satan hindered vs.

19 For what is our hope or joy, or crown of glorying? are not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

20 Yes, yet are our glory and joy.

CHAP. III.

He sheweth how gently hee was afflicted to-ward them, both in that hee sent Timothy to them, 10 And also prayed for them.

Wherefore since we could no longer saybeare, we thought it good to remaine at Athens alone.

2 And have sent Timothy our brother, and minister of God, and our labour fellow in the Gospel of Christ, to stablish you and to comfort you touching your faith.

3 That no man should be moved with these afflictions: for ye your selves know, that we are appointed therunto.

4 For verily when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulations, even as it came to passe, and yee know it.

5 Even for this cause, when I could no longer saybeare, I sent him, that I might know of your faith, least the tempter had tempted you in any sort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.

6 But now lately when Timothy came from you unto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith and loue, & that ye have good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring to see vs, as we also doe you,

7 Therefore brethren, we had consolation in you, in all our affliction, and necessity through your faith.

8 For now are we alive, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can wee recompense to God againe for you, for all the joy wherewith we reioyce for your sakes before our God,

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might accomplish that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himselfe, even our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, guide our journey unto you,

12 And the Lord increase you, and make you abound in loue one toward another, and toward all men, even as wee doe toward you:

13 To make your hearts stable, and unblameable in holinesse before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his Saints.

CHAP. III.

He exhorteth them to holinesse, 6 Innocency.

9 Love, 11 Labour, 13 And moderation in lamenting for the dead, 17 Desiring the end of his resurrection.

And furthermore we beseech you, brethren, & exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that ye increase more and more, as ye have received of vs how ye ought to walke, and to please God.

2 For ye know what commandements we gave you by the Lord Jesus,

3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, and that ye should abstaine from fornication,

4 That every one of you should know, how to possess his vessel in holinesse and honour,

5 And not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man oppress or defraud his brother in any matter: for the Lord is avenger of all such things, as we also have told you before time, and testified.

7 For God hath not called vs unto uncleanness, but unto holinesse.

8 We therefore that desire these things, desireth not man, but God who hath given you his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye need not that I write unto you: for ye are taught of God to love one another:

10 For as that thing verily ye doe unto all the brethren, which are throughout all Macedonia: but we beseech you brethren, that ye increase more and more,

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to meddle with your own business, and to work with your owne hands, as we commanded you,

12 That ye may behaue your selves honestly toward them that are without: and that nothing be lacking unto you.

13 I would not brethren, have you ignorant concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as other which have no hope.

14 For if we beleue that Jesus is dead, and is risen, even so them which sleep in Jesus, will God bring with him.

15 For this say we unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which live, and are remaining in the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which sleep.

16 For the Lord himselfe shall descend from heaven with a shout, and with the voice of the Archangel, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first.

17 Then shall we which live and remaine, be caught up with them also in the

CHAP. V.

1 Hee ensworneth them of the day of iudgement and coming of the Lord, 6 Exhorting them to watch, 12 And to regard such as preching Gods word among them,

BE of the times and seasons, brethren, ye haue no neede that I write vnto you.

2 For ye your selues know perfectly, that the day of the Lord shall come, euen as a thiefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, and safety, then shall come vpon them sudden destruction, as the ^b trauaile vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darknesse, that that day should come on you, as it were at thurst.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darknesse.

6 Therefore let vs not sleepe as doe others, but let vs ^a watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastedplate of faith and loue, and the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obtaine saluation by the means of our Lord Iesus Christ.

10 Which died for vs, that whether wee wake or ^a sleepe, wee should liue together with him.

11 Therefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

12 Now wee beseech you, brethren, that ye know them, which labour among you, and are ouer you in the Lord, and admonish you, 13 That ye haue them in singular loue for their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 Allee desire you, brethren, admonish them that are unruly: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weak: be patient toward all men.

15 See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, both toward your selues, and toward all men.

16 Reioyce euermore.

17 Pray continually.

18 In all things giue thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Iesus toward you.

19 Quench not the Spirit.

20 Despise not prophesying.

21 Try all things, and keepe that which is good.

22 Abstaine from all appearance of euill.

23 Show the very God of peace sanctified you throughout: and I pray God that your whole spirit and soule and body, may be kept blamelesse vnto the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ.

24 Faithfull is hee which calleth you, which will also doe it.

25 Brethren, pray for vs.

26 Greete all the brethren with an holy kisse.

27 I charge you in the Lord, that the Epistle bee read vnto all the brethren the Saints.

The second Epistle of Paule to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Lest the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because hee went to other places, Lather then came to them, he writeth vnto them, and exhorteth them to patience and other fruits of faith, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the coming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great part of the world, and that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally, commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, hee willet them to correct such sharply as liue idelly of other mens labours, whom, if they doe not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

3 He thanketh God for their faith, loue and patience. 11 He prayeth for the increase of the same, 12 And sheweth what fruits shall come thereof.

PAUL and Silvanus, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God our Father, & in the Lord Iesus Christ:

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 We ought to thanke God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meete, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the loue of every one of you toward another aboundeth.

a Which proceedeth of your faith as a most notable fruit.

b The faithful by their afflictions see as in a cleare glasse, the end of Gods last iudgement, when as they shall reigne with Christ, which have suffered with him, and the wicked shall see his extreme wrath and vengeance.

e The free benediction of Gods goodness comprehendeth his purpose, his predestination and vocation: the worke of faith containeth our iustification, to the which God addeth glorification: and all these hee worketh of his mere grace through Christ. f Faith is Gods wonderfull worke in vs. g As the head with the body.

4. So that wee our selues reioyce of you in the Churches of God, because of your patience, and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that refulser.

5 Which is a token of the righteous iudgement of God, that yet may bee counted worthy of the kingdome of God, for the which ye also suffer.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you.

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs. when the Lord Iesus shall reue himselfe from heauen with his mighty Angels,

8 In flaming fire, rendering vengeance vnto them that doe not knowe God, and which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 Which shall be punished with everlasting perdition, from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power.

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to bee made marvellous in all them that beleue (because our testimony toward you was beleuen) in that day.

11 Therefore, we also pray alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling, and fulfill all the good pleasures of his goodness, and the worke of faith with power.

12 That the name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, and yet in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

CHAP. III.

3 He sheweth them that the day of the Lord shall not come, till the departing from the faith come first, 9 And the kingdomes of Antichrist, 15 And therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceived, but to stand stedfast in the things that he hath taught them.

NOW wee beseech you brethren, by the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ, and by our assembling vnto him,

2 That ye be not suddenly moued from your minde, nor troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as it were from vs, as though the day of Christ were at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a departing first, and that that a man of sinne be disclosed, even the sonne of perdition.

4 Which is an aduersarie, and exalteth himselfe against al that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that hee doth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing himselfe, that he is God.

5 And hee shall oppose himselfe against the Lord, whose of some hee beares, some lions, other leopards, as Daniel, describeth him, and is called the man of sinne, because he setteth himselfe vp against God. e Who as he destroyeth others, so shall he be destroyed himselfe.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what I withheldeth that he might be reuealed in his time.

7 For the mysterie of iniquity doeth already worke: onely hee which now withholdeth, shall see, till hee be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall the wicked man be reuealed, whose the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall abolish with the brightness of his coming,

9 Even him whose coming is by the working of Satan with all power & signes, and lying wonders.

10 And in all deceitfullnesse of unrighteousnesse, among them that perish, because they received not the loue of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And therefore God shall send them strong delusion, that they should beleue lyes.

12 That all they might be damned, which beleuen not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousnesse.

13 But wee ought to giue thanks alway to God for you, brethren, be loued of the Lord, because that God hath from the beginning, chosen you to saluation, through sanctification of the spirit, and the faith of the truth.

14 Whereunto hee called you by our Gospel, to obtaine the glory of our Lord Iesus Christ.

15 Therefore brethren, stand fast, and keepe the instructions which ye haue bene taught, either by word, or by our Epistle.

16 Now the same Iesus Christ our Lord, and our God, turn the Father which hath loued vs, and hath giuen vs everlasting consolation, and good hope through grace,

17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every word and good worke.

18 And in the fountaine of our election is the loue of God, the sanctification of the spirit, and beleueing the truth, the testimonies of the same election. o Before the foundation of the world. p And Gospel. q By our preaching. r That is the doctrine. 1. FURTHERMORE brethren, pray for vs, that the word of the Lord may haue free passage, and be glorified, even as it is with you.

2 And that wee may bee deliuered from unreasonable and euil men: for all men haue not faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, which will stablish you, and keepe you from all euil.

4 And we are perswaded of you through the Lord, that ye both doe, and will doe the things which we command you.

The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

In writing this Epistle, Paul seemed not onely to have respect to teach Timotheus, but chiefly to keep other in awe, which would have rebelled against him, because of his youth, And therefore he doth arme him against those ambitious questionists, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Lawe, disquieted the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Law, they know not what was the chiefe end of the Law. And as for himselfe, hee so confesseth his vnworthines, that he sheweth to what worthines the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore he wilth prayers to be made for all degrees and sorts of men, because that God by offering his Gospel and Christ his sonne to them all, is indifferent to every sort of men, as his Appelliship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And forasmuch as God hath left ministers as ordinary means in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what manner of men they ought to be, to whom the myserie of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion, men shal teach things contrary to the word of God. This done, hee teacheth what widowers should be receiued or refused to minister to the sick: also what Elders ought to be choien into office, exhorting them neither to bee hasty in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the dueie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnesse, of rich men, and aboue all things he chargeth him to beware of false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office, namely to say that nothing hee taught but Gods word, &c. 5 Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charity, and edification are the end thereof, 20 And admonisheth of Hymeneus and Alexander.

11 Likewise their values must be honest, not rash speakers, but sober, and faithful in all things.

12 Let the Deacons be the husbands of one wife, and such as can rule their children well, and their owne households.

13 For they that have ministered well, get themselves a good degree, and great liber- tie in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, trust- ing to come very shortly unto thee.

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest yet knowe how thou oughtest to behave thy selfe in the house of God, which is the Church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without contencious, great is the mystery of godlinesse, which is, God is manifested in the flesh, manifested in the Spi- rit, a sense of Angels, preached unto the Gen- tiles, beleaved on in the world, and received up in glory.

6 If thou put the brethren in remem- brance of these things, thou shalt bee a good minister of Jesus Christ, which shall bee nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, which thou hast continually followed.

7 But cast away profane, and old wines sables, and exercise thy selfe unto godlinesse.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godlinesse is profitable unto all things, which hath the promise of the life present, and of that that is to come.

9 This is a true saying, and by all means worth to be received.

He that hath faith and a good conscience is promised to have all things necessary for this life, and to enjoy life everlasting.

13 Till I come, give attendance to read- ing, to exhortation, and to doctrine.

14 Despise not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophesie with the laying on of the hands of the companie of the Eldership.

15 These things exercise, & give thy selfe unto them, that it may bee seen how thou proficest among all men.

Rebuke not an elder, but exhort him as a father, and the younger men as brethren.

2 Rebuke women as mothers, the younger as sisters, with all purenesse.

3 Honour widowes, which are widowes indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephewes, let them learne first to know godli- nes toward their owne house, and to recom- pense their kinsred: for that is an honest thing, and acceptable before God.

4 And shee that is a widow indeed, and left alone, trusted in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But shee that lucth in pleasure, is dead while she liveth.

7 These things therefore command, that they may be blameless.

8 If there bee any that would not for his owne, and namely for them of his house- hold, he denieth the faith, and is worse then an infidell.

9 Let not a widow bee taken into the number under charges, yet so old, that hath bene the wife of one husband.

CHAP. VI.

1 The duty of seruants toward their masters. 3 Against such as are not satisfied with the word of God.

6 Of true godliness, and contentation of mind. 9 A gainst conuincion.

11 A charge given to Timothy.

¶ As many seruants as are vnder the Loke, count their masters worthy of all honour, that the Name of God, and his doctrine be not euill spoken of.

2 And they which haue beleuening masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren, but rather doe seruice, because they are faithfull, beloued, & partakers of the benefit. These things teach & exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consenteth not to the wholesome words of our Lord Iesus Christ, & to the doctrine, which is according to godliness,

4 Hee is puffed vp, and knoweth nothing, but doth about questions and strife of words, whereof cometh enuie, strife, railing,

ings, euill sayings,

5 Against dispositions of men of corrupt mindes, and desire of the truth, which thinke that gaine is godliness: from such separate thy selfe.

6 But godliness is great gain, if a man be content with that hee hath.

7 For wee brought nothing into the world, and it is certaine that wee can carie nothing out.

8 Therefore when wee haue food and raiment, let vs therewith be content.

9 For they that will bee rich, fall into temptation and snares, and into many foolish and noysome lusts, which drawe men in perdition and destruction.

10 For the desire of money is the roote of all euill, which while some lusted after, they erred from the faith, and perceded themselves thow with many sorowes.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, loue, patience, and merkeitt.

12 Fight the good fight of faith: lay hold of eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast possessed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I charge thee in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Iesus Christ, which vnder Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession,

14 That thou keepe this commandment without spot, and without blame, vntill the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ, 15 Which in one time shall befall thee, that is blessed and prince onely, the King of kings and Lord of lords.

16 Altho onely hath immortalitye, and dwelleth in the light: that none can attain vnto, whom neuer man law, neither can see, vnto whom be honour and power everlasting, Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high minded, and that they trust not in vaine: riches, but in the liuing God, (which giueth us abundantly all things to enjoy.)

18 That they doe good, and bee rich in good works, and ready to distribute, and communicate,

19 Laying vp in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may obtaine eternal life.

20 O Timothy, keepe that which is committed vnto thee, and smother prophane and vaine babblings, and oppositions of science, falsely so called, in the constant and sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrink for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue as doe husbandmen, which at length receive the fruits of their labours, and to cast off all feare and care, as souldiers doe which seeke onely to please their captaines shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel, which he preached, commanding him to preach the same to others, diligently taking heed of contentions, curious disputations, and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus and Philetus, which subverted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authority and in estimation, hee sheweth that all that professe Christ are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamity, that the euill must dwell among the good till Gods triall come: yet he reserveth them whom hee hath elected, even to the end. And that Timotheus should not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable men, and dangerous times shall follow, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures both against the aduersaries, and for the vtility of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessary affaires, and to with his and other salutations endeth.

21 Which while some profess, they haue erred concerning the faith. Grace bee with thee, Amen.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to steadfastness and patience in persecution, and so continue in the doctrine that he had taught him, 12 Whereof his bandes and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Iesus,

2 To Timotheus my beloved sonne: Grace, merite and peace from God the Father, and from Iesus Christ our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serue from mine childhood with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day.

4 Desiring to see thee, mindfull of thy tears, that I may be filled with ioy:

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou standest by the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

7 For God hath not given to vs the Spirit of feare, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Bee not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, neither of mee his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath saved vs and called vs with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his owne purpose and grace which was given to vs through Christ Iesus before the world was.

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Iesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality vnto light through the Gospel.

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

And though I am counted vile, yet was honourable and glorious: therefore our mindes ought to be lifted vp from the consideration of worldly things, to contemplate the maiestie thereof. 1. Tim. 3. 7.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I know whom I haue believed, and I am perswaded that hee is able to keepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.

13 Keepe the true paterne of the wholesome words, which thou hast heard of me in faith and love which is in Christ Iesus.

14 That thou mayest bring up thy sonne as thou hast been brought up, which I haue committed to thee, keep through the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, returned from me: of which sort are Diogenes and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercy vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him that he may finde mercy with the Lord at that day, and in how many things hee hath ministered vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

3 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and so abide fast in the wholesome doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ, 11 Showing him the fildrines of Gods counsell touching the saluation of his, 19 and the marks thereof.

Thou therefore my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Iesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of mee, by many witnesses, the same deliver to faithful men, which shall be able to teach other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.

4 As man that warreth entangleth himselfe with the affaires of this life, because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if any man also strue for a martir, he is not crowned, except he strue as he ought to doe.

6 The husbandman must labour before he receive the fruits.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lord giue thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Iesus Christ, made of the seed of Dauid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel.

Resisters of the truth.

1 For men shall louers of their owne senses, couetous, boasters, proud, couled flatterers, disobedient to parents, without thankfull, unholy,
2 Without naturall affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, intemperate, fierce, despisers of them which are good,
3 Traitors, heauy, he minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God, 4 Having a shew of godlikenesse, but haue denied the power thereof: turne away therefore from such.
5 For of this sort are they which creepe into houses, and leade captiue simple women laden with finnes, and led with diuers lusts,
6 Which women are euer learning, and are neuer able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
7 And as Iannes and Iambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth, men of corrupt mindes, reprobate concerning the faith.
8 But they shall peruaile no longer: for their madness shall be euident vnto all men, as theirs also was.
9 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of liuing, purpose, faith, long suffering, loue, patience,
10 Persecutions, and afflictions which came vnto mee at Antiochia, at Iconium and at Lystr, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lord deliuered mee.
11 Yea, and all that will liue godly in Christ Iesus, shall suffer persecution.
12 But the euill men and deceiters shall waxe worse and worse, deceiuing and being deceiued.
13 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and are perswaded thereof, knowing of whom thou hast learned them.
14 And that thou hast known the holy Scriptures of a child, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation through the faith which is in Christ Iesus.
15 For the whole Scripture is giuen by inspiration of God, and is profitable to teach, to reprove, to correct, and to instruct in righteousness.
16 For the man of God may bee absolute, being made perfect vnto all good works.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hee exhorteth Timotheus to bee firmest in the word, and to suffer aduersities, 2 maketh mention of his owne death, 3 and biddeth Timothee come vnto him.

I Charge thee therefore before God, and before the Lord Iesus Christ, which shall iudge the quick and dead at his appearing, and in his kingdom,

2 Preach the word: be instant in season and out of season: reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come, when they will not suffer wholesome doctrine: but hauing their eares itching, shall after their owne lusts get them an heape of teachers,
4 And shall turne their eares from the truth, and shall be giuen vnto fables.

5 But

THE ARGVMENT.

WHEN Titus was left in Creta to ſeek that doctrine which Paul had there begun, Satan ſtirred vp certaine which went about not onely to overthrow the government of the Church, but alſo to corrupt the doctrine: for ſome by ambition would haue thruſt in themſelues to be paſtors: others, vnder pretext of Moſes Law brought in many vſes. Againſt theſe two ſorts of men Paul armeth Titus: firſt teaching him what manner of miniſters hee ought to chuſe, chiefly requiring that they be of ſound doctrine, to ſee intent they might reſiſt the aduerſaries, & among other things hee noteth the lewes which put a certaine holineſſe in meats and ſuch outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exerciſes of a Chriſtian life, and what things appertaine to euery mans vocation. Againſt the which, if any man rebell or els doeth not obey, hee willett him to be anyoied.

5 For this cauſe left I thee in Creta, that thou ſhouldeſt continue to reſiſt the things that remaine, and ſhouldeſt ordaine Elders in euery city, as I appointed thee.

To Titus.

Stay foolish questions.

i Which were not onely the Iewes, but also the Hebionites and Cerinthians heretikes, which taught that the Law must be obeyed with Christ. k He calleth Epimenides the Philosopher or Poet, whole verbe he hereretiseth, a Prophet, because the Cre- tians fo esteemed him; and as La- artius writeth they sacrificed vnto him, as to a God, forasmuch as he had a maruclous gift to vnderstand thinge to come: which thinge Satan by the permission of God bath opened to the infidels from time to time, but it turneth to their greater condemnation. i. Tim. 1. 4 Rom. 14. 20. 1 Forasmuch as they stay at thinge of no thing, and passe not for them, that are of importance, and fo giue themselues to all wickednesse, chiefly they of the circumcission, 11 Whole mouthes must be stopp'd, which subuert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for they increas lake.

12 One of themselves, even one of their owne^a p'phets sayd, The Cretians are al- wayes spars, euill beasts, slowe bellies.

13 This witness is true: wherefore re- buke them sharply, that they may be found from the truth.

14 And not taking heede to Jewish fa- bles and commandmentsof men, that turne from the truth.

15 Vnto the pure^a are all things pure, but vnto them that are defiled, and vnderfuing is nothing pure, but euen their mindes and consciences are defiled.

16 They profess that they know God, but by woikes they deny him, and are abomina- ble and disobedient, and vnto every good woike reprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 He commendeth vnto him the whole some do- ctine, and telleth him how he shall teach all degrees to behaue themselves, a 1 Through the benefit of the grace of Christ.

Behold thou the things which become whole some doctrine,

2 That the elder men bee sober, honest discret, sound in the faith, in loue, and in pa- tience:

3 The elder women likewise, that they be in such behauiour as becometh holinesse, not false accusers, not giuen to much wine, but teachers of honest things,

4 That they may instruct the yong wo- men to be sober minded, that they loue their husbands, that they loue their children.

5 That they be discret, chaste, keeping at home, good, & subiect vnto their husbands, that the word of God bee not euill spoken of.

6 Exhort yong men likewise that they be sober minded.

7 About all things shew thy selfe an ex- ample of good woikes with vnco'rrupt doc- trine, with grauitie, integritie,

8 And with the whole some word, which cannot be expounerd, that be which withstan- der, may be ashamed, hauing nothing con- cerning you to speake ruffill.

9 Let seruants bee subiect to their mas- ters, and please them in all things, not an- swering againe.

10 Neither pickers, but that they shew all good faithfulness, that they may adorne the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the Grace of God, that bringeth saluation vnto all men hath appeared.

12 And teacheth vs that we should deny vn godliness, and worldly lusts, and that we should be sober, and righteously, and god- ly in this present world.

13 Looking for the blessed hope, and appearing of the glory of the mighty God, and of our Saviour Jesus Christ.

14 Who gaue himselfe for vs, that hee might redeme vs from all iniquitie, and purge vs to bee a peculiar people vnto him- selfe; zealous of good woikes.

15 These things speake, and exhort, and rebuke with all auctoritie. See that no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

1 Obsequious to such as bee an authority, 9 He warneth Titus to beware of foolish and vnp'plicable questions, 12 Concluding with certain promises mat- terly, 15 And salutations.

Put them in remembrance that they be subiect to the principalities and powers, and that they be obedient and ready to every good woike.

2 That they speake ruffill of no man that they bee no fighters, but soft, shewing all meeknesse vnto all men.

3 For we our selues also were in times past vnwise, disobedient, deceited, seruing the lusts and diuers pleasures, lying in ma- liciousnes and enuy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But when the bountifullnesse, and loue of God our Saviour toward man appeared.

5 Not by the woikes of righteousness, which were had done, but according to his mercy he saued vs, by the washing of the new birth, & the renewing of the holy Ghost.

6 Which hee shedde on vs abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

7 That we being iustified by his grace, should be made heires according to the hope of eternall life.

8 This is a true saying, and these things I will thou shouldest affirme, that they which haue believed in God, might be carefull to shew forth good woikes. These things are good and profitable vnto men.

9 But stay foolish questions & genealo- gies, & contentions, & bawling about the Law: for they are vnp'plicable and vaine.

10 Rectify him that is an heretike, after once or twice admonition.

11 Knowing that hee that is such, is per- uerted, and a sinners being damned of his owne selfe.

12 When I shall send Artemas vnto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me vnto Nicopolis: for I haue determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the expouner of the law, and Apollos on their journey diligently, that they lacke nothing.

14 And let ours also learne to shew forth good woikes for necessary uses, that they be not fruitfull.

15 All that are with mee, salute thee. Seerte them that loue vs in the faith Grace be with you all. Amen.

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witness and a declaration of the same. For farre passing the baseness of his matter, he flyeth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and Maiesty. Onesimus seruant to Philemon both robbed his master, and fled away, whom Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weightie arguments proouing the duties of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

4. Hee reioyceth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, 9. whom hee desireth to forgive his seruants Onesimus, and longingly to receive him againe.

Paul a prisoner of Iesus Christ, & our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend & fellow helper, 2 And to our beare sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow souldier, and to the Church that is in thine house:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I giue thanks to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,

5 (When I heard of thy loue and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Iesus, and toward all Saints)

6 That the fellowship of thy faith may be made fruitfull, and that whateuer good thing is in you through Christ Iesus may be knownen.

7 For we haue great joy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saints hearts are comforted.

8 Wherefore though I bee very bold in Christ to command thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for lones sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, even Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my sonne Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds,

11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to me.

12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, that is mine owne bowels,

13 Whom I would haue retained with mee, that in thy stead hee might haue ministered vnto me in the bonds of the Gospel.

14 But without thy minde would I doe nothing, that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15 It may be that hee therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldst receiue him for euer.

16 Not now as a seruant, but about a seruant, euen as a brother beloued, specially to me: how much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If therefore thou count our things common, receiue him as my selfe.

18 If hee hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.

19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I will recompence it, albeit I doe not say to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.

20 Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my bowels in the Lord.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.

22 Wherefore also prepare mee longing for I trust through your prayers I shall bee giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner in Christ Iesus,

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke my fellow helpers.

25 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Written from Rome to Philemon, and sent by Onesimus a seruant.

d He fled away from thee.

e For he is thy seruant by condition, and also now the Lords: so that both for thine owne sake & for the Lords, thou oughtest to loue him. f That all thine is mine, and all mine is thine.

The Epistle to the Hebrewes.

THE ARGUMENT.

Forasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines witness, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knownen, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the author thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authority although we know not with what pen he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chief purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an end: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the Prophecies, and therefore not onely Moyses was inferior to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and be the Lord, but so Lord that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe, for he is that eternal Priest, whereof all the Leuitical Priests were but shadows, & therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as be proueth from the 7. Chap. vers. 11. vnto the 12. Chap. vers. 8. Also he was that Prophet of whom all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. vers. 18 to the twentysixth verse of the same Chapter: yea, and is the King to whom all things are subiect, as appeareth from it at verse 5. to the beginning of the last Chapter. Wherefore according to the examples of the old fathers, wee

we must constantly beleene in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdom, and gouerned by his power, we may steadfastly and courageously perseuere euen to the end, in hope of that toy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises, that we may both be thankfull to God, and dutiefull to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

1 Hee sheweth the excellency of Christ, 4 aboute the Angels, 7 and of their office.

a God, who is euer constant and mercifull to his Church declared his will in time past, not all at once, or after one sort, but from time to time and in sundry fortis: but now last of all he hath fully declared all truth to vs by his Sonne.

c He increaseth here of Christ both as touching his person, which is very God and very man, by whom all things are made, & also as touching his office, whereby he is King, Prophet, and Priest.

1 In sundry times and in diuers manners. God spake in the old time to our fathers by the Prophets:

2 In these last dayes he hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, whom hee hath made heire of all things, by whom also he made the worldes.

3 Who being the brightnes of the glorie, and the ingraued forme of his person, and bearing vp all things by his mightie word, hath by himselfe purged our finnes, and sitteth at the right hand of his maiesty, in the highest places.

4 And is made so much more excellent then the Angels, inasmuch as hee hath obtained a more excellent name then they.

5 For vnto which of the Angels said he at any time, Thou art my Sonne, & this day begate I thee? And againe, I will bee his Father, and he shall be my Sonne?

6 And againe when hee bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the world, hee saith, And let all the Angels of God worship him.

7 And of the Angels he saith, I will make the Spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But vnto the Sonne he saith, I God, thy throne is for euer and euer: the scepter of thy kingdom is a scepter of righteousness.

9 Thou hast loued righteousness, and hated iniquity. Wherefore God, euen thy God, hath anoynted thee with the oyle of gladnesse above thy fellows.

10 And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thyne hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou doest remaine: and they all shall waxe old as doth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them vp, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not faile.

13 Vnto which also of the Angels said he at any time, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister, for their sake which shall be heires of saluation?

10 Because it was necessary that for our sakes hee should take such an humble state vpon him, that hee might be like vnto his brethren.

VVherofe we ought diligently to giue heed to the things which wee haue heard, lest at any time wee should let them slippe.

2 For if the worde spoken by Angels was steadfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of reward.

3 How shall we escape, if wee neglect so great saluation, which at the first began to bee preached by the Lord, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by them that heard him.

4 God bearing witness thereto, both with signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will?

5 For hee hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the world to come, whereof wee speake.

6 But one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, What is man, that thou shouldest be minded full of him, or the sonne of man that thou wouldest consider him?

7 Thou madest him a little inferior to the Angels: thou crownedst him with glorie and honour, and hast set him aboute the workes of thyne hands.

8 Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete. And in that hee hath put all things in subiection vnder him, hee left nothing that should not be subiect vnto him.

9 But we yet see not all things subdued vnto him.

10 For we see Iesus crowned with glorie and honour, which was made a little inferior to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

11 For he became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, seeing that hee brought many children vnto glorie, that he should consecrate the Prince of their saluation through afflictions.

12 For hee that sanctifieth, and they which are sanctified, are all of one: wherefore hee is not ashamed to call them brethren.

13 Saying, I will declare thy Name vnto my brethren: in the middes of the Church will I sing psalms to thee.

which Christ, Matth. 28. 18. 1. cor. 15. 27. phil. 2. 9, 10, 11. h To them which obiect that they see not these things accomplished in man, the Apostle answereth that they are fulfilled in Christ our captain, who leadeth his to the same glory with him. i To man, he is of Christ. k By his vertue which most manifestly appeareth in the Church. l Iesus Christ by humbling himselfe, and taking vpon him the forme of a seruant, which was our flesh, and mortality, giueth vs assurance of our saluation. m Therefore we by afflictions are made like vnto the Sonne of God, n The head and the members are of one nature: so Christ which sanctifieth vs, and we that are sanctified, are all one by the vnion of our flesh, Psalm 22. o This proueth Christs humanity.

CHAP. III.

1 He requireth them to be obedient vnto the word of Christ, 2 who is more worthy then Moses. 12 The punishment of such as will harden their hearts, and not beleue that they might haue eternal rest.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly vocation, consider the Apostle and high Priest of our profession, Christ Iesus:

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appointed him, euen as * Moses was in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthy of more glory then Moses, inasmuch as hee which hath builded the house, * hath more honour then the house.

4 For euery house is builded of some man, and he that hath builded all things, is * God.

5 Now Moses verily was faithfull in all his house, as a servant, for a witness of the things which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose * house we are, if we hold fast the confidence, and the rejoycing of the hope vnto the end.

7 Wherefore as the holy Ghost saith, * To day if ye shall heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the * pronocation, according to the day of the temptation in the wilderness,

9 Where your fathers tempted me, prouoked mee, and saw my works fourty yeres long.

but Christ builded it, & laid the stones; therefore he dwelleth in the more praise.

12 Take heede, brethren, lest at any time there bee in any of you an euill heart, and vnfaithfull, to depart away from the liuing God.

13 But exhort one another dayly, while it is called * To day, lest any of you bee hardened through the deceitfulness of sinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe fast vnto the ende the beginning, whereunto we are bounden.

15 So long as it is sayd, * To day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the pronocation.

16 For some when they heare, pronoked him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he displeased for yeres: was he not displeased with them that sinned, * whose * carkefills fill in the wilderness?

18 And to whome sware hee, that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that obeyed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of vnbeleefe.

i As disobeying God, they in old time were debarr'd from the quietnes of the land of Canaan: so they which do not obey Christ, shall not enter into the heavenly rest. k Which is all that time wherein God doth call vs: while he therfore speaketh, let vs heare. l Which is by faith to embrace and hold fast the true doctrine of Iesus Christ. m To wit, the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

2 The word without faith is vnprefitable, 3 The Sabbath or rest of the Christians. 6 Punishment of vnbeleuers, 12 The nature of the word of God.

1 Thus feare therefore, lest at any time by forsaking the promise of entering into his rest, any of you should seeme to bee de- proued.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospell preached as also vnto them: but the word that they heare, profiteth not them, because it was not * mixt with faith in those that heare it.

3 For where which haue beleued, do enter into rest, as he said to the other, * As I haue twome in my wrath, If * they shall enter into my rest: although * the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certaine place of the seventh day on this wise, * And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth, that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached, entered not therein for vnbeleefe sake:

7 Againe he appointed * in Dauid a certain day by To day, after so long a time, saying, as it is said, * This day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For if * Iesus had giuen them rest, then would hee not after this day haue spoken of another.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For hee that is entered into his rest, * hath also ceased from his owne works, a He compareth the preaching of the Gospell, as it were, to wine, whereof if we will taste, that is, heare and vnderstand with profit we must temper or mixe it with faith.

Psal. 95. 11.

b Although thus God by his rest, after the creation of his works signified the spiritual rest of faithfull, yet he sware to giue rest in Canaan, which was but a figure of the heavenly rest and endured but for a time.

m Therefore when we heare his word, we must numble, knowing thereby that God soundeth our hearts.

as God did from his.

11 Let vs study therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of disobedience.

12 For the word of God is lively & mighty in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and it entereth throug, euen vnto the diuiding alunder of the soule and the spirit, and of the kyneys, and the marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked & open vnto his eyes, || with whom we haue to doe.

14 Seeing then that we haue a great hie Priest, which is entered into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an hie Priest, which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore goe boldly vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and find grace to helpe in time of need.

CHAP. V.

5 He compareth Iesu Christ with the Leviticall Priest, shewing wherein they either agree, or dissent.

11 Afterward he reprehendeth the negligence of the leues.

FoR every high Priest is taken from among men, and is ordeined for men, in things pertaining to God, that hee may offer both gifts, and sacrifices for sinnes.

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them, that are ignorant, and that are out of the way, because that he also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And for the same sake he is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne part, as for the peoples.

4 And no man taketh this honoy vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himselfe this honour to be made the high Priest, but he that sayd vnto him, Thou art my Sonne, this day begat I thee, gaue it him.

6 As hee also in another place speaketh, Thou art a Priest for ever after, the order of Melchisedec.

7 Which in the dayes of his flesh did offer by prayers and supplications, with a strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also ready in that which he feared.

8 And though hee were the Sonne, yet learned he obedience, by the things which he suffered.

9 And being consecrate, was made the author of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him.

10 And is called of God an high Priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom we haue many things to say, which are hard to be uttered, because ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time ye ought to be teachers, ye haue yet neede againe that we reach you the first principles of the word of God: and are become (such as haue neede of) milke, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that drinketh milke, is inept in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wits exercised, to discern both good and euill.

CHAP. VI.

1 He proceedeth in reproving them, and exhorteth them not to faint.

12 But to be steadfast and patient, as forasmuch as God iurvs in his promise.

Therefore leaving the doctrine of the beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God.

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and laying on of hands, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternal iudgement.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 For it is impossible that they, which were once enlightened, and haue tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good word of God, & of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renewed againe by repentance: lest they crucifie againe to themselves the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that cometh oft vpon it, & bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briars, is reprobous, and is neere vnto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloved, we haue persecuted our selues better things of you, and such as accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that he should forget your worke, and labour of loue which ye shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministered vnto the Saints, and yet minister.

11 And wee desire that every one of you shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope vnto the end.

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, which through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because hee had no greater to sweare by, he swore by himselfe.

14 Saying, Surely I will abundantly bless thee, and multiply thee marvellously.

15 And so after that hee had rayed patiently, he enjoyed the promise.

CHAP. VII.

1 How compare the Priesthood of Christ unto Melchisedec. 11 Also Christs Priesthood with the Leuites.

1 For this Melchisedec was King of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham, as he returned from the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed him.

2 To whom also Abraham gave the tithes of all things, who first is by interpretation, King of righteousness: after that, he is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace.

3 Without father, without mother, without kindred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, neither end of life: but is likened unto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for ever.

4 Now consider how great this man was unto whom euen the Patriarch Abraham gave the tithes of the spoiles.

5 For hereby they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the Priesthood, haue a commandement to take according to the Law, tithes of the people (that is of their brethren) though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But he whose kindred is not counted among them, received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And her men that die receiue tithes:
but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed, that he is liue.

9 And so sayes the thing is, Leui also which receiveth tithes, paid tithes in Abraham.

10 For hee was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthood of the Leuites (for vnder it the Law was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not to be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the Priesthood be changed, then of necessity must there bee a change of the Law.

13 For hee of whom these things are spoken, remained vnto another tribe, wherof no man serued at the Altar.

14 For it is evident, that our Lord sprung out of Iuda, concerning the which Tribe Moses spake nothing touching the Priesthood.

15 And it is yet a more evident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchi-sedec there is risen by another Priest.

16 Which is not made Priest after the Law of the carnall Commandement, but after the power of the endless life.

17 For he testified thus, * Thou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Melchi-sedec.

18 For the Commandement that went before, is disannulled, because of the weaknesse thereof, and unprofitable.

19 For the Law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope made perfect, wherby we draw nere vnto God.

20 And forasmuch as it is not without an oath (for Christ is made Priest without an oath):

21 But this, hee is made with an oath by him that sayd vnto him, * The Lord hath sworne, and will not repent, * Thou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Melchi-sedec.)

22 By so much as Jesus made a surety of a better Testament.

23 And among them many were made Priests, because they were not suffered to endure by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because he endured ever, hath an everlasting Priesthood.

25 Wherefore, he is able also perfectly to save them that come vnto God by him, seeing he euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, blameless, vndefiled, did he once, when he offered by himselfe.

maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for

CHAPTER IX.

How that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the Law are abolished, 11 by the eternall perfection of Christs sacrifice.

Then the first Testament had also // ordinance of religion, and a worldly sanctuary.

For the first Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the holy places.

And after the second vail was the Tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all.

33 Partly while you were made a gazing stocke both by reproches and afflictions, and partly while yee became companions of them which were || so tolled to and fro.
34 For both yee were tormented with me for my bonds, and suffered with me for the spoilings of your goods, knowing in your selues how that ye haue in heauen a better and an enduring substance.
35 Goe not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompence of reward.
36 For ye haue need of patience, that after yee haue done the will of God, ye might receiue the promise.
37 For yet a very litle while, and he that shall come, will come, and will not tarry.

39 But we are not they which withdraw our selues vnto perdition, but follow faith vnto the conseruation of the soule.

CHAP. XI.

1 What faith is, and a commendation of the same.
6 Without faith we cannot please God, 16 The firstfruits beleeve of the Fathers in the old time.

Now to faith is the ground of things which are hoped for, and the euidence of things which are not seene.
2 For by it our Elders were well reported of.
3 Through faith we understand that the world was ordered by the word of God, so that the things which we see, are not made of things which did appeare.
4 By faith Abel offered vnto God a greater sacrifice then Cain, by the which he obtained witness that he was a righteous, God testifying of his gifts: by the which faith also, he being dead, yet liueth.
5 By faith was Enoch taken away, that he should not see death, neither was he found: for God had taken him away: for because he was taken away, he was reported of, that he had pleased God.
6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for hee that cometh to God, must beleeue that God is, and that hee is a rewarder of them that seeke him.

7 By faith Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not seene, moued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the saving of his household, through the which Arke hee condemned the world, and was made heire of the righteous which is by faith.
8 By faith Abraham, when hee was called, obeyed God, to go out into a place, which hee should afterward receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whether hee went.
9 By faith hee abode in the land of promise, as in a strange country, as one that dwelle in tents with Isaac and Jacob betwixt with him of the same promise.
10 For he looked for a city hauing a foundation, whose builder and maker is God.
11 Through faith Sarah also receiued strength to conceive seed, and was deliuered of a child, when hee was past age, because shee iudged him faithful which had promised.
12 And therefore sprang there of one ruen of one which was dead, so many as the stars of the heaue in multitude, and as the sand of the Sea shore which is innumerable.
13 All these died in faith, and yet receiued not the promises, but saw them afarre off, and beleued them, and received them thankfully, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.
14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seeke a country.
15 And if they had bene minded full of that country, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned.
16 But now they desire a better, that is an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for hee hath prepared for them a citie.
17 By faith Abraham offered by Isaac, when he was tryed, and hee that had receiued the promises, offered his only begotten Sonne.
18 (To whom it was sayd, In Isaac shall the seed bee called.)
19 For he considered that God was able to raise him vp euen from the dead: from whence he receiued him also after a sort.
20 By faith, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.
21 By faith, Jacob when hee was a dying, blessed both the sonnes of Joseph, and leaving on the end of his liues, worshipped God.
22 By faith Joseph when hee died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, he gaue commandment of his bones.
23 By faith Moses when hee was borne was thre Moneths of his parents, because they saw hee was a proper child, neither feared they the Kings commandment.
24 By faith Moses when hee was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaohs daughter.
25 And chose rather to suffer abuse with the people of God, then to enjoy the pleasures

3 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against sinners, lest ye should be wearied, and faint in your mindes.

4 Ye haue not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sinne.

5 And ye haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children, By some, despite not the chastening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loveth, he chasteneth: and he scourgeth euerie sonne that he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God will correct himselfe vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it, whom the Father chasteneth not?

8 If therefore ye bee without correction, wherof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sonnes.

9 Wherefore, we haue had the fathers of our bodies which corrected vs, and we gaue them reverence: should we not much rather be in subiection vnto the Father of spirits, that we might liue?

10 For they verily for a few dayes chastened vs after their own pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our profit, that we might bee partakers of his holinesse.

11 Now no chastising for the present seemeth to be for sorow, but grievous: but afterward it bringeth the quiet fruit of righteousness, vnto them which are thereby exercised.

12 Wherefore lift vp your handes which hang downe, and your weak knees, faith, but to declare a true faith by lively fruits, to avoid ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble and love their neighbours, to be ware of swearing, to enter their lanes when they have offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way to the knowledge of Christ.

28 Knowing that the trying of your faith bringeth forth patience. 29 And let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

30 If any of you lacke wisdom, let him aske of God, which giveth to all men liberally, and reproveth no man, and it shall be given him.

31 But let him aske in faith, and waunce not: for he that waunceth, is like a wave of the sea, tossed of the winds and carried away.

32 Further let that man thinke that hee shall receive any thing of the Lord.

33 If swearing minded man is unstable in all his wayes.

34 Let the brother of low degree reioyce in that he is exalted:

35 Again, he that is rich, in that he is made low: for as the floure of the grasse shall he vanishe away.

36 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, and the beauty of the fashion of it perisheth: even so shall the rich man fade away in all his wayes.

37 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, hee shall receive the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

38 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with euill, neither tempteth he any man.

39 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away by his owne concupiscence, and is enticed.

40 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

41 Eere not, my deare brethren.

42 Every good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, & cometh downe from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadowing of turning.

43 Of his owne will begate he us with the word of truth, that we should be as the first fruits of his creatures.

44 Wherefore my deare brethren, let every man be swift to heare, slow to speake, and slow to wrath.

45 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish the righteousnesse of God.

46 Therefore lay apart all filthinesse, and superfluities of malitiousnes, and receive with meeknesse the word that is grafted in you, which is able to save your soules.

47 And be ye doers of the word, and not hearers onely, declaring your owne selves.

48 For if any heare the word, and doe it not, he is like unto a man that buildeth his naturall face in a glass.

49 For when he hath considered himselfe, he goeth his way, and forgetteth immediately what manner of one he was.

50 But whoso looketh in the perfect Law of libertie, and continueth therein, hee not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shall be blessed in his deed.

51 If any man among you seemeth religious, and restraineth not his tongue, but deceiveth his owne heart, his maner religion is vaine.

52 Pure religion and undefiled before God, even the Father, is this, to visite the fatherles and widowes in their adversity, and to keepe himselfe unpolluted of the world.

C H A P. II.

1 He forbiddeth to haue any spirit of person, but to regard the poore as well as the rich. 3 To be loving and mercifull, and not to boast of faith, where no deeds are. 17 For to be a dead faith, where good workes follow not.

My brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ in respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a gold ring and in goodly apparel and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment.

3 And ye haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit heere vnder my footstool.

4 Are ye not partiall in your selves, and are become iudges of euill? thought's.

5 Weaken my beloued brethren, hath not God chosen the poore of this world, that they should be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which hee promised to them that love him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Do not the rich oppress you by tyranny, and doe not they draw you before the iudgement seats?

7 Doe not they blasphem the word by name after which ye be named.

and want, and get nothing, because ye are not.

3 Ye are not receive not, because ye are the amiss, that ye might consume it on your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the amiss of the world is the enmity of God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, maketh himselfe the enemy of God.

5 Doe ye thinke that the Scripture sayth in vaine, The spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enmity?

6 But the Scripture offereth more grace, and therefore sayth, God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

7 Submit your selves to God: resist the devil, and he will resist you.

8 Draw neere to God, and he will draw neere to you. Cleanse your hands ye sinners, and purge your hearts, ye boasting mind.

9 Suffer afflictions, and forsooke ye, and weep: let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your joy into heaviness.

10 Cast downe your selves before the Lord, and he will lift you vp.

11 Speake not rill of one of another, brethren. He that speaketh rill of his brother, or he that condemneth his brother, speaketh rill of the Law, and condemneth the Law: and if thou condemnest the Law, thou art not an observer of the Law, but a judger.

12 There is one Lawgiver, which is able to save, and to destroy. Altho art thou that judgest another man?

13 Doe to now yet that say, I to day as to morrow will goe into such a cite, and continue there a yeere, and buy and sell, and get gain.

14 (And yet ye cannot tell what shall bee to morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour that appeareth for a litle time, and afterward vanisheth away.)

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, and, If wee live, wee will doe this or that.

16 But now ye reioyce in your boastings: all such reioycing is rill.

17 Therefore, to him that knoweth how to doe well, and doeth it not, to him it is sinne.

CHAP. V.

5 He that hateth his brother is wicked rich man, 7. who receiveth wages for sinne, 12 to beware of swearing, 16 one to knoweledge his faults to another, 20 and one to labour to bring another to the truth.

18 Doe to now, ye rich men: weep, and howle for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupt, and your garments are moth eaten.

3 Your golde and silver is cankered, and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire.

4 Ye have heaped by treasures for the last dayes.

5 Behold, the hire of the labourers, which have reaped your fields (which is of you kept backe by fraud) cryeth, and the cries of them which have reaped, are entered into the eares of the Lord of hosts.

6 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and in wantonnesse: Ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

7 Ye have condemned and have killed the sould, and he hath not refused you.

8 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, untill he receive the former, and the latter raine.

9 Be ye also patient therefore, and lettle your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth neere.

10 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the Judge standeth before the doore.

11 Take, my brethren, the Prophets for an example of suffering adversity, of long patience, which have spoken in the name of the Lord.

12 Behold, we count them blessed which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have knowne what end the Lord made. For the Lord is very pitifull and mercifull.

13 But before all things, my brethren, I swear, neither by heaven, nay by earth, nor by any other othe: but let your yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, lest ye fall into condemnation.

14 Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any merie? Let him sing.

15 Is any sicke among you? Let him call for the Elders of the Church, and let them pray for him, and anoynt him with oyle in the name of the Lord.

16 And the prayer of faith shall save the sicke, and the Lord shall raise him vp: and if he have committed sinne, it shall be forgiven him.

17 Acknowledge your sinnes one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed: for the prayer of a righteous man availeth much, if it be true.

18 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not raine, and it rained not on the earth for threer yeeres and sixe moneths.

19 And he prayed againe, and the heaven gaue raine, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

20 Brethren, if any of you have erred from the truth, and some man hath converted him,

21 Let him knowe that he which hath converted the sinner from going astray out of his way, shall save a soule from death, and shall hide a multitude of sinnes.

Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

He exhorteth the faithful to denie themselves, and to conserue the world, that being deliuered from all carnall affections; and impediments; they may more speedily attaine to the heavenly kingdomes of Christ, wherunto was called by the grace of God revealed to him in his Sonne, and haue already recouied it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by beliefe of life. And to the intent this faith should not faile, seeing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole world; hee declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifye that hee should be the stumbling stone to the reprobare, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithful: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to goe forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he enargeth particular points, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how manied folkes ought to behaue themselves. And because it is appointed for all that are godly to suffer persecutions, he reuerech them what good issue their afflictions shall haue, and contrariwise what punishment God rewardeth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue themselves, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to bee modest, and apt to learne, and to endeth with an exhortation.

CHAPTER

2 Hee sheweth that through the abundant mercy of God wee are cleafe and regenerate to a lively hope, 7 and how faith must be tryed, 10 that the salvation in Christ is no newe, but a thing prophesied of old, 13 Hee exhorteth them to a godly conversation, forasmuch as they are new borne anew by the word of God.

22 Seeing your soules are purified in obeying the truth through the spirit to "love brotherly without feining, love one another with a pure heart sincerely.

23 Bring forth anew not of mortal seed, but of immortality, by the word of God who lived and endured for ever.

24 For all "flesh is as grass, & all the glory of man is as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower falleth away.

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever; and this is the word which is preached among you.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth them to lay aside all vice, & following that Christ is the foundation whereupon they build. 2 The excellent estate of the Christian. 3 He prayeth them to abstain from fleshly lusts. 4 To obey the rulers. 5 How servants should behave themselves toward their masters. 6 He exhorteth to suffer after the example of Christ.

Wherefore "laying aside all maliciousnes, and all guile and dissimulation, and envy, and all evil speaking,

2 As new borne babes, desire "the "honest milke of the word, that ye may grow thereby,

3 As to be that ye have tasted how bountifull the Lord is.

4 To whom ye come as unto a living stone disallowed of men, but chosen of God, and precious.

5 And ye as "living stones be made a spiritual house, an holy "dwelling to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 "Wherfore it is contained in the Scripture, "Behold, I put in "Shew a chaste comely, cleere and precious; and he that believeth therein, shall not be ashamed.

7 Unto you therefore which believe, it is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, "the stone to which the "builders disallowe, the same is made the head of the corner.

8 And a "stone to stumble at, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word being disobedient unto the which thing they were even obedient.

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a "royall "priesthood, an holy nation, a "peculiar people, that ye should shew forth the virtues of him that hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

10 "Which in time past were not a people, yet are now the people of God, which in time past were not under mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers & pilgrims, "abstaine from fleshly lusts, which fight against the soule.

12 And have your conversation honest among the Gentiles, that they which speak evil of you as of evil doers, may by your "good works which they shall see, glorifie

God in the day of "the visitation.

13 "Abstaine your selves both all "uncomely ordinance of man for the Lords sake, whether it be unto the king, as unto the superiours.

14 As unto Governours, as unto them that are sent of him for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that doe well.

15 For so is the will of God, that ye well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men.

16 As free, and not as having the liberty for a cloke of maliciousnesse, but as the servants of God.

17 Honour all men: "love "brotherly fellowship: feare God, honour the king.

18 "Servants, be subject to your masters with all feare, not only to the good and courteous, but also to the "froward.

19 "For this is thanks "worthy, if a man for "conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what pay is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye take it patiently: but and if when ye doe well, ye suffer wrong, and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

21 For hereto ye are called: for Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example that ye should follow his steps.

22 "Who did no sinne, neither was there guile found in his mouth.

23 "Who when he was reviled, reviled not againe, when he suffered, he threatened not, but committed it to him that judgeth righteously.

24 "Who his owne selfe bare our sinnes in his body on the tree, that he being delivered from shame, should bring in righteousness by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as sheepes going astray: but are now returned unto the shepherd and bishop of your soules.

4 "But let the hid man of the heart be incorrupt, with a mecke and quiet spirit, which is before God a thing much to be.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind: suffer with another: for as brethren: be pi-full: be courteous.

9 Forasmuch as ye are chosen to suffer, neither repute ye rebuke: yet contrariwise blesse, knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should be blessed of blessing.

10 For if any man long after life, and to see good hap, let him retaine his tongue from euill, and his lips that they speake no guile.

11 Let him eschew euill and doe good:
let him seeke peace and follow after it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open unto their prayers: and the face of the Lord is vpon them that doe euill.

13 And who is it that will harme you, if ye follow that which is good?

14 For which standing, blessed are ye if ye suffer for righteousness sake. For, ye feare not their face, neither be troubled.

15 But sanctifie the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready alwayes to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you.

16 And that with meeknes & reverence, having a good conscience, that when they speake euill of you, as of euill doers, they may be ashamed, which blame your good conscience in Christ.

17 For it is better (if the will of God bee
so) that ye suffer for well doing, then for euill doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sinnes, the just for the vniust, that hee might bring vs to God, and was put to death concerning the flesh, but was quickened in the spirit.

ached vnto the spirits that are in prison.

CHAP. III.

1 Forasmuch as ye have called from Iesus, 2 To Iesus more time in vict, 3 To be sober and apt to pray, 4 To love each other, 5 To be patient in tribulation, 6 To beware that no man suffer as a will doer, 7 But as a Christian man, and so not to be ashamed.

¶ Do attach then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme your selues likewise with the same minde, which is, that he which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne.

2 That ye henceforward should liue (as much time as remaineth in the flesh) not after the lusts of men, but after the will of God.

3 For it is sufficient for vs that we have spence the time past of the life, after the lust of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnes, lusts, drunkennes, in gluttony, drinkings, and in admirable idolatries.

4 Wherein it seemeth to them strange, that ye runne not with them into the same excess of riot: therefore speake they euill of you.

5 Which shall give accounts to him, that is ready to iudge quicke and dead.

6 For vnto this purpose was the Gospel preached also vnto the dead, that they might bee condemned according to men, in the flesh, but might liue according to God, in the spirit.

7 Now the end of all things is at hand.
Bee ye therefore sober, and watching in prayer.

8 But shone all things haue seruent some among you: for a loue couereth the multitude of sinnes.

9 Be ye harsher one to another without grudgung.

10 Let euery man, as hee hath receiued the gift, minister the same one to another, as good dispensers of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speake, let him talke as the words of God. If any man minister, let him doo it as of the abilitie which God ministreth, that God in all things may bee glorified through Iesus Christ, to whom is praise and dominion for euer and euer.
Amen.

12 Dearly beloued, thinke it not strange concerning the fiery triall, which is among you, to please you, as though some strange thing were come vnto you:

13 But reioyce, in as much as yet are pa-takers of Christs sufferings, that when his glory shall appeare, yet may bee glad and re-ioyce.

14 If ye be railed vpon for the name of Christ, blessed are ye: for the spirit of glory, and of God, rested vpon you: which on their part, is euill spoken of: but on your part is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a mur-derer, or as a thief, or as an euill doer, or as a bushy body in other mens matters.

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not bee ashamed, but let him glorifie
God in this behalf.

The Elders which are among you, I beseech which am also an Elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed.

2 Feed the flocke of God, which I dependeth upon you, caring for it not by constraint, but willingly: not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind:

3 Not as though ye were lordes over Gods heritage, but that ye may be examples to the flocke.

4 And when the chiefe shepherde shall appear, ye shall receive an incorruptible crowne of glory.

5 Likewise ye younger, submit your selves unto the Elders, and submit your selves en-ty man unto another: * Beate your selves inwardly in lowliness of minde: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble* your selves therefore under the mighty hand of God; that hee may exalt you in due time.

THE ARGUMENT.

The effect of the Apostle here, is to exhort them which have once professed the true faith of Christ, to stand to the same even to the last breath: also that God by his effectual grace towards men, moueth them to holinesse of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, and in encreasing his gifts in the godly: wherefore by godly life, he begetteth new almost at deaths doore, exhorteth them to approve their vocation, not letting their affections on worldly things, (as he had oft written vnto them) but lifting their eyes toward heaven, as they be taught by the Gospel, whereof hee is a cleare witness, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heaven to be the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophetes testified. And lest they should promise to themselves quietnesse by professing the Gospel, hee warneth them how troublesome which they should sustaine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers and contemners of religion, whose manners and trade hee liuely set forth as in a table, aduertising the faithful not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to behold presently the day of his coming, and to preferre themselves vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 Forasmuch as the power of God hath given them all things appertaining unto life, but exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldly lusts, 10 To make their calling sure with good works, and fruits of faith. 14 He maketh mention of his owne death, 17 Declaring the Lord Jesus to be the true Sonne of God, as he himselfe had scene upon the mount.

Simon Peter a servant, and an Apostle of Jesus Christ, to you which have obtained like precious faith with us by the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ:

glory. e We are made partakers of the diuine nature, in that we flee the corruption of the world, as Paul writeth, are dead to sinne and are not in the debt of Godly manners.

1 In that he declared himselfe self and faithful in accomplishing his promise by Christ.

g The Greeke word signifies him that naturally cannot see, except he holdeth open his eyes. So Peter calleth such as cannot see heavenly things which are farre off, purblind, or faind blind. h Albeit it be sure in it selfe, forasmuch as God cannot change: yet we must confirme it in our selues by the fruits of the Spirit, knowing that the purpose of God is indelible, call it, sanctified, and indelible vs. i For God will neuer uphold you. k In this body. l 1. 6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godliness:

7 And with godliness, brotherly kindness: and with brotherly kindness, love.

8 For if these things be among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither shall be idle nor without fruit in the knowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 For hereth hath not these things, is blind, and cannot see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old finnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, give rather diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye doe these things, ye shall neuer fall.

11 For by this meanes an entering shall be ministered vnto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Iesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be established in the present truth.

13 For I reioyce in mee as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you up by putting you in remembrance.

14 Seeing I know that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 I will endeavour therefore alwayes, that ye alwayes bee able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For we were followed not of deceivableables, when we opened vnto you the power, and coming of our Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes we saw his Majesty.

17 For hee received of God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voyce to him from the excellent glory: This is my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voyce wee heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the holy mount.

19 We haue also a most sure word of the Prophets, to the which ye doe well that ye take heed, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, untill the day dawning, and the day starre arise in your hearts.

20 So that ye first know this, that no prophesie in the Scripture is of any private motion.

21 For the prophesie came not in olde time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

Prophecie of false teachers, and sheweth their punishment.

But there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: to which usually shall beeing in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lord that hath bought them, and biding vpon themselves swift damnation.

2 And many shall follow their damnable wayes, by whom the way of truth shall be euill spoken of.

3 And through conuentionnelle shall they whichained moordes make: merchandise of you, whose iudgement long agoe is not farre off, and their damnation sleepeth not.

4 For if God spared not the Angels that had sinned, but cast them downe into Hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be kept vnto damnation:

5 Neither spared he the old world, but saued 8 one righte person a preacher of righteousness, and brought in the flood by on the world of the vngodly.

6 And turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorreh into ashes, condemned them and scattered them, and made them an example vnto them that after should liue vn godly.

7 And delivered iust Lot, vexed with the vncleane conversation of the wicked. 8 (For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their lawlesse doings.)

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of temptation, and to reserve the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to be punished:

10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of uncleannesse, and despite the gouernement, which are presumptuous, and stand in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

11 Whereas the Angels which are greater both in power and might, give not railing iudgement against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as brute beasts, led with sensuality, and made to bee taken, and destroyed, speake euill of those things which they know not, and shall perishe through their owne corruption.

13 And shall receive the wages of vngodlinesse, as they which count it pleasure to liue deliciously for a season. Spots they are and blos: delighting themselves in their deceivings, in flattering with you.

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease to sinne, beguiling unstable soules: they haue hearts exercised with couetousnesse, cursed children.

15 Alas! how looking the right way, haue gone astray, following the way of Balaam, the sonne of Bala, which lousd the wages of vngodlinesse.

16 But he was rebuked for his iniquitie: for the dumbe aske speaking with mans voyce, falsified the foolishnesse of the Prophet.

17 These are wells without water, and cloudes carried about with a tempest, to whom the blacke darknesse is reserved for euer.

18 For in speaking swelling wordes of haughtie, they beguile with wantonnesse through the lutes of the flesh them that were

Or, inspired and written.

a This is evidently seen in the Pope making Priests, which by lies and flatteries sell mens soules, so that it is certaine that he is not the successor of Simon Peter, but of Simon Magus. b Albeit the Angels condemn the vices and iniquities of wicked magistrates, yet they blame not the authority & power which is given them of God.

c As beasts without reason or witfulness, which neither can leadeth them: these wicked men are delusiue of the spirit of God, onely seeking fullfill their insatiable, and as they are vessels that are appointed to destruction, so they fall into the snare of Satan to their destruction.

themselves the seruants of corruption: for of whomsoever a man is overcome, euen vnto
the same is he in bondage.

20 For if they, after they haue escaped from the blindness of the world, through the knowledge of the Lord, and of the Sonne of Iesus Christ, are yet cangled againe therin, the latter end is worse to them then the beginning.

21 For it had bene better for them, not to haue knowne the way of righteousness, then after they haue knowen it, to turne from the holy Commandment giuen vnto them.

to the true p[ro]phet, The dog is returned washed, to the wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

3 He sheweth the impiety of them which mocke at Gods promises. 7 After what sort the end of the world shall bee. 8 What they prepare themselves thereto. 16 Who they are which abuse the wr[ite]- tings of S. Paul, and the rest of the Scriptures, as concluding with euill thankes to Christ Iesus.

This second Epistle I now write vnto you, beloved, wherewith I shew vnto you your pure minds.

2 To call to remembrance the wordes which were told before of the holy Prophets, and also the commandment of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Saviour.

3 This first vnderstand, that there shall come in the last dayes, mockers, which will waite after their liuls.

4 And say, Where is the promise of his comming? for since the fathers dyed, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly know not,
that the heavens were of old, and the earth that was of the water, and by the water, by the word of God.

6 Wherefore the wordes that then was perished, ouerflowed with the water.

7 But the heavens and earth, which are now, are kept by the same word in store, and reserved vnto fire against the day of iudgment, of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 Dearly beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord, as a thousand yeres, and a thousand yeres as one day.

9 The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slackness) but is patient toward vs, and would haue no man to perish, but would all men to come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thiefe in the night, in the which the hea-uens shall passe away with a noyse, & the element shall melt with heat, & the earth with the works that are therein, shall be burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore that all these things must be dissolved, what manner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlienes.

12 Looking for, & hastning vnto the com-ming of the day of God, by the which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with heat.

13 But we looke for new heavens, and a new earth, according to his promise, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye looke for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blamelesse.

15 And suppose that the long suffering of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloved brother Paul according to the wisdom giuen vnto him, wrote to you,

16 As one that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: among the which some things are hard to be vnderstood, which they that are vnclearned and vnlabell preuert, as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye be also plucked away with the error of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnesse.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord & Saviour Iesus Christ to him be glory both now and for euermore.
Amen.

The first Epistle generall of Iohn.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that Saint Iohn had sufficiently declared how that our whole saluation doth consist only in A Christ, lest that any man should there by take a boldnesse to sinne, he sheweth that no man can believe in Christ, vntill he doth endeavour himselfe to keepe his commandments, which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false prophesies, whom he calleth Antichrists, and to try the spirits. Last of all he doth earnestly exhort them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceits.

CHAP. I.

you the eternall life, which was with the Father and appeared vnto vs.)

heard declare vnto you, that yet may also haue fellowship with vs, and that joyed together in Christ by faith, should be the Iohn 8. 23.

f The fruits of our faith must declare whether we be lost in God or no: for God being the very purity and light, will not have fellowship with them which lie in sinne and darkness.

g In an euill conscience, and without the feare of God, h That is, Christ with vs, and we without selues.

our fellowship also may be with the Father, and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write I vnto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message, which wee haue heard of him, & declare vnto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness.

6 If we say that we haue fellowship with him, and walke in darkness, we lie, and doe not truly:

7 But if we walke in the light, as hee is in the light, we haue fellowship one with another, and the blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.

8 * If we say that we haue no sinne, we deceive our selues, and truthe is not in vs.

9 If we acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithfull and iust to forgive vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all unrighteousnes.

10 If we say we haue not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in vs.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ is our Advocate. 10 Of true love, and how it is used. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

M Babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ the iust.

2 And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of the whole world.

3 And hereby we are sure that we know him, if we keepe his Commandements.

4 We thus saith, I know him, and keepeth not his Commandements, is a liar, and the truthe is not in him.

5 But he that keepeth his word, in him, is the loue of God perfect in deede, hereby we know that we are in him.

6 Hee that saith hee hath remained in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandement vnto you: but an olde commandement which ye haue had from the beginning: the olde commandement is the love, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new commandement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith that hee is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness, & walketh in darkness, & the true light is not in him.

10 * Hee that loveth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness: hath blinded his eyes.

a Christ is our only Advocate and intercessor: for the office of intercession and redemption are ioyned together. b That is, of them which haue embraced the Gospel by faith in all ages, degrees, and places, for there is no saluation without our Christ. c That is by faith and to obey him: for knowledge cannot be without obedience. d Whereby he loveth God: to that to love God is to obey his word. || Or, doctrine. e When the law was given. f Love thy neighbour as thyselfe, is the old commandment taught in the Law: but when Christ saith, So love one another, as I haue loved you, he giueth a new commandment: euery as touching the forme, but not as touching the nature or substance of the precept. Chap. 3. 14.

12 * Little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiven you for his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, Fathers, because ye haue known him that is from the beginning, I write vnto you, young men, because ye haue overcome the wicked.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because ye haue known the Father. I haue written vnto you, Fathers, because ye haue known him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue overcome the wicked.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the loue of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world (as the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life), is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof, but he that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth ever.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 * They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But this cometh to passe, that it might appeare that they are not all of vs.

20 But ye haue an ointment from him, that is holy, & ye haue known all things.

21 I haue not written vnto you because ye know not the truthe: but because ye know it, and thus no lie is of the truthe.

22 Who is a liar, but hee that denieth that Iesus is Christ: the same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.

23 Whosoever denieth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father.

24 Let therefore abide in you that came which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euen eternall life.

26 These things haue I written vnto you concerning them that deceive you.

27 But the anointing which hee receiued of his Father, dwelleth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and it is true and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide || in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bold, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that hee is righteous, know that hee which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

communicateth himselfe vnto you, and teacheth you by the holy Ghost and his ministers. || Or, in Christ. u By this some haue meant the whole Church of Christ in general.

g How namely all the faithful children, as being their spiritual father, contributing to all men knowledge of great things, to young men strength, to children obedience and reverence to their governors, h For Christs sake, || Or, the world. i As it is salutary to God. (1. cor. 4. 4.) k To live in pleasure. l Wantonness, m Ambition and pride, n Which should to haue bene our number, o The cause for a time they occupied a place in the Church. o The great of the holy Ghost, p Which is Christ. q In this which I now write vnto you, r He that taketh away, or diminisheth either of the names of Christ, or of the Father, that commeth out of the Church, s He that putteth difference betweene the person of the Sonne, and also beareth beleeueneth not to haue remission of sinnes by his onely sacrifice, denieth Christ to be the true Messiah. t Then the idols worship not the true God. † But he that confesseth the Sonne hath to do the Father. u Christ cometh.

CHAP. I.

The singular loue of God toward vs. y And howe we may knowe it is loue and death here.

1 Hold what loue the Father hath shewed vpon vs, that wee should bee called the sonnes of God: for this came the world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearly beloved, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doth not appaie what we shall be: and wee knowe that when he shall appeare, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as he is pure. 4 Whosoever committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

5 And ye knowe that he appeared that he might take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceiue you: he that doth righteousness, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sinne, is of the deuil: for the deuil sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose appeared the Son of God, that he might blot out the works of the deuil.

9 Whosoever is borne of God, sinneth not: for his seede remaineth in him, neither can hee sinne, because hee is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God knowne, and the children of the deuil: whosoever doth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loveth nor his brother.

11 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that wee should loue one another.

12 As as Cain which was of the wicked, and slew his brother: and wherfore slew he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Wharrell not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 We knowe that we are translated from death vnto life, because wee loue the brethren: he that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoever hateth his brother, is a man slayer: and ye knowe that no man slayer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 Whereby haue we perceiued loue, that he layd downe his life for vs: therefore wee ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 And whosoever hath this worldes good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let vs not loue in deed, neither in tongue onely, but in deed and in truth.

19 For thereby we knowe that we are of the truth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse toward God.

22 And wherfore we aske, wee receiue of him, because wee keepe his commandments, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 This is then his Commandement, that we be loue in the Name of his Son Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee hath commanded.

24 For he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and hee in him: and hereby we knowe that hee abideth in vs, euen by the Spirit which hee hath giuen vs.

CHAP. II.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 How the spirit of God, may be knowne from the spirit of error: 7 Of the loue of God, and of our neighbours.

Dearly beloved, beleeue not euery spirit, but trye the spirits whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Whereby shall ye knowe the Spirit of God? Every spirit that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whome ye haue heard, how that hee should come, and now already he is in the world.

4 Little children, ye are of God, and haue overcome them: for greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Whereby knowe we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error?

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 In this appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the world, that we might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that hee loued vs, and sent his Sonne to be a reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we oughte also to loue one another.

12 No man hath seene God at any time, If wee loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Whereby knowe wee that wee dwell in him, and hee in vs because hee hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And we haue seene and do yet see, that the Father sendeth the Sonne to be the Comforter of the world.

15 Whosoever confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and hee in God.

16 And wee haue knowne, and beleeue

we should haue boldnes in the day of iudge-ment, for as he is, euen so are we in this world.

18 There is no feare in loue, but perfect loue callethe us feare: for feare hath painefulness, and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, because he loued vs first.
20 If any man say, I loue God, and hate his brother, he is a liar: for how can he that loueth not his brother whom he hath seene, loue God whom he hath not seene?

21 And this commandment haue we of him, that he which loueth God, should loue his brother also.

CHAP. V.

1. 10, 13 Of the fruits of faith. 14 20 The offices authoritie, and diuine of Christ. 21. Against images.

Who soeuer beleueth that I Iesus am the Christ, is of the home of God, and euer one that loueth him which begetteth, loueth him also which is begotten of him.

2 In this we know that we loue the children of God, when we loue God, and keepe his commandments.

3 For this is the loue of God, that we keepe his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

4 For all that is borne of God overcommeth the world: and this is the victory that ouermeth the world, euen our faith.

5 Who is it that ouermeth the world, but he which beleueth that Iesus is the Sonne of God?

6 This is that Iesus Christ that came by water and blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit, that beareth witness: for the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three, which beare record in the earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receiue the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he testifieth of his Sonne.

10 For that beleueth in the Sonne of God, hath the witness in himselfe: he that beleueth not God, hath made him a liar, because he beleueth not the record, that God witnesseth of his Sonne.

11 And this is the record, that God hath giuen vnto vs eternall life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hath the Sonne, hath life, and he that hath not the Sonne of God, hath not life.

13 These things haue I written vnto you that beleue in the Name of his Sonne of God, that ye may know that ye haue eternall life, and that ye may beleeue in the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the assurance that we haue in him, that if we aske any thing according to his will he heareth vs.

15 And if we know that he heareth vs, who soeuer we aske, we know that we haue the petitions that we haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sinne that is not vnto death, let him aske, and he shal giue him life for them that sinne not vnto death. There is a sinne vnto death: I say not that thou shouldst pray for it.

17 All vnrighteousnes is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 We know that who soeuer is borne of God, sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himselfe, and the wicked toucheth him not.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickednesse.

20 But we know that the Sonne of God is come, and hath giuen vs a mind to know him, which is true: and we are in him that is true, that is, in his Sonne Iesus Christ: this same is verie God and eternal life.

The second Epistle of S. Iohn.

His writeth vnto a certaine Lady. 4 Reloying that her children walke in the truth. 5 And exhorteth them vnto loue. 7 Warneth them to beware of such deceiues: as deny that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. 8 Prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, to and to haue nothing to doe with them that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Iesus our Saviour.

We direct to the elect Lady, and her children, whom I loue in: the truth; and not I onely, but also all that haue known the truth.

2 For I reuerche sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe vs for ever:

3 For be with you, mercie and peace from our Father, and from the Lord

Iesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, with truth and loue.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I found of thy children, walking in truth, as wee haue receiued a commandment of the Father.

5 And now beleeue I thee Lady, (not as writing a new commandment vnto thee, but that same which we had from the beginning) that we loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that wee should walke after his commandments. This commandment is, that as yet haue heard from the beginning, ye should walke in it.

7 For many deceiues are entered into the world, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. Yet that is such one, is a deceiuer and an Antichrist.

The generall Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGUMENT.

S Aint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heed of deceivers, which goe about to draw away the hearts of the simple people from the truth of God, and willett them to have no societie with such, whom he setteth forth in their lively colours, shewing by divers examples of the Scriptures, what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally, he comforteth the faithfull, and exhorteth them to persevere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

Christ, & brother of James,

ther, and ² returned to Iesus
Christ:

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common saluation, it was needfull for me to write unto you, to exhort you, that yet should earnestly contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was once given unto the Saints.

4 For there are certaine men crept in which were before of old ³ ordained to this condemnation: ungodly men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnes, and ⁴ denie God the onely Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, so much as ye once knew this, how that the Lord after that hee had delivered

THE ARGUMENT.

It is manifest that the holy Ghost would, as it were gather into this most excellent Booke, a summe of those propheties, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the coming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to be ware of some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is fully set forth the diuinitie of Christ, and the testimonies of our redemption, what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the Ministers, and what things he reproveth: the providence of God for his elect, and of their glory and consolation in the day of vengeance: how that the hypocrites which sing like scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed. But the Lambe Christ shall defend them which beare witness to the truth, who in despite of the beast and Satan will reigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set forth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited, and what that hee permitted to rage against the clec, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of his bodie: and at length he shall be destroyed by the wrath of God: when as the clec shall giue praise to God for the victory, where the selfe for a season God will permit this Antichrist, and trumpet vnder color of false speech, and pleasant doctrine, to deceive the world: wherefore he arwerteth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoid this harlot Babelies and Baga, whose ruine without mercy, they shall see, and with the heavenly companie sing continuall praises for the Lambe married: the word of God hath gotten the victory: Satan that a long time was vntied, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrariwise the faithfull (which are the holy cite of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enjoy perpetual glory. 7 And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is of Philadelphia, These things sayeth hee that is Holy and True, which hath the key of David, which openeth and no man shutteth, and shutteth and no man openeth.

8 I know thy workes: behold, I haue set before thee an open doore, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my Name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the Synagogue of Synan, which call themselves Iewes, and are not, but doe lie: behold, I say, I will make them that they shall come and worship before my feet, and shall know that I haue loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the house of temptation which will come vpon all the world, to trie them that dwell vpon the earth.

11 Behold, I come shortly: hold that which thou hast, that no man take thy crowne.

12 Him that ouercommeth, will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and hee shall goe no more out: and I will write vpon him the Name of my God, and the Name of the citie of my God, which is the new Ierusalem, which cometh downe out of heauen from my God, and I will write vpon him my new Name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things sayeth Amen, the faithfull and true witness, the beginning of the creaturcs of God.

15 I know thy workes, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou werest cold or hot.

16 Therefore, because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, it will come to passe, that I shall spue thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and haue neede of nothing, and knowest not how thou art wretched, and miserable, and poore, and blind, and naked.

18 I counsell thee to buy of me gold tried by the fire, that thou mayest bee made rich, and white raiment, that thou mayest bee clothed, and that thy shinde nakednesse doe not appeare: and anoint thine eyes with eye salve, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore and amend.

20 Behold, I stand at the doore, and knocke. If any man heere my voyce, and open the doore, I will come in vnto him, and will sup with him, and he with mee.

21 To him that ouercommeth, will I graunt to sit with mee in my throne, euen as I ouercame, and sit with my Father in his throne.

22 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

1 The vision of the Maister of God, 2 He seeth the strong and one sitting vpon it, 3 and 24. scates about it with 24. Elders sitting vpon them, and saue brasse: praising God day and night.

After this I looked, and behold, a doore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with mee, saying, Come vp hither, and I will shew thee things which must bee done hereafter.

2 And immediately I was rauished in the Spirit, and behold, a throne was set in heauen, and one sat vpon the throne.

3 And hee that sat, was to look vpon like vnto a Jasper stone, and a Sardine, and there was a rainbow round about the throne in sight like an Emeraude.

4 And round about the throne were four and twentie seats, and vpon the seats I saw foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and had on their heads crownes of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundings, and voyces, and there were seuen lampes of fire burning before the throne, which are the seuen Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like vnto a chistall: & in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne were foure beasts full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the first beast was like a lyon, and the second beast like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying Eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them fire wings about him: and they were full of eyes within, and they crept not day nor night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and which is, and which is to come.

9 And when these beasts gaue glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer.

CHAP. V.

1 Hee saith the Lamb opening the booke, 3. 14 And therefore the foure beasts, the 14 Elders, and the Angels praise the Lamb, and doe him worship, 9 For their redemption and other benefits.

And I saw in the right hand of him that sat upon the throne, a Booke written within, and on the backside sealed with seven seals.

2 And I sawe a strong Angel, which preached with a loud voyce, Who is worthy to open the Booke, and to looke the scales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither under the earth was able to open the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the Elders sayd vnto mee, Weepe not: behold, the^a Lyon which is of the tribe of Iuda, the roste of Dauid, hath obtained to open the Booke, and to looke the seauen scales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and loe in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beasts, and in the middes of the Elders, stood a^a Lamb, as though hee had bene killed, which had^a seuen hornes, and seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the world.

7 And he came, and tooke the Booke out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when hee had taken the Booke, the foure beasts, and the foure and twentie Elders^a fell downe before the Lamb, hauing euery one harpes and golden vials full of odours, which are the^a prayers of Saints.

9 And they sung a newe song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the Booke, and to open the scales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast^a redeemed vs to God by thy blood, out of euery kinred, and tongue, and people and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our God Kings and Priests, and we shall^a reigne on the earth.

11 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beasts and the Elders, and there were^a thousand thousands,

12 Saying with a loud voyce, Worthy is the^a Lamb that was killed, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and praise.

13 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and under the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in them heard I saying, Praise, and honour, and glory, and power bee vnto him that sitteth upon the throne, and vnto the Lamb for euermore.

14 And the foure beasts said, Amen, and Reuelation. Powers to take peace from the earth.

the foure and twentie Elders fell downe, and worshipped him that sitteth for euermore.

CHAP. VI.

The Lamb openeth the first scale, and many things: follow the opening thereof, for the thing containeth a generall prophesie to the end of the world.

After, I beheld when the Lamb had opened one of the scales, & I heard one of the foure beasts say, as it were the^a people, of thunder, Come and see.

2 Therefore I beheld, and loe, there was a^a white horse, and he that^a sat on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering, that he might ouercome.

3 And when hee had opened the second scale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was^a red, and power was giuen to him that^a sat thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when hee had opened the third scale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I beheld, and loe, a^a blacke horse, and he that^a sat on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beasts say, A^a measure of to heate for a^a peny, and three measures of barley for a peny, and oyle, and wine but thou not.

7 And when hee had opened the fourth scale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and beheld, a^a pale horse, and his name that sat on him, was Death, and he followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the pestilence of the earth.

9 And when hee had opened the fifth scale, I saw vnder the altar^a the soules of them that were killed for the word of God, and for the testimony which they maintained.

10 And they cryed with a loud voyce, saying, How long, Lord, holy and true dost thou iudge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto every one, and it was said vnto them, that they should rest for a little season, vntill their fellows seruants, and their brethren that should bee killed vnto as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I beheld wherby hee had opened the first scale, and loe, there was a^a great earthquake, and the^a sonne was as blacke as^a sackcloth of haire, and the^a moone was like blood.

the winds should not blow on the earth, neither on the sea, neither on any 4 tree.

2 And I saw another Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and he cryed with a loud voyce to the foure Angels to whom power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the sea.

3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till we haue sealed the seruants of our God in their

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed, and there were sealed an 9 After these things I beheld, and loe, and before the Lambe, clothed with long white robes, and palmes in their handes.

saying, Saluation cometh of our God,

four beasts, and they fell before the throne,
on their faces, and worshipped God.

wisdom, and thankes, and honour, and power, and might be vnto our God for euer-

13 And one of the Elders spake, saying vnto me, What art thou which art arrayed in long white robes? and whence camest thou?

14 And I sayd vnto him, Lord, thou knowest. And he sayd to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, and haue made their long robes white in the 4 blood of the Lambe.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with fire of the Altar, and cast it into the sea, and there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, & earthquake.

6 Then the seuen Angels, which had the seuen trumpets, prepared themselves to blow the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there was hail, and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt, and all greene grass was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a great barre from heauen burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the rivers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the barre is called Wormewood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the Sunne was smitten, and the third part of the Moone, and the third part of the Stars, so that the third part of them was darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I beheld, and heard one Angel, flying through the middes of heauen, laying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the founds to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blow the trumpets.

14 And I saw a barre which was fallen from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the key of the bottomlesse pit.

17 And it was commanded them, that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but only those men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheads.

18 And to them was commanded that they should not kill them, but that they should be vexed five moneths, and that their paine should bee as the paine that cometh of a scorpion, when he hath stung a man.

19 Therefore in those dayes shall men see death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

20 And the forme of the locusts was like vnto horses prepared vnto battell, and on their heads were as it were crowns like vnto golde, and their faces were like the faces of men.

21 And they had haire as the haire of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

22 And they had habergions, like to habergions of yron: and the sound of their wings was like the sound of charres when many hostes runne vnto battell.

14 And hee deceived them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to doe in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the image of the beast, which had the wound of a sword, and did live.

AND I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seven Angels, Goe your wayes, and power out the seven vi-which had the marke of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angel poured out his viall upon the Sea, and it became as the blood of a 4 dead man: and every living thing died in the Sea.

4 And the third Angel poured out his viall upon the rivers and fountaines of waters, and they became 5 blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the waters say, Lord, thou art just, which art, and which wast, and holy, because thou hast iudged these things.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou given them blood to drinke: for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the 8 Sea say, Even so, Lord, God Almighty, true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel poured out his viall on the Sunne, and it was given unto him to torment men with a 9 heat of fire.

9 And men boyled in great heat, and blasphemed the Name of God, which hath power over their plagues, and they repented not to give him glory.

10 And the fifth Angel poured out his viall upon the throne of the 11 beast, and his kingdome was dark, and they 12 grieved their tongues for sorrow.

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven for their paines, and for their sorres, and repented not of their workes.

12 And the sixth Angel poured out his viall upon the great river Euphrates, and the water thereof was dry, that the way of the Kings of the East should be prepared.

13 And I saw three 14 unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

working miracles, to goe unto the 16 Kings place called in Scripture Armageddon. 17 And the seventh Angel poured out his viall into the aire: & there came a loud voice out of the Temple of heaven from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunderings, & lightnings, and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, even so mighty an earthquake.

19 And the great citie was diuised into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell, and great Babylon came in remembrance before God to giue unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And euery yle fled away, and the mountains were not found.

33 And the beast that thou hast seene, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and shall goe into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder. (whose names are not written in the booke of life from the foundation of the world) when they beholde the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

34 Here is the minde that hath wisedome. The seven heads are seven mountains, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also seven kings.

35 I know are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

36 And the beast that was, and is not, is such the eighth, and is one of the seven, and shall goe into destruction.

37 And the ten horns which thou sawest, are ten kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdom, but shall receiue power, as kings at one hour with the beast.

38 These haue one minde, and shall giue their power and authority vnto the beast.

39 These shall fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithful.

40 And hee said vnto mee, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and congregations.

41 And the seven houses which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burne her with fire.

42 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to doe with one consent, for to giue their kingdom vnto the beast, vntill the words of God be fulfilled.

2 And hee cryed out mightily with a loud voice, saying, It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great citie, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of all foule spirits, and a cage of euery vncleane and hateful bird.

3 And hee describeth Rome to be the field of all abomination and deuillinesse, and a kind of hell.

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pit, and he shut him vp, and sealed the doore vpon him, that he should not deceiue the people no more, till the thousand yeres were fulfilled: for after that hee must be loosed for a litle season.

4 And I saw seates: and they sat vpon them, and iudgement was giuen vnto them, and I saw the foules of the earth that were beheaded for the witnesse of Iesus, and for the word of God, and which did not worship the beast, neither his image, neither had taken his marke vpon their foreheads, or on their hands: and they liued, and reigned with Christ a thousand yeres.

5 But the rest of the dead men shal not liue againe vntill the thousand yeres be finished: this is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is hee that hath part in the first resurrection: for on such the second death hath no power: but they shall bee the Priestes of God and of Christ, and shall reigne with him a thousand yeres.

7 And when the thousand yeres are expired, Satan shal be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall goe out to deceiue the people which are in the foure quarters of the earth: euen Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battell, whose number is as the sand of the sea.

3. 24 The blessed state of the giddy, 8. 27 and the miserable condition of the wicked, 11 The description of the heavenly Jerusalem, and of the wife of the Lamb.

And I saw a new heaven, and a new earth: for the first heaven, and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy Citie new Jerusalem come downe from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride trimmed for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voyce out of heaven, saying, Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them: and they shall be his people, and God himselfe shall be with them, and be with them.

4 And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, neither crying, neither shall there be any more paine: for the first things are passed.

5 And he that sat upon the throne, said, Behold, I make all things new: and he said unto me, Write: for these words are faithful and true.

6 And he said unto me, It is done, I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end: I will give to him that is athirst, of the well of the waters of life freely.

7 He that overcometh, shall inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my sonne.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire & brimstone, which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven Angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with mee, saying, Come, I will shew thee the wife, the Lambes wife.

10 And he caried me away in the Spirit to a great and an high mountain, and he shewed me the great Citie, holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Denying the glory of God, and her shining was like unto a stone most precious, as a Jasper stone, cleare as Crystal.

14 And the wall of the Citie had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the citie withall, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the citie lay foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth of it, and he measured the citie with the reed, twelue thousand furlongs: and the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred, forty and foure cubits, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of Jasper: and the citie was pure gold like unto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all manner of precious stones: the first foundation was Jasper: the second of Saphire: the third of Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emerald:

20 The fifth of a Sardonyx: the sixth of a Chrysolite: the seventh of a Topas: the eighth of a Chrysolite: the ninth of a Jasper: the tenth of a Saphire: the eleventh of a Ruby: the twelfth of an Amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelue pearles, and every gate was of one pearle, and the street of the citie is pure gold, as shining glasse.

22 And I saw no Temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb are the Temple of it.

23 And the citie hath no need of the sunne, neither of the moon to shine in it: for the glory of God did light it, and the Lamb is the light of it.

24 And the people which are saved, shall walke in the light of it: and the Kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour unto it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And the glory and honour of the Gentiles shall bring it in.

THE PREFACE TO THE Christian Reader, touching the two Alphabets ensuing.

GOOD Christian Reader, because thou mayest enjoy and receive the profite of these two Alphabets, of directions vnto Common places hereafter following, which I haue in manner of a briefe Concordance, or large & ample Index collected, digested, and caused to be imprinted for thy comoditie: I thought it not amisse to aduertise thee somewhat touching the principall contents, yle and commoditie of them. Wherefore be it known vnto thee, that in the first of the said Alphabets, I haue together placed by themselves in a maner, all the strange names and wordes which are scatteringly to bee found here and there throughout the whole Bible, remanynge written in the Hebrew, Chaldean, Syrian, Greeke, or Latine languages: to the ende thou mayst by that meanes, learne to be conduced vnto much of the interpretation, History, Common places, and knowledge of them, and euery of them, as I trust thou shalt thinke needefull. And for that in diuers translations these strange names & wordes are written diuersly, I haue, in respect thereof, only in this Alphabet, followed the Geneua translation, as most allowed in that behalfe, and yet haue placed in the Margent thereof how in writing, other Translations differ from the same: to the end not only such corruptions as are found for want of true Orthographie of them, may appeare vnto those that are skilful in those languages, to be amended, when time shall minister occasion (as some of them are already) but also the vnskilful Readers be not defrauded of such commoditie as might grow vnto them thereby, especially if they should haue occasion to looke for any word in the same Alphabet, after the same maner of writing, that they had seene or read it in other Copies, and not finde the same accordingly. Secondly, in the other of the said Alphabets, I haue likewise by themselves placed all, and as many proper and vsual English wordes, as are contained in the same Bible, conducing to the finding out of the most fitrest sentences, and best common places, tending to the prouing or verifying of any article and doctrine, concerning our Christian faith & religion, or belonging to any other godly or necessary instruction: so as if thou wouldest vnderstand what is to be learned in the Scriptures touching God, or his power, his wisdom, or his loue, his mercie, or his truth, his iustice, his promises, his plagues, or his punishments, &c. either else concerning Christ, or the holy Ghost, Angel, or Man, Nature, or Law, Sinne, or Grace, Faith, or Vnbeliefe, Predestination, or Reprobation, Iustification, Regeneration, Church or Sacraments, &c. or to be briefe, if thou wouldest vnderstand what is necessarily to bee learned in the same Scriptures, touching the estate, authoritie, office or duetie of Kings or Princes, Iudges or Magistrates, Bishops & Pastors, Elders or Ministers, Fathers and Mothers, Masters and Mistresses, Subiects, and Parishioners, Husbands & Wiues, Children and seruants, and how euery one, of what degree, estate, condition, or profession focuer, he, she, or they be ought to behaue themselves towards God, and one towards another, and what is to be spoken and not spoken, and what is to be done and left vndone of them or any of them, by the rule of Gods word: thou art not voyd of competent knowledge or directions in this Alphabet to ayde thee. Thirdly, to further thee to finde out in these two Alphabets, anything whereof I haue before made mention, thou art to resort Alphabetically vnto the first of them, with the name of any Man, Woman, Countrey, Citie, Place, River, Idole, &c. in the same contained: and also vnto the second of them, with the chiefe word of any sentence or common place therein mentioned, which thou art most affected vnto, or desirest to be satisfied of: and by that meanes

In every of them shall thereby Gods grace without faile be conducted, and to the great ease directed, and in a word, made by the hand, even in the Books, Chapters and Verses, where the same, (or is much thereof, as for a goodly Christian, and necessary knowledge shall be thought requisite) is to be found out most readily: always remembering, that whatsoever convenient knowledge wanteth in these Alphabets, as touching the texts whereunto it directeth thee, is there supplied by the Annotations, or quotations in the Margent. Moreover, good Christian Reader, thou hast also to observe how that the first Figure, or Figures, which follow next after any Booke wherunto thou shalt be guided, signifieth or signifie the Chapter, and the other the verse or verses of the same Chapter, where any of the foresaid things is to be sought for. Again, whereas thou shalt after a Chapter, and otherwhiles after some verse or verses of a Chapter, finde this marke or Starre quoted, thou art to understand, how that the whole Chapter, or from the verse of that Chapter where the same Starre is placed forward unto the end thereof, embraced, as in some good respects chiefly belongeth, and may be applied to the same Historie, matter, or common place thou seekest for, except there be any verses following the same, for then the common place is to be vnderstood, not to exceede those verses. Finally, whereas I have sometimes in these Alphabets partly set downe the sense, and that which may properly be gathered of the text, which thou art directed vnto, & not the very words themselves, and otherwhiles repeated one thing in diuers places, but yet to diuers ends: I trust that will not offend thee, sith I haue so done for the vnlearneds sake, because the same could not, ne can be made too plaine for them, and therefore haue vied not for great a curiositie and abbreviation in that behalfe, as perhaps some other would haue had me: & yet considering to what a great quantitie these two Alphabets are growen vnto, (ouer that I thought they would) I haue bene forced to leaue out somewhat; that otherwise I would haue added vnto them, which hereafter by Gods grace I will supply: thus much touching the principall contents, commodity, & vse of the foresaid Alphabets, which with such other doubts as may trouble thee, I mistrust not, but by well perusing of the same, and practise (with the diuersitie of letter, which is vied in them) will soone appeare very easie, plaine, and apparant vnto thee; albeit I particularly touch not euery of them. Now therefore to conclude, if my simple trouble and paines taken herein shalbe well accepted of thee, I meane of the more skillfull and learned Readers to be posited and amended of them (if they shall so deeme necessary and convenient) to the better edification of the Church of God, whereof they are or ought to be ioine members, helpers, and furtherers, so farre forth as their Talents will stretch vnto, and that in the spirit of meekenesse, sobrietie, and charitie: and of the lesse learned or vnlearned Reader (vnto whom I confesse my selfe the greatest debtor) as an aid and helpe to their godly studies, and honest trade of life, and withall Christianly to be construed of all men, as a meanes and furtherance, and not an hinderance vnto any, I shall for my part thinke my selfe well requited, and more then sufficiently rewarded, in that I shall enjoy my desire, and that which I longed for. And so beseeching Almighty God to giue vs his grace to be studious of vntie, and bringing forth such fruires, as may declare our vndoubted election in Christ Iesus, I take my leaue of thee, this xxiij of December,

Anno Domini,

1578.

Thine in the Lord, Robert F. Herrey.

THE ARGUMENT.

Ofes in effect declareth three things, which are in this booke chiefly to be considered: First that the world and all things therein were created by God, and that man being placed in this great tabernacle of the world to behold Gods wonderful works & to praise his Name for the infinite graces, wherewith he had endued him, fell willingly from God through disobedience: who yet for his owne mercies sake restored him to life, and confirmed him in the same by his promise of Christ to come, by whom he should overcome Satan, death and hell. Secondly, that the wicked & ungodly of Gods most excellent benefits, remained still in their wickedness, and so falling most horribly from him to sinne, provoked God (who by his preachers called them continually to repentance) at length to destroy the whole world. Thirdly, he sheweth vs by the examples of Abraham, Isaac, Iacob, and the rest of the Patriarks, that his mercies neuer faile them, whom he chuseth to be his Church, and to profess his Name in earth, but in all their afflictions and persecutions he euer assisteth them, sendeth comfort, and deliuereth them. And because the beginning, increase, preleration, and successe therof might be only attributed to God, Moses sheweth by the examples of Cain, Shamar, blaw, and others, which were noble in mans iudgement, that this Church dependeth not on the estimation and nobilitie of the world: and also by the fewenes of them, which haue at all times worshipped him purely according to his word, that it handeth not in the multitude, but in the poore and despised, in the small flocke and little number, that man in his wisdom might be confounded, and the Name of God euer more praised.

* This word signifyeth the beginning and generation of the creatures.

CHAP. I.

1 God created the heauen and the earth, 2 The light and the darknesse, 3 The firmament. 4 Hee separt the water from the earth. 5 Hee created the Sunne, the Moone, and the Starres. 6 Hee created the fish, birds, beasts. 7 Hee created man, and giueh him rule ouer all creatures, 29 and prouideth nourture for man and beast.

a First of all, and before that any creature was, God made heauen and earth of nothing Wild,

Ps. 110. 3. 6. and 136. 5. 10. 12. and 51. 15. || Or, spreading over, and aye. f As the sea and riuers from those waters that are in the clouds which are vnfolden by Gods power, letteth they should ouerwhelme the world. Ps. 114. 8. g That is, the region of the aire, and all that is aboue vs, a At the beginning, God created the heauen and the earth.

2 And the earth was without forme and void, and darknesse was vpon the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God mooued vpon the face of the waters.

3 Then God said, * Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God sawe the light that it was good, and God separated the light from the darknesse.

5 And God called the light Day, and the darknesse he called Night: || So the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 Againe God said, * Let there be a firmament in the mids of the waters: and let it separate the waters from the waters.

7 Then God made the firmament, and separated the waters which were vnder the firmament, from the waters which were aboue the firmament, and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament, a firmament.

uen. f So the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 God said againe, * Let the waters vnder the heauen be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appeare, and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land, Earth: and he called the gathering together of the waters, Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 Then God said, b Let the earth bud forth the bud of the herbe that seedeth seed, the fruitfull tree, which beareth fruit according to his kinde, which hath his seed in it: || Let it upon the earth, and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth the bud of herbe that seedeth seed according to his kinde, also the tree that beareth fruit, which hath his seed in it: || Let it according to his kinde, and God saw that it was good.

13 So the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 And God said, * Let there be lights in the firmament of the heauen, to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signes, and for seasons, and for dayes, and yeres.

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heauen to giue light vpon the earth, and it was so.

16 God then made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesse light to rule the night: he made also the starres.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen to shine vpon the earth.

18 And to rule in the day, and in the night, and to separate the light from the darknesse: and God saw that it was good.

19 Which is the artificiall day, from the Sunne rising to the going downe. n Of things appertaining to naturall and politickall orders and seasons. n To wit, the Sunne and the Moone: and he rehersaleth as man iudgeth by his eye: for els the Moone is lesse then the planet Saturnus. o To giue it sufficient light, as instruments appointed for the time, to serve to man, v. c. lxxviii. p. 1. f.

i This sentence is so repeated, to signifie that God made all his creatures to serue to his glory, and to the profite of man, but for sin they were accursed, yet to the elect by Christ, they are restored and serue to their wealth.

20 Afterward God said, Let the waters bring forth in abundance every creature creeping thing that hath life: and let the fowle fly upon the earth upon the open firmament of the heaven.

21 Then God created the great whales, and euery thing living and moving, which the waters brought forth in abundance according to their kind; and euery feathered fowle according to his kind: And God saw that it was good.

22 Then God blessed them, saying, Bring forth fruit and multiply, and fill the waters in the Seas, and let the fowle multiply in the earth.

23 † So the Evening, and the Morning were the fifth day.

24 ¶ Moreover God said, Let the earth bring forth the living thing according to his kind, cattell, and that which creepeth, and the beast of the earth, according to his kind, and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth according to his kind, and the cattell according to his kind, and euery creeping thing of the earth according to his kind: And God saw that it was good.

26 Furthermore God said, * Let vs make man in our image according to our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea, and over the fowle of the heaven, and over the beasts, and over all the earth, and over euery thing that creepeth and mooueth upon the earth.

27 * Thus God created the man in his image: in the image of God created he him: he created them * male and female.

28 And God blessed them, and God said to them, * Bring forth fruit and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it, and rule over the fish of the sea, and over the fowle of the heaven, and over euery beast that mooueth upon the earth.

29 And God said, Behold, I haue giuen vnto you * euery herbe bearing seed, which is vpon all the earth, and euery tree, wherein is the fruit of a tree bearing seed: * that shall be to you for meat.

30 Likewise to euery beast of the earth, and to euery fowle of the heaven, and to euery thing that mooueth vpon the earth, which hath life in it selfe, euery greene herbe shall be for meat, and it was so.

31 * And God saw all that hee had made, and loe, it was very good. † So the Evening and the Morning were the sixth day.

CHAP. II.

1 God resteth the seventh day, and sanctifieth it. 2 He fixeth man in the garden. 3 He createth the woman. 4 Marriage ordained.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the hoste of them.

2 For in the seventh day God ended his worke which he had made, * and the seventh day he * rested from all his worke, which hee had made.

3 So God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it, because that in it he had rested from all his worke, which God had created and made.

4 ¶ These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth, when they were created, in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens,

5 And euery plant of the field, before it was in the earth, and euery herbe of the field, before it grew: for the Lord God had not caused it to * raine vpon the earth, neither was there a man to till the ground.

6 But a mist went vp from the earth, and watered all the earth.

7 ¶ The Lord God also made * man of the dust of the ground, & breathed in his face breath of life, * the man was a liuing soule.

8 And the Lord God planted a garden Eastward in Eden, and there hee put the man whom hee had made.

9 (For out of the ground made the Lord God to grow euery tree pleasant to the sight and good for meate: the tree of life also in the mids of the garden, * the tree of knowledge of good and of euill.)

10 And out of Eden went a riuer to water the garden, and from thence it was diuided, and became into foure heads.

11 The name of one is * Pison: the same compasseth the whole land * of Hauilah, where is gold.

12 And the golde of that land is good: there is * Beluim, and the onyx stone.

14 The name also of the thirde riuer is * Hiddekel: this goeth toward the Eastside of * Assyria: & the fourth riuer is * Euphrates.

15 ¶ Then the Lord God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, that he might * dress it, and keepe it.

16 And the Lord God * commanded the man, saying, † Thou shalt eate freely of euery tree of the garden.

17 But of the tree of knowledge of good and euill, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt die the * death.

18 Also the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be himselfe alone: I will make him a helper * meet for him.

20 ¶ The man therefore gaue names vnto all cattell, and to the foule of the heauen, and to euery beast of the fild: but for Adam found he nor an helpe meet for him.

21 ¶ Therefore the Lord God caused an heavy sleepe to fall vpon the man, & he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed vp the fleshy in stead thereof.

22 And the rib which the Lord God had taken from the man, he made her a woman, and brought her to the man.

23 ¶ Then the man saide, * This now is bone of my bones, and fleshy of my fleshy. She shall be called woman, because she was taken out of man.

24 ¶ Therefore shall man leaue his father, and his mother, and shall cleaue to his wife, and they shall be one fleshy.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

CHAP. III.

1 The woman seduced by the serpent, 6 inisseth her husband to sinne. 8 They both flee from God. 14 They three are punished. 15 Christ promised, 19 Man is dust. 22 Man is cast out of paradise.

NOW the serpent was more subtil then any beast of the fild, which the Lord God had made: and he said to the woman, Yea, hath God indeed sayd, ¶ He shall not eate of euery tree of the garden?

2 And the woman sayde vnto the serpent, All eate of the fruit of the trees of the garden,

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, ¶ He shall not eate of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 ¶ Then the serpent said to the woman, ¶ He shall not die.

5 But God doeth know that when ye shall eate thereof your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and euill.

6 So the woman (seeing that the tree was good for meat, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to get knowledge)ooke of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gaue also of her husband with her, and he did eate.

7 ¶ Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked, and they leued fig tree leaues together, and made themselves breeches.

8 ¶ Afterward they heard the voyce of the Lord God walking in the garden in the hooole of the day, and the man and his wife hidde themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden.

9 But the Lord God called to the man, and said vnto him, Where art thou?

10 ¶ He saith, I heard thy voyce in the garden, and was afrayd: because I was naked, therefore I hid my selfe.

11 And hee saith, ¶ Who told thee that thou wast naked? ¶ He saith, I eate of the tree, wherof I commanded thee that thou shouldst not eate?

12 ¶ Then the man saith, ¶ The woman which thou gauest to be with me, she gaue me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the Lord God said to the woman, ¶ Why hast thou done this? And the woman saith, ¶ The serpent beguiled mee, and I did eate.

14 ¶ Then the Lord God said to the serpent, ¶ Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattell, and above euery beast of the fild: vpon thy belly shalt thou goe, and thou shalt eate all the dayes of thy life.

15 I will also put enmity betwene thee and the woman, and betwene thy seede and her seede. ¶ He shall brayke thine head, and thou shalt bruise his heele.

16 ¶ Vnto the woman he saith, I will greatly increase thy sorrowes, and thy concitions. In sorrow shalt thou bring forth children, and thy desire shall be subiect to thine husband, and he shall rule ouer thee.

17 ¶ Also to Adam he saith, ¶ Because thou hast obeyed the voyce of thy wife, & hast eaten of the tree, (wherof I commanded thee, saying, ¶ Thou shalt not eate of it) ¶ cursed is the earth for thy sake: in sorrow shalt thou eate of all the dayes of thy life.

18 ¶ ¶ Soyes also and thistles shalt it bring forth to thee, and thou shalt eate the herbe of the fild.

19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou returne to the earth: for out of it wast thou taken, because thou art dust, and to dust shalt thou returne.

20 ¶ And the man called his wifes name Eua, because she was the mother of all liuing.)

21 ¶ Vnto Adam also and to his wife did the Lord God make coates of skinned, and clothed them.

22 ¶ And the Lord God saith, ¶ Behold, the man is become as one of vs, to know good and euill. And now lest hee put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and liue for euer,

23 ¶ Therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the earth, whence he was taken.

24 ¶ ¶ Thus hee cast out man, and at the East side of the garden of Eden he set the Cherubims, and the blade of a sword, to keepe the way of the tree of life.

¶ His hypocrisie appeared in that he hid the cause of his nakednes, which was the transgression of Gods commandment.

¶ His wickednes and lacke of true repentance ap- peareth in this, that he burde- neth God with his fault, because hee had giuen him a wife.

¶ In stead of confessing her sinne, he increaseth it, by accus- ing the ser- pent.

¶ He asked the reason of A dams and his wifes be- cause he would bring them to repentance, but hee asked not the reason of the ser- pent, because he would shew him no mercy.

¶ As a vile and contemptible beast, Isa. 65. 3.

¶ He chiefly mea- neth Satan, by whose motion & craft the serpent deceived the woman.

¶ That is the power of sinne and death.

¶ Satan shall sting Christ and his members, but not ouercome them.

¶ The Lord com- forth Adam by promise of the blessed seed, and also punisheth the body for the sinne which the soule should haue bene pun- shed for, that the spirit haue conceived hope of forgiveness, might liue by faith. 1. Cor. 1. 4. 7.

¶ The transgression of Gods commandment was the cause that both mankind and all other creatures were subiect to the curse.

¶ There are not the natural fruits of the earth but pro- ceede of the corruption of sinne. ¶ Or gaue them knowledge to make themselves coars.

¶ By this derision he reproacheth Adams misery, whereinto he was fallen by ambition.

¶ Adam deposed of life, lost also the signe thereof.

Afterward the man knew Hephzibah his wife, which conceived and bare Cain, and said, I have obtained a man by the Lord.

3 And in proceſſe of time it came to paſſe, that Cain brought an oblation unto the Lord of the fruit of the ground.

4 And Habel alſo himſelfe brought of the firſt fruites of his ſheep, and of the fat of them; and the Lord had reſpect unto Habel and to his offering.

5 But unto Cain and to his offering hee had no regard: wherefore Cain was exceeding wroth, and his countenance fell downe.

6 Then the Lord ſaid unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance caſt downe?

7 If thou doe well, ſhalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doeſt not well, ſinne lieth at the doore: and thou ſhalt rule over him.

8 Then Cain ſpake to Habel his brother. And when they were in the field, Cain roſe up againſt Habel his brother, and ſlew him.

9 Then the Lord ſaid unto Cain, Where is Habel thy brother? And he answered, I cannot tell: Am I my brotheres keeper?

10 Againe he ſaid, What haſt thou done? the voice of thy brotheres blood crieth unto me from the earth.

11 Now therefore thou art curſed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brotheres blood from thine hand.

CHAP. VI

3 God threateth to bring the flood, 5 Man is altogether corrupt, 6 God repenseth that he made him, 18 Noah and his are preserved in the Arke whilst he was commanded to make.

So when men began to be multiplied vpon the earth, and there were daughters borne vnto them,

2 Then the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were faire, and theyooke them wiues of all that they liked.

3 Therefore the Lord said, My Spirit shall not alwaye abide with man because he is but flesh, and his dayes shal be an hundred and twentye yeeres.

4 There were giants in the earth in those dayes: yea, and after that the sonnes of God came vnto the daughters of men, and they had borne them children, these were mighty men, which in old time were men of renowne.

5 When the Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and all the imaginations of the thoughts of his heart were onely euill continually,

6 Then it repented the Lord, that hee had made man in the earth, and he was sorry in his heart.

7 Therefore the Lord said, I will destroy from the earth the man whom I haue created, from man to beast, to the creeping thing, and to the foule of the heauen: for I repent that I haue made them.

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord.

12 Then God looked vpon the earth, and beheld, it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupted his way vpon the earth.

13 And God said vnto Noah, An end of all flesh is come before mee: for the earth is filled with crueltie through them: and behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 Make thee an Arke of gine trees: thou shalt make cabins in the Arke, and shalt pitch it within & without with pitch.

15 And thus shalt thou make it: The length of the Arke shall be three hundred cubites, the breadth of it fiftie cubites, and the height of it thrie cubites.

16 A window shalt thou make in the Arke, and in a cubite shalt thou finish it aboue, and the doore of the Arke shalt thou set in the side thereof: thou shalt make it with the low, second and thied roume.

17 And thou shalt behold, I will bring a flood of waters vpon the earth to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life vnder the heauen: all that is in the earth shall perish.

18 But with thee will I establish my Couenant, and thou shalt goe into the Arke, thou and thy sonnes, and thy wife, and thy sonnes wiues with thee.

GOD

H E bookes of the olde Testament doe teach vs, that the same God, whom Adam, Noe, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Dauid and the other fathers did worship, is the onely true God, and that hee the same is Almighty and euerslasting: who of his meere goodnesse hath created by his Word ^b heauen and earth, and all that is in them. Iesus

Creation of man.

M Oreouer, these Bookes teach vs, that this very God Almighty, after he created all things, shope Malio Adam the first man, to the image and spirituall similitude of himselfe, and that he did constitute him Lord ouer all things that he had created in earth. Which Adam by the enuie and fraude of the deuil, transgressing the precept of his Creator, ^b by this his sinne brought in such and so great sinne into the worlde, that we which be sprong from him by the flesh, ⁱ bee in nature the children of wrath, and thereupon we be made subiect and thrall to death, to damnation, to the yoke and tyranny of the deuil.

Sinne.

Christ promised.

F urthermore, we are taught by these excellent bookes, that God promised to ^a Adam, ^l Abraham, ^m Isaac, ⁿ Jacob, ^o Dauid, and to other Fathers of the olde time, that he would sende that blessed seede, his sonne Iesus Christ our Sauour, which should deliuer all those from sinne, and from the tyranny of the deuil which by a liuely and working faith should beleue this promise, and put their trust in Iesus Christ, hoping that of him and by him, they should obtaine this deliuerance.

The Law.

A lso they giue vs to vnderstand, that in the meane season, while those Fathers the Israelites looke for the saluation, and deliuerance promised (for that the nature of man is such, so proud and so corrupt, that those would not willingly acknowledge themselves to bee sinners, which had neede of the Sauour promised) God the Creator gaue by Moses his ^q Lawe written in two Tables of stone: that by it, sinne & the malice of mans heart being ^r known, men might more vehemently thirst for the coming of Iesus Christ, who should redeeme and deliuer them from sinne: which thing, neither the Law, nor yet the sacrifices and oblations of the Law did ^s performe. For they were shadowes and figures of the true oblation of the body of Christ: by which oblation all ^t sinne should be blotted out and quire put away.

Christ God our Sauour came.

B Y the bookes of the new Testament we be taught, that Christ so afore promised (the which is God) Aboue all things most blessed for euer) euen he, ^u I say, was shadowed in the bookes of the olde Testament, and in sacrifices figured, that hee was ^v sent at the last from the Father, the selfe same time which the Father did constitute within himselfe: I say, ^w at that time when all wickednesse abounded in the worlde, then hee was sent: And this Iesus our Sauour being borne in the flesh, ^x suffered death, and rose againe from the dead. Which actes of his were not done by him in respect of the good workes of any man (for we were all sinners) but that this God our Father should ^y appeare true, in exhibiting the abundant riches of his grace which he promised, and that ^z through his mercie hee might bring vs to saluation.

A Lambe,
A sacrifice,
Peace,
Adoption,

Whereupon it is evidently shewed in the ^a Newe Testament, that Iesus Christ, being the true ^b Lambe, the true ^c sacrifice of the worlde, ^d putting away the sinnes of men, came into this worlde to purchase grace and ^e peace for vs with the Father, ^f walking vs from our sinnes in his owne blood, and ^g should deliuer vs from the bondage of the deuil, whom by sinne we did serue: And so we should be ^h adopted by him to be the sonnes of God, made ⁱ heires with him of that most excellent and euerslasting kingdome.

The holy Ghost,
Faith,

Now that we should acknowledge this singular and excellent benefit of God towards vs, almighty God ^j giueth vs his holy spirit: the ^k fruit and effect of the which, is faith in God, and in his Christ. For without the holy Ghost, by which we are instructed and ^l sealed, neither can we beleue that God the Father sent Messias, nor yet that Iesus is Christ: For ^m no man (saith Paul) can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost. The ⁿ same Spirit witnesseth to our spirit, that we are the children of God ^o and powere into our bowels that Charitie which Paul describeth to the Corinthians. Furthermore, that holy Spirit doth giue vs hope, which is a sure looking for eternall life, whereof he himselfe is the certaine token and pledge. Also he giueth vs other ^p spirituall gifts, of the which Paul writeth to the Galatians. Therefore the benefit of faith is not yet to be despised or little to be set by. For by the means of this trust & ^q faith in Christ, which ^r worketh by charity, & sheweth itselfe forth by the works of charity, mouing man thereto, we are ^s iustificed and sanctified: that is to say, God and the Father of our Lord

Charitie, Hope.

Iustificacion and sanctification.

The Summe of the holy Scripture.

Iesus Christ (which is made our Father also by him, being our brother) doth accompt vs to be iust and holy through his grace, & through the merite of his Son Iesus Christ, not imputing our finnes to vs so farre forth, that we should suffer the paines of hell for them,

Good workes.

Finally, Christ himselfe came into the world, to the intent that we through him being sanctified and cleansed from our finnes, following his will in good workes, should deuy the things pertaining to the flesh, and freely vsue him in righteousnesse and holinesse all the dayes of our life: and that by good workes (which God hath prepared for vs to walke in) we should shew our selues to be called to his grace, and gift of faith: which good workes who so hath not, doth shew himselfe not to haue such a faith in Christ as is required in vs.

Christ our Master and teacher.
Bishop.
Mediatour.
Advocate.

To Christ must we come, and follow him with a cheerefull minde that he may teach vs: For he is our master, lowly and humble of heart: he is to vs an example, whereby we must learne the rule to liue well,

Moreover, he is our Bishop, & our high Priest, which did himselfe offer vp for vs his own blood, being the onely mediatour betwene God and men: Who now sitteth at the right hand of God the Father, being made our Advocate, making prayer and intercession for vs: who doubtlesse shall obteine for vs whatsoeuer we shall desire, either of him, or else of his Father in his Name, if so be: that we thus desiring, shall beleue that he will lo do: for thus hath he promised, Therefore let vs not doubt, if we sinne at any time, to come with repentance to the which he doth inuite and stirre vs at the very beginning of his preaching) and with sure trust to the throne of his grace, with this beleife, that we shall obteine mercy For therefore came he into the world, that he might saue sinners by his grace.

Iudgement.

This is verely Christ Iesus, which shall come at a certain time appointed by his Father, & shall sit in great maiestie to iudge all men, and to render to euery man the works of his body according to that he hath done, whether it be good or euill: And he shall say to them which shall be on the right side, which in this world did looke for the good things to come (I is to say, life euermlasting:) Come ye blessed of my Father, enioy the kingdome that hath bene prepared for you from the beginning of the world; but to them which shall be on the left side, he shall say, depart from me ye cursed into euermlasting fire prepared for the deuill and his angels. And then shall the end be, when Christ hauing vtterly vanquished all manner of enemies, shall deliuer vp the kingdome to God the Father.

Eternall life.

Eternall fire.

To what intent the Scriptures were written.

To the intent that we might vnderstand these things, the sacred Bookes of the Bible were deliuered to v. by the goodnesse of God through his holy Spirit, with the preaching of that doctrine which is contained in them, and with his Sacraments, by which the truth of his doctrine is sealed vp to vs: that we might vnderstand, I say, and beleue that there is one only true God, and one Saviour Iesus Christ, whom (as he had promised) he hath sent; and that we beleueing, might haue in his Name life euermlasting.

Christ the onely foundation.

Besides this foundation, no man can lay any other in the Church of Christ: and vpon this foundation the Church doeth stand sure and stedfast. And Paul willteth him to bee accursed which shall preach any other faith and saluation, then by Iesus Christ, yea, though he were an Angel from heauen.

Forke of him, through him, and for him, are all things: To whom with the father and the holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end, Amen.

Certaine

¶ Certaine questions and answeres touching the doctrine of Predestination, the vse of Gods word and Sacraments.

Question.

Why doe men so much vary in matters of religion?

Answer.

Because all haue not the like measure of knowledge, neither doe all beleue the Gospell of Christ.

Question.

What is the reason thereof?

Answer.

Because they only beleue the Gospell and doctrine of Christ, which are ordained vnto eternall life.

Question.

Are not all ordained vnto eternall life?

Answer.

Some are vessels of wrath ordained vnto destruction, as others are vessels of mercy prepared to glory.

Question.

How standeth it with Gods iustice, that some are appointed vnto condemnation?

Answer.

Very well: because all men haue in themselves sinne, which deserueth no lesse: and therefore the mercy of God is wonderfull in that he vouchsafeth to saue some of that sinfull race, and to bring them to the knowledge of the truth.

Question.

If Gods ordinance & determination must of necessity take effect, then what need any man to care? for hee that liueth well, must needs be damned, if he be therunto ordained, and he that liueth ill, must needs be saued, if he be therunto appointed.

Answer.

Not so: for it is not possible, that either the elect should alwaies be without care to doe well, or that the reprobate should haue any will therunto. For to haue either good will or good worke, is a testimony of the Spirit of God, which is giuen to the Elect onely, whereby faith is so wrought in them, that being graft in Christ, they grow in holinesse to that glory, wherunto they are appointed. Neither are they so vaine as once to thinke that they may doe as they list themselves, because they are predestinate vnto saluation: but rather they endeavour to walke in such good workes as God in Christ Iesus hath ordained vnto them, and prepared for them to bee occupied in, to these owne comfort, stay and assurance, and to his glory.

Question.

But how shall I know my selfe to bee one of those whom God hath ordained to life eternall?

Answer.

By the motions of spirituall life, which be longerly enuoyed to the children of God: by the which that life is perceived, euen as the life of this body is discerned by the sense and motions thereof.

Question.

What meane you by the motions of spirituall life?

Answer.

I meane remouing of conscience, loyned with the sorbing of sinne, and loue of righteousness: the hand of faith reaching vnto life eternall in Christ, the conscience comforted in distress, and rayled by to confidence in God by the worke of his Spirit, a thankfull remembrance of Gods benefits received, and the bling of all aduerities as occasion of amendment sent from God.

Question.

Cannot such perish as at some time or other feele these motions within themselves?

Answer.

It is not possible that they should: for as Gods purpose is not changeable, so be repenteth not of the gifts and graces of his adoption: neither doeth he call off those whom he hath once received.

Question.

Why then should wee pray by the example of Dauid, that hee call vs not from his face, and that hee take not his holy Spirit from vs?

Answer.

In so praying we make protestation of the weaknes of flesh, which moueth vs to doubt: yet should not we haue courage to aske, if we were not assured that God will giue according to his purpose and promise, that which we require.

Question.

Doe the children of God feele the motions afore sayd in wayes alike?

Answer.

So truly: for God sometime to prouoe his, seemeth to leaue them in such sort, that the flesh overmatcheth the Spirit, wherof ariseth trouble of conscience for the time: yet

Questions and Answers.

yet the Spirit of adoption is neuer taken from them, that haue once received it: else might they perish. But as in many diseases of the body, the powers of bodily life are letted: so in some assaults these motions of spirituall life are not perced, because they lie hidden in our manifold infirmities: as the fire covered with ashes. Yet as after sickness cometh health, and after clouds the Sun shined clear: so the powers of spiritual life will more or lesse be felt and perced in the children of God.

Question.

What if I neuer feele these motions in my selfe, shall I despair, and thinke my selfe a cast-away?

Answer.

God forbid: for God calleth his at what time hee seeth good: and the instruments whereby he usually calleth, haue not the like effect at all times, yet it is not good to neglect the means whereby God hath determined to worke the saluation of his. For as waxe is not melted without heat, nor clay hardened but by means thereof: so God vseth means both to draw those vnto himselfe, whom hee hath appointed vnto saluation, and also to bewray the wickednesse of them whom he iustly condemneth.

Question.

By what meanes vseth God to draw men to himselfe, that they may be saved?

Answer.

By the preaching of his word, and the ministering of his Sacraments thereunto annexed.

Question.

What meane you by the word of God?

Answer.

I meane the doctrine of the Prophets and Apostles which they received of the Spirit of God, and haue left written in that Booke, which we commonly call the Old and New Testament.

Question.

How may I be assured that it is the word of God, which that Booke containeth?

Answer.

By the maiesty of God appearing in that plain and simple doctrine by the puritie, vprightnesse, and holinesse thereof: by the certaintie of every thing therein affirmed: by the successe of all things according to it: by perpetuall consent which is to be seene in every part thereof: by the excellencie of the matters uttered: But especially by the testimony of Gods Spirit, whereby it was written, who moueth the hearts of those in whom it telleth, to consent vnto the word, and currently to embrace it.

Question.

How doth this word of God serue to draw men vnto him?

Answer.

When it is so preached and heard, that men may vnderstand and learn what God teacheth: accept & receive thankfully that which is thereby giuen, promised and assured: and be moued with desire and diligence to doe that which it commandeth.

Question.

Do the Sacraments also serue to this end?

Answer.

Yea, verily: that by sight, taste and feeling, as well as by hearing we might be instructed, assured, and brought to obedience.

Question.

How doth our baptisme serue herunto?

Answer.

It teacheth vs to put on Christ, that with his righteousness our sinnefullnesse may be hidden: it assureth vs that wee are so graft into Christ, that all our finnes are by him washed away: it chargeth vs to dye to sinne, to continue in the possession of Christ, and to loue each other.

Question.

Hath the Lords Supper also this vse?

Answer.

Yea doubtlesse: for it teacheth that the body and blood of Christ crucified, is the only food of the new borne children of God: it assureth that Christ is wholly theirs to giue and to continue life: spiritual and heavenly to body & soule, to nourish, strengthen, refresh, and to make cheerefull the hearts of the elect: it requireth thankfull remembrance of the death of Christ, unity among those that doe profess him with a free confession of his truth.

Question.

Why is not this vse of the Sacraments commonly known?

Answer.

Because they are abused for forme, for fashion, for custome and company, without regard vnto the word, whereunto they are so annexed, that they ought not vpon any necessity by any person be feared from it, which teacheth the right vse of every thing.

Question.

I perceiue that nothing is more necessary then the word of God: therefore I pray you shew mee how I may attaine to some knowledge and profit thereby.

Answer.

By diligent hearing of such as preach it, by continual and orderly exercise of reading, and praying.

Question.

What orderly exercise thinke you most conuenient to be vsed herin?

Answer.

of predestination, &c.

¶ The

✠ The holy^a Gospel of Iesus Christ

^b according to Matthew.

THE ARGUMENT.

a This word signifieth good tidings, and is taken here for the story which containeth the joyful message of the coming of the sonne of God, promised from the beginning.

b That is, written and taught by Matthew.

IN this history written by Matthew, Marke, Luke, and Iohn, the Spirit of God to gouerned their hearts, that although they were foure in number, yet in effect and purpose theye be cōsent, as though the whole had bene composed by any one of them. And albeit in stile & manner of writing they be diuers, and sometimes one writeth more largely than which the other doth abridge: neuertheless in matter and argument, they all tend to one end, which is to publish to the world the fauour of God to ward mankind through Christ Iesus, whom the Father hath giuen vs a pledge of his mercy and loue. And for this cause they entitle their story, Gospel, which significth good tidings, forasmuch as God hath performed indeed that which the fathers hoped for. So that hereby we are admonished to forsake the world, and the vanities therof, and with most affectionate hearts embrace this incomparable treasure freely offered vnto vs: And theris no toy nor consolation, no peace nor quietnesse, no felicitie nor saluation, but in Iesus Christ, who is the very substance of this Gospel, and in whom all the promises are, Yea, and Amen. And therefore vnder this word is contained the whole new Testament: but commonly we vse this name for the historie, which the foure Euangelists write, containing Christs comming in the flesh, his death and redemption, which is the perfect summe of our saluation. Matthew, Marke, and Luke are more copious in describing his life and death: but Iohn more laboureth to set forth his doctrine, wherein both Christs office, and also the vertue of his death and redemption more fully appaere: for without this, to know that Christ was borne, dead, and risen againe, (though nothing profit vs) The which thing notwithstanding that y three first touch partly, as hee also sometime intermeddeth the historicall narration, yet Iohn chiefly is occupied hereby. And therefore as a most learned interpreter writeth, they describe as it were, the body, and Iohn setteth openeth the doore to the vnderstanding of the others: for whomeuer doeth know the office, vertue, and power of Christ, shall read that which is written of the Sonne of God come to be the Redeemer of the world with most profit. Now as concerning the writers of this historie, it is euident that Matthew was a Publican or custome gatherer, and was thence chosen of Christ to be an Apostle. Marke is thought to haue bin Peters discipule, and to haue planted the first church at Alexandria, where he died the eight yeare of the reigne of Nero. Luke was a Physician of Antiochia, and became Pauls discipule, and fellow in all his troubles: he liued foure score and foure yeeres, and was buried at Constantinople, Iohn was that Apostle whom the Lord loued, the sonne of Zebedee, and brother of Iames: he died thre score yeeres after Christ, and was buried neere to the citie of Ephesus.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David, are fourteene generations: 3 from David vntill they were caried away into Babylon, fouretecn generations: and after they were caried away into Babylon, vntill Christ, fourtecn generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Iesus Christ was thus: When as his mother Mary was betrothed to Ioseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the holy Ghost.

19 Then Ioseph her husband being a iust man, and not willing to make her a publique example, was minded to put her away secretly.

20 But whiles he thought these things, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto him in a dream, saying, Ioseph the sonne of David, feare not to take Mary for thy wife: for that which is conceived in her, is of the holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a sonne, and thou shalt call his Name Iesus: for he shall save his people from their sinnes.

22 And all this was done that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken of the Lord by the Prophet, saying,

23 Behold a Virgin shall be with child, and shall beare a sonne, and they shall call his Name Emmanuel, which is by interpretation, God with vs.

24 ¶ Then Ioseph being raised from sleepe, did aske the Angel of the Lord had intoynd him, and tooke his wife.

25 But he knew her not, till shee had brought forth her first borne sonne, and he called his Name IESVS.

b wise men from the East to Jerusalem; 2 Saying, Where is the King of the Jews that is borne: for we haue seene his starre in the East, and are come to worship him.

3 ¶ When King Herode heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And gathering together all the chiefe Priests, and Scribes of the people, he asked of them, where Christ should be borne.

5 ¶ And they said vnto him, At Bethlehem in Iudra: for so it is written by the Prophet,

6 ¶ And thou Bethlehem in the land of Iudra, art not the least among the princes of Iudra: for out of thee shall come the gouernour that shall feed my people Israel.

7 ¶ Then Herode secretly called the wise men, & diligently inquired of them the time of the starre that appeared.

8 And sent them to Bethlechem, saying, Go and search diligently for the babe: and when ye haue found him, bring me word againe, that I may come also, and worship him.

9 ¶ So when they had heard the king, they departed: and loe, the starre which they had seene in the East, went before them, till it came, and stood ouer the place where the babe was.

10 And when they saw the starre, they reioyced with an exceeding great ioy.

11 And went into the house, and found the babe with Mary his mother, and fell downe, and worshipped him, and opened their treasures, and presented vnto him giftes, euen gold, and incense, and myrrhe.

12 And after they were warned of God in a dream, that they should not go againe to Herode, they returned into their countrey another way.

13 ¶ After their departure, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeareth to Ioseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the babe and his mother, and flee into Egypt, & be there till I bring thee word: for Herode will seeke the babe to destroy him.

14 So he arose, and tooke the babe and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt.

15 And was there vnto the death of Herode: that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken of the Lord by the Prophet, saying, Out of Egypt shall I called my Sonne.

16 ¶ Then Herode seeing that he was mocked of the Wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlechem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two yeres olde and vnder, according to the time which hee had diligently searched out of the Wise men.

thou shalt dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said vnto him, It is written againe, * Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again he the diuell tooke him vp vnto an exceeding high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the world, and the glory of them.

9 And sayd to him, All these will I giue thee, if thou wilt fall downe and worship me.

10 Then sayd Jesus vnto him, Auoids Satan: for it is written, * Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him onely shalt thou serue.

11 * Then the diuell left him: and behold, the Angels came and ministered vnto him.

12 ¶ And when Jesus had heard that John was deliuered vp, he returned into Galilee.

13 And leaning Nazareth, went a dwelle in Capernaum, which is neere the sea, in the borders of Zabulon and Neftthalim.

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Elias the Prophet, saying,

15 * The land of Zabulon and, the land of Neftthalim by the way of the sea, beyond Iordan, * Galilee of the Gentiles:

16 The people which sat in darkenesse, law great light: and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death, light is risen vp.

17 * From that time Jesus beganne to preach, and to say, Amen your turne: for the kingdome of heauen is at hand.

18 ¶ And Jesus walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon, which was called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishermen.)

19 And he sayd vnto them, Follow mee, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they straightaway leaving the nets followed him.

21 And when he was gone forth from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the sonne of Zebedee, and John his brother in a ship, with Zebedeus their father mending their nets, and he called them.

22 And they without tarrying, leaving the ship and their father, followed him.

23 So Iesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their Synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the kingdome, and healing euery sicknesse, and euery disease among the people.

24 And his fame spread abroad through all Syria: and they brought vnto him all sicke people that were taken with diuers diseases and gripings, and them that were possessed with diuels, and those which were lunaticke, and those that had the palse and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes out of Galilee, and Decapolis, and Ierusalem, and Iudea, & from beyond Iordan

¶ And when he saw the multitude, he went vp into a mountaine: and when he was set, his Disciples came to him.

2 And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

3 * Blessed are the poore in spirit: for theirs is the kingdome of heauen.

4 * Blessed are they that mourne: for they shall be comforted.

5 * Blessed are the meeke: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 * Blessed are they which hunger and thirst for righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 * Blessed are the mercifull: for they shall obtaine mercy.

8 * Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 * Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 * Blessed are they which suffer persecution for righteousness sake: for theirs is the kingdome of heauen.

11 * * Blessed are ye when men reuile you, and persecute you, and say all manner of euill against you for my sake, hally.

14 * Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill, cannot be hid.

15 * Neither doe men light a candle, and put it vnder a bushell, but on a candlestick, and it giueth light vnto all that are in the house.

16 * Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorifie your Father which is in heauen.

17 * Think not that I am come to destroy the Law, or the Prophets. I am not come to destroy them, but to fulfill them.

18 * For truly I say vnto you, Till heauen and earth perish, one loote, or one tittle of the Law shall not escape, till all things be fulfilled.
